Court Drops

Franzese Case

Mineola—Criminal charges that have been pending for nearly two years against Michael Franzese, son of imprisoned crime figure John (Sonny) Franzese, were dismissed yesterday because three separate trials on the charges have ended in hung juries.

Nassau County Court Judge Henderson Morrison acted on a motion by Franzese's attorney, Michael Pollack of Manhattan. Pollack said that the last of the juries had voted 10-2 on Oct. 24 in favor of acquitting Franzese, 24.

The Nassau district attorney's office concurred in the motion for dismissal "in the interests of justice," stating that it had no new evidence to introduce if a fourth trial were to be held.

Franzese, of 47 Shrub Hollow Rd., Roslyn, was accused of forcing an auto mechanic to surrender his car as repayment for the alleged theft of a $2,500 fur coat.
