Bayside, the defending Public Schools Athletic League champion, and Canarsie improved their records to 6-0 yesterday. Bayside's Commodores, winner of five out of the 10 titles since playoffs were formalized in 1971, clinched first place in the Bronx-Queens A division with a 30-6 triumph over Andrew Jackson.

Canarsie, thanks to a 5-for-8, 119-yard passing performance by Larry Triola, remained in sole possession of first place in Brooklyn B division play with a 26-0 triumph over Sheepshead Bay.

It was Lonnie Bellamy and the Harmon brothers, Kevin and Ronnie, who wrapped up the game yesterday as Bayside scored all its points before intermission. Kevin Harmon, the junior quarterback, was 8 for 10 passing for 111 yards and two touchdowns. He hit Bellamy with a 23-yarder and his brother Ronnie with a 25-yarder.

Bellamy carried the ball just 11 times for 66 yards but had three touchdowns. He ran 12 yards for the first score of the game and 23 yards for the final Bayside touchdown. He also caught a touchdown pass. Ronnie Harmon, the senior running back, added 60 yards rushing on seven carries and also had five catches for 73 yards plus two catches on 2-point conversions.

Ron (The Snake) McLaughlin, the tailback, scored the only touchdown Canarsie needed in its shutout over Sheepshead Bay. McLaughlin tallied on a 16-yard run in the first period. Darryl Littles added a 4-yard touchdown run in the second and Triola hit Anthony Marsh with a 37-yard scoring toss for a 20-0 halftime lead.

Still trying to keep its wildcard playoff hopes alive in Brooklyn's B division, Madison scored a 39-6 victory over Tilden. Paul Collica ran for 236 yards on 22 carries and scored three touchdowns.

The Golden Knights improved their record to 4-2 overall and 3-2 in league play right behind Canarsie and Midwood. An air attack launched by Dan McCarren kept Susan Wagner undefeated in Staten Island A division play with a 34-6 triumph over McKee. McCarren completed 11 out of 20 for 175 yards and three touchdowns. Wagner's record is now 3-0-1, while McKee dropped to 1-4.

Jefferson, 4-2 over all and 3-1 in league play, clinched a playoff berth in Brooklyn A division play by topping Lafayette, 28-16. Jefferson built up a 20-0 lead.

Springfield Gardens improved its record to 4-0 in Brooklyn-Queens B division play with a 14-8 victory over John Jay. Lou Chibara, the quarterback, combined with Dave Nelson on a 25-yard pass play for the winning score with three minutes left.

A pair of touchdown runs of 30 and 5 yards in the first and third periods by Bernard Ellis lifted August Martin to a 12-0 victory over Franklin K. Lane in Queens B division play, and kept the Falcons in the race for the playoffs right behind Sheepshead Bay.

After tying George Washington, the Bronx-Manhattan B division leader last week, Adlai Stevenson kept up its pace by stopping Stuyvesant, 27-0. The Ambassadors, now 3-1-1, picked up 230 of their 272 yards on the ground and scored all of their points before intermission.

Ted Oliver carried the ball a school-record 39 times for 197 yards and scored the first touchdown in Truman's 15-6 victory over Evander in another Bronx-Manhattan B division matchup.

The victory lifted Truman to a 4-2 record over all and gave it a 3-2 league record. It snapped a four-game winning streak by Evander, now 4-2.

Although Far Rockaway scored the first touchdown in the game, John Adams came back with one in each period, shutting out the Seahorses for the rest of the game for a 28-6 triumph. Tracy Lucas scored on runs of 1 and 3 yards. Adams is now 4-2 in Bronx-Queens A division play and Far Rockaway is 1-5.

The game ball in New Dorp's 26-6 victory over Curtis went to Steve Chelzi, who passed for one touchdown, set up another and kicked the first extra point in the game.

The Tatekawa twins once again helped George Washington, 5-0-1, to victory, this time a 26-3 triumph over Flushing in a non-division game. Walter Tatekawa, the fullback, had touchdown runs of 75, 52 and 46 yards, giving him nine touchdowns for the season.
