

obligatory cluck-clucking.

Nothing serious, mind you, for Bo Par was also smiling broadly about events Ret of the afternoon, including Illinois Pas getting knocked off by Ohio State. But Pur coaches would not be coaches if they Per didn't sigh and point out that the lads had no reason to get cocky because Mic they had made some mighty big low mistakes.

"Our defense is getting better but, jeez, you meet all these kinds of attacks," he said, rambling through a kic list of what would called "negatives" if they were brought up by the media. "Why, we even dropped a couple of passes Bean Arnold." That caused great among listeners. While Michigan has a junior wide receiver named Vince Bean, who caught the first touchdown pass of the day, there is no Wolverine with a first or last name of Arnold.

ANTHONY CARTER

"Who's Arnold?" someone inquired. Bo laughed.

"Arnold Carter," he said. "Also called Anthony Carter, A.C. and Snake. He's got a lot of names. Just call him anything and he'll turn around."

Carter, a swift 165-pound senior from Riveria Beach, Fla., who already has claimed an indecent number of school and Big Ten that Bo was taking liberties with his name. "There are more. I also answer to Tony, Creeper and Little Schemmy (because teammates insist Schembechler treats A.C. like a son)," said But they don't do much of that this year." SMALL WONDER. Who wants this bundle of excitement to get a bit more hyper than necessary? Coming into the game, he was averaging 17.8 yards for every time he carried the ball at Michigan, meaning scrimmage, kick returns and passes receptions.

Rushes-yards		42	-216	37-47
Passing yards			172	220
Return yards			8	8 (-1)
Passes		13	-24-0	19-32-0
Punts			5-37	7-39
Fumbles-lost			2-1	3-2
Penalties-yards			3-24	4-20
	CORIN	G
Michigan	0	12	3	14 - 29
lowa	0	0	0	7-7
M - Safety, block	ked pu	nt rol	led o	ut of end zone
M - FG Haji-Sheik	ch 44
M - Bean 11 pas		Smit	th (Ha	aji-Sheikh kick)
M - FG Haji-Sheik	ch 26
M Rogers 5 run		Sheik	h kick	1

- Rogers 5 run (Haji-Sheikh kick) M — Rogers 1 run (Haji-Sheikh kick) - Hufford 8 pass from Long (Nichol kick) A - 59,989

By RON MALY Register Staff Writer

IOWA CITY, IA. - Michigan's 29-7 that could have been football victory over Iowa here Saturday was music to Coach Bo Schembechler's ears, and not just because a Rogers and Hammerstein act played a huge role in one of the Wolverines' touchdowns.

Tailback Rick Rogers and defensive tackle Mike Hammerstein are both sophomores. But they were just two of the many standouts for a Michigan team that suddenly is the only one that's unbeaten in the Big

And, unaccustomed as he is to sending thank-you notes to Ohio State Coach Earle Bruce, Schembechler might be tempted to do it now. It was the Buckeyes who knocked Illinois out of first place in the conference with a 26-21 upset victory Saturday.

"We tried everything in the book to records, merely grinned when told stop 'em, but couldn't," said Iowa Coach Hayden Fry, whose team had a HAWKEYES

I II SL GOWIS			1.4	10
Rushes-yards		46-155		43-139
Passing yards		135		138
Return yards			8	39
Passes		18-	37-0	9-16-2
Punts		12-39		8-43
Fumbles-lost			1-1	4-3
Penalties-yards		1	7-45	4-50
	ORING			1. 10
Iowa State	0	7	3	7-17
Missouri	14	0	0	3-17
M - Perry 3 run (F	Richmond	d kic	k)
M - Thomas				n Perry
(Richmond Kick)
IS - Jacobs 4 pa	ss from	Arc	her	(Giffords
kick)
IS - FG 39 Gifford	s
M - FG 26 Burditt
IS - Brown 5 run (kick)
A-66.133			'
-

By BOB DYER

Register Staff Writer

COLUMBIA, MO. - At the conclusion of Iowa State's 17-17 tie with Missouri Saturday, a chorus of boos emanated from the partisan crowd of 66,133, followed by this brief blurt from the announcer at Faurot Field: "Another tie."

It was obvious the homecoming gathering did not take solace in the Tigers' deadlock after a similar occurrence the week before at Kansas* State.

There weren't a lot of smiles from Iowa State's players, either, as they trooped to their dressing room. The Cyclones did have the satisfaction of knowing they were dictating the terms late in the game.

"I told our football team we've had" a lot of great victories, but I haven't been prouder of them this year than L was today," Iowa State Coach Donnie Duncan said. "I'm heartbroken we didn't win, but proud of the way we played."

Didn't do a thing to hurt that average in Kinnick Stadium, either.

Carter caught three passes for 61 yards, returned three punts for 51 and rambled 52 more with two kickoffs. That comes out to 20.5 per tote.

Statistics are nice, but who did what when is even more important. Carter's 22-yard return of Reggie Roby's free kick following the safety quickly gave Michigan good position in midfield to come back with a field goal.

And, when the Hawkeyes had to punt following their next possession, Roby got off a 45-yard line drive that

> WHITE Please turn to Page 4D

Please turn to Page 4D

Iowa's Bill Happel watches ball speed past him in Saturday's 27-7 loss to Michigan at Iowa City.

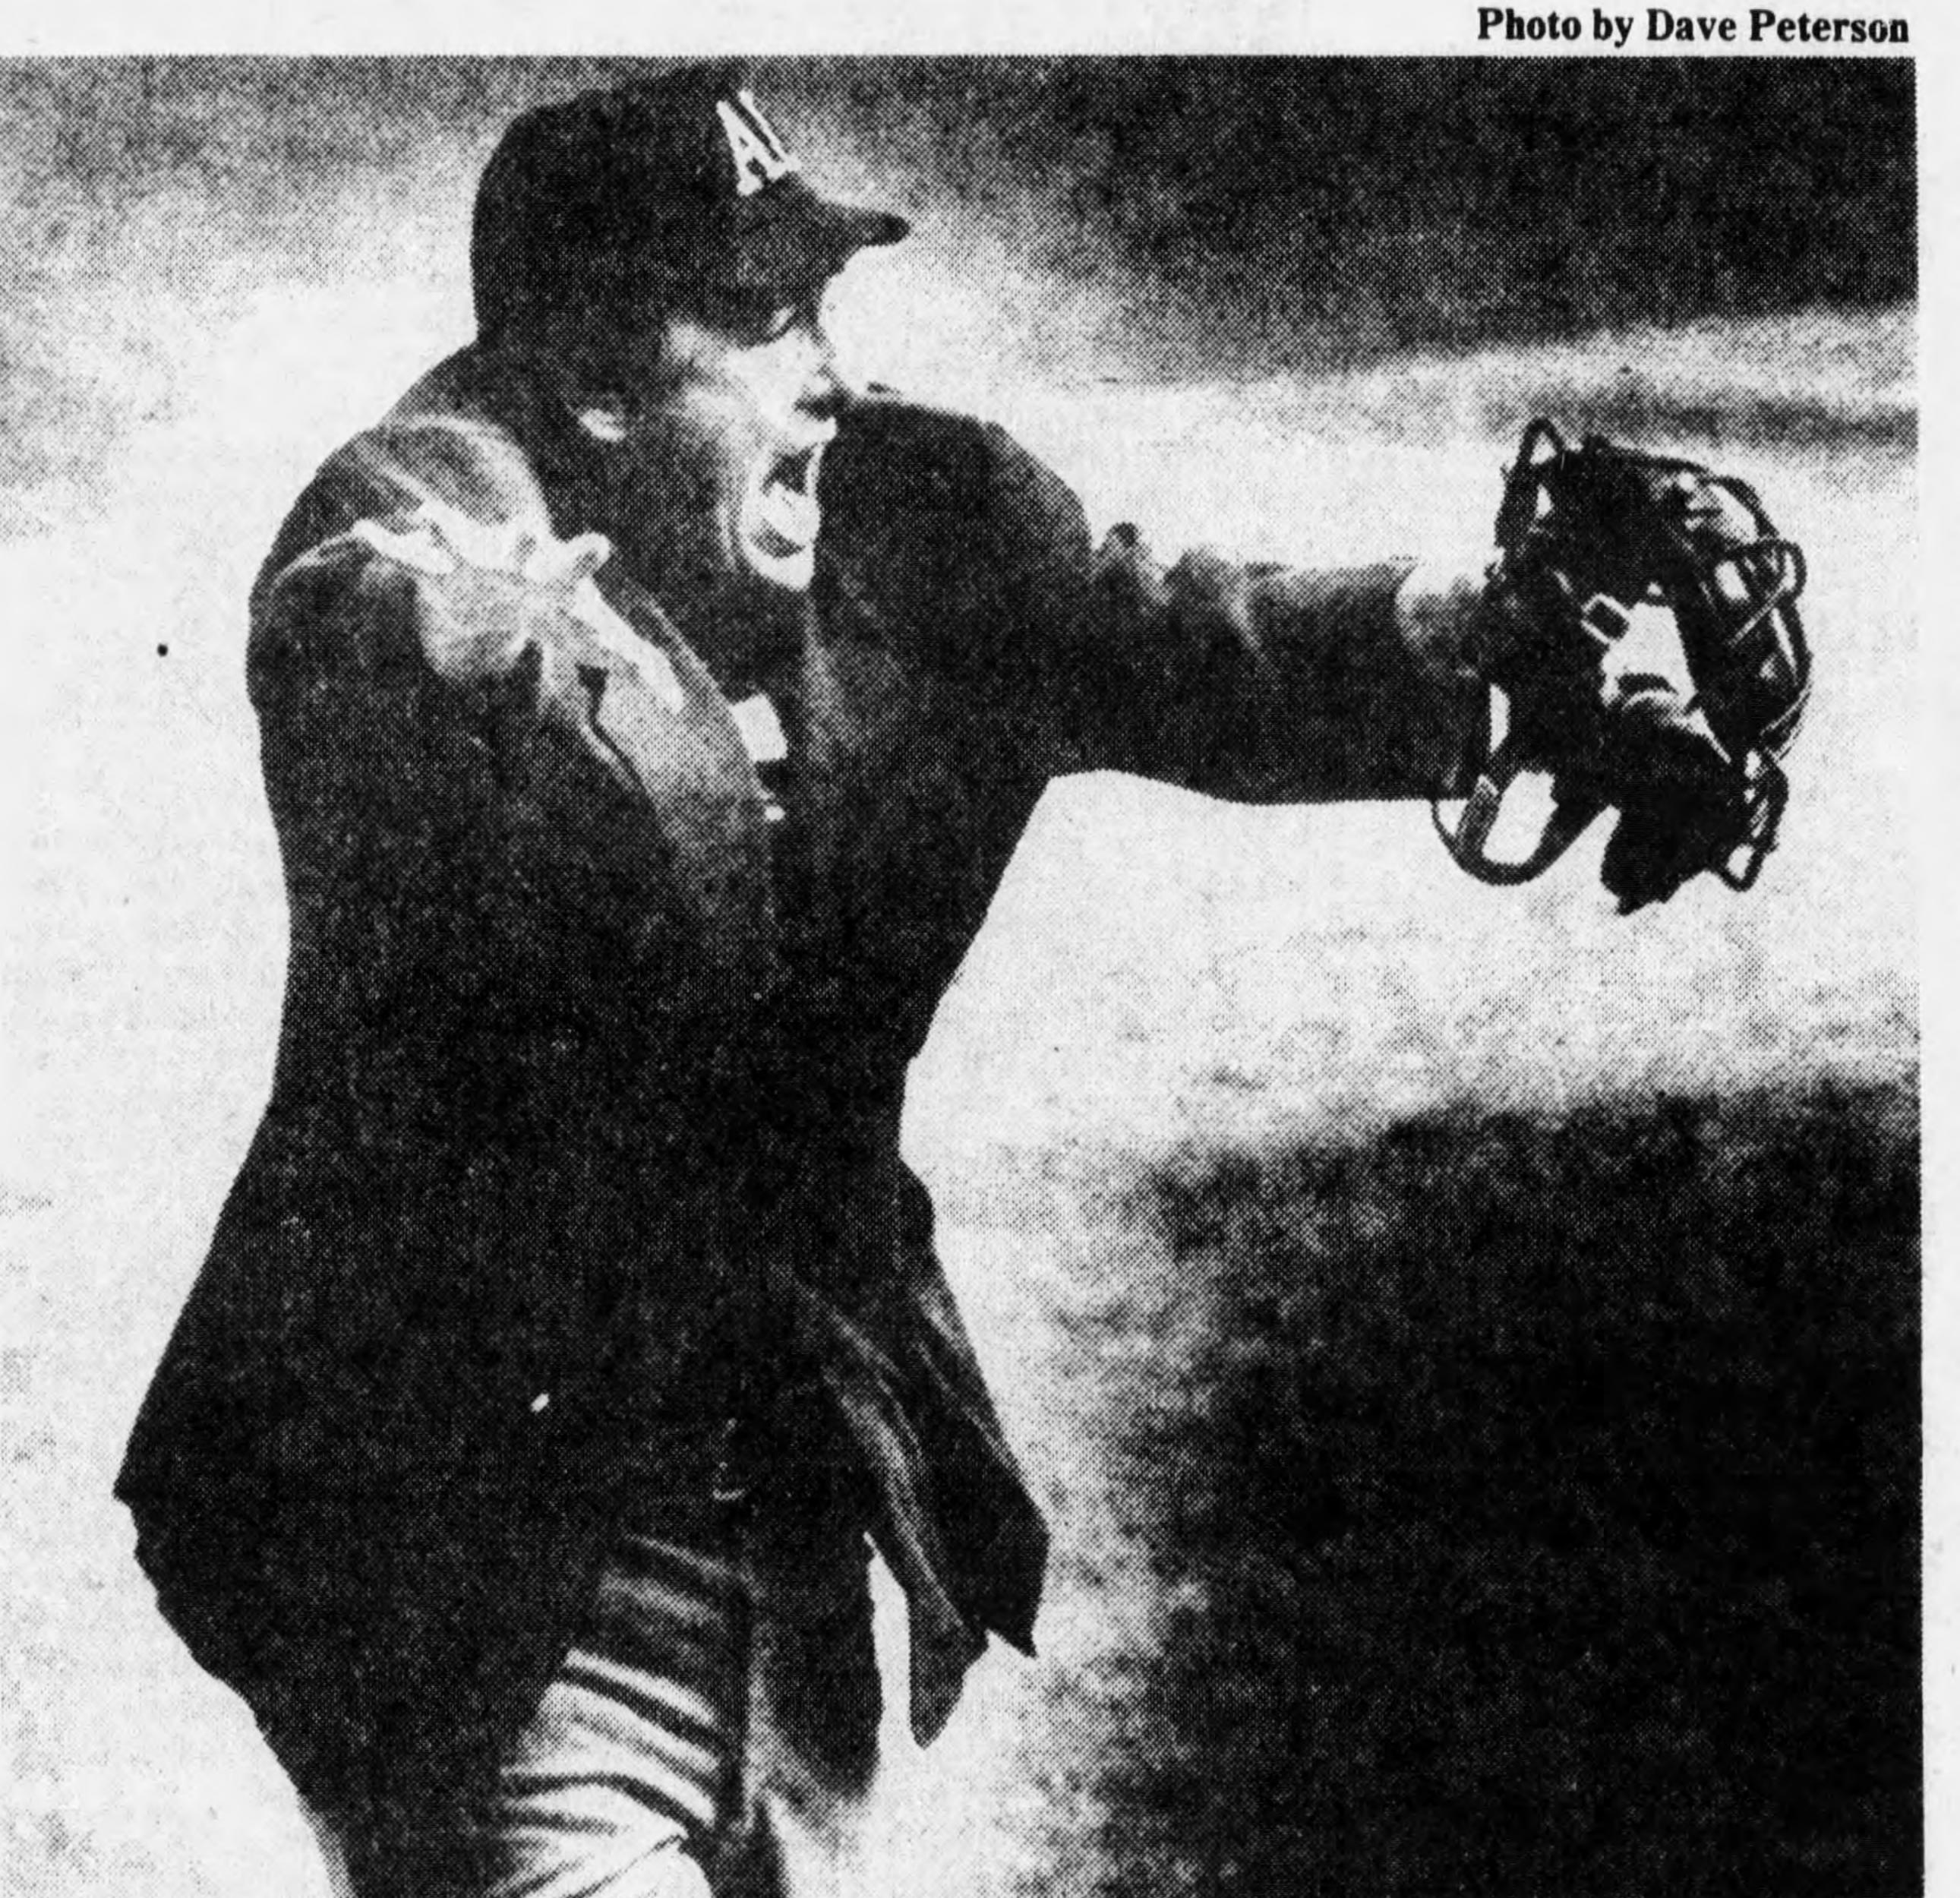

Happel was wide open, but pass thrown by quarterback Chuck Long was overthrown.

Teams don't contend for titles with

CYCLONES

Please turn to Page 3D

Whatshisname. "Used to be that defensive backs called me Pelican Legs and names you couldn't print. But they don't do much of that this But they don't do much of that this

Gorman's bat 'spoke' at just the right time

By MARC HANSEN Register Staff Writer

MILWAUKEE, WIS. - The first time Gorman Thomas popped up to the catcher Saturday he wanted to take his bat and chuck it. He wasn't sure where, just somewhere out of sight.

Instead, he flipped it three or four feet into the air and grabbed it as it descended. Not only was it an act of manual dexterity he hadn't displayed heretofore in the 1982 World Series, but it was also an act of control.

The Milwaukee center fielder had taken his 1-for-15 American League playoff series batting record and turned it into a 3-for-28 picture of postseason futility in the World Series; 3-for-29 counting his next at-bat, that second pop to Darrell Porter, which resulted in another splendid piece of juggling. "I wanted to fire it ... what I wanted to do with the Lat," he said after the Brewers had turned a 5-1 deficit into a 7-5 victory Saturday. "Quite obviously I wanted to hit a home run, but I crushed it straight up." When he repeated the act to start off the seventh inning, it looked as if the Brewers were on their way to Series defeat No. 3. And when he came up with the bases loaded and the score tied, 5-5, with two outs eight batters later in the very same inning, the situation looked brighter, but not so bright as you might imagine. The bases were loaded, but there were two out and it was hard to tell which had been more quiet through the better part of four World Series games, "Silent" George Hendrick or Gorman Thomas' bat. THE ISSUE WAS resolved when Thomas singled to left-center against Jeff Lahti to roust Robin Yount and Cecil Cooper across the plate with the winning runs. It was the least he could have done after Whitey Herzog elected to walk Ted Simmons with first base empty to get to Thomas. It was the same Thomas, by the way, who had been responsible for 39 home runs and 112 runs-batted-in across the regular season. "I'd have pitched to me, too," he

Big seventh frame erases 4-run deficit

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AP) -Gorman Thomas and Robin Yount each drove in two runs in Milwaukee's six-run seventh inning, and the Brewers, their backs to the wall once again, charged to a 7-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday to even baseball's 79th World Series at two games apiece.

Trailing, 5-1, the Brewers were headed for a third loss in four 1982 World Series games — a deficit from which only four teams have recovered - when they sent 12 men to the plate in the seventh.

"Hopefully, this will give us a lift for the rest of the Series," said Paul Molitor, who walked and eventually scored the tying run in Milwaukee's big inning. "We didn't want to be staring into a situation of having to win three in a row."

Such a predicament would have

Turkey Valley in title game

By RANDY PETERSON Register Staff Writer

Top-rated Charles City and No. 3 of the Girls' State Fall softball tournament with semifinal-round Brewers to within one run, 5-4. victories Saturday afternoon at Urbandale.

1-0 victory over No. 10 Urbandale | want to win." while Turkey Valley ousted sec- At the same time, the 56,560 fans ond-ranked Ankeny, 4-2.

contests, were to meet for the title Saturday night. Ankeny and Urbandale collided in the consolation game.

Charles City scored its winning run in the sixth inning. With two outs, Julie Saunders hit a double to the right-field fence and Kim Sellers, who had walked, scored on an ensuing error.

duel between left-handers Wendi | right forearm. Coen of Charles City and Kris Slump

Long	North -	SOFTBALL
lease	turn	softBALL to Page 2D	-

been nothing new. The Brewers beat Baltimore on the last day of the regular season - after losing three in a row to the Orioles - to win the American League East. And in the A.L. playoffs, Milwaukee fell behind West champion California, 0-2, but won three straight games to capture its first American League pennant.

"The attitude of this team very Turkey Valley of Jackson Junction | seldom changes, no matter what the advanced to the championship game situation," said Yount, whose two-run, checked-swing single drew the

"When you play in a World Series, every game is important," Yount Charles City (21-2), the state | said. "This team took this game the champion in 1979, advanced with a same as any, with the attitude that we who braved a cold, windy day at The two northeast Iowa rivals, who Milwaukee County Stadium were left split a pair of regular-season in suspense over whether one of their favorite sons, relief ace Rollie Fingers, was able to pitch.

Left-handed reliever Bob McClure stifled a potential St. Louis rally in the eighth with a double-play pitch, then retired the side in order in the ninth, striking out Tommy Herr and pinch hitter Gene Tenace to end the game as Fingers warmed up in the bullpen. Fingers has not pitched since Saunders' hit broke up a pitching | Sept. 2 because of a torn muscle in his

Afterward, Brewers Manager

	SERIES turn to Page 2D
Please	turn to Page 2D

FOUL BALL — Plate umpire Dave Phillips calls a ball from Milwaukee batter Cecil Cooper foul in seventh inning of Saturday's World Series game in Milwaukee, If fly ball had been fair, it could have been third out. Instead Cooper followed with single that tied score as Milwaukee won, 7-5.

Poll: Duncan, Fry 'beat' Reagan

By RICHARD DOAK

Register Staff Writer Copyright, 1982, Des Moines Register and Tribune Company

It must be tougher to please the fans when you're up against doubledigit unemployment instead of Nebraska's offensive line.

For Iowans, it seems, like their football coaches better than their politicians.

That's one interpretation of the latest Iowa Poll, which asked Iowans whether they approve of the jobs being done by the football coaches at the University of Iowa and at Iowa State University. Both Hayden Fry and Donnie

IOWA POLL WHENLI

Duncan graded out higher than the president of the United States. And both coaches out-polled Iowa's two U.S. senators, whose approval ratings were measured earlier this year.

Then comes the inevitable question: which of the two rival coaches rates higher with the fans?

That answer depends on whether you look at the raw stats or at the ratios.

Fry, who took his team to the Rose Bowl last year, was given a favorable rating by 59 percent of Iowans.

Duncan's approval rating was 47 percent, even though his Cyclone teams have whipped Fry's Hawkeyes three years in a row.

More Iowans also have an opinion about the colorful Fry than about the low-key Duncan. Nearly half of adult Iowans expressed no opinion of Duncan's performance, while only a third have no opinion about Fry.

Comparing the ratio of approval to disapproval, however, Duncan comes

COACHES Please turn to Page 7D

THOMAS

Please turn to Page 2D

4D/ DES MOINES SUNDAY REGISTER OCTOBER 17, 1982

Hawks again hit by costly injuries

HAWKEYES

Continued from Page One

three-game winning streak stopped. The Hawks now stand 2-1 in the conference and 3-3 overall heading into next Saturday's game at Minnesota.

Fry said earlier last week that it was "unbelievable to me" that Iowa hadn't beaten Michigan here since 1962.

He found out Saturday how it keeps happening.

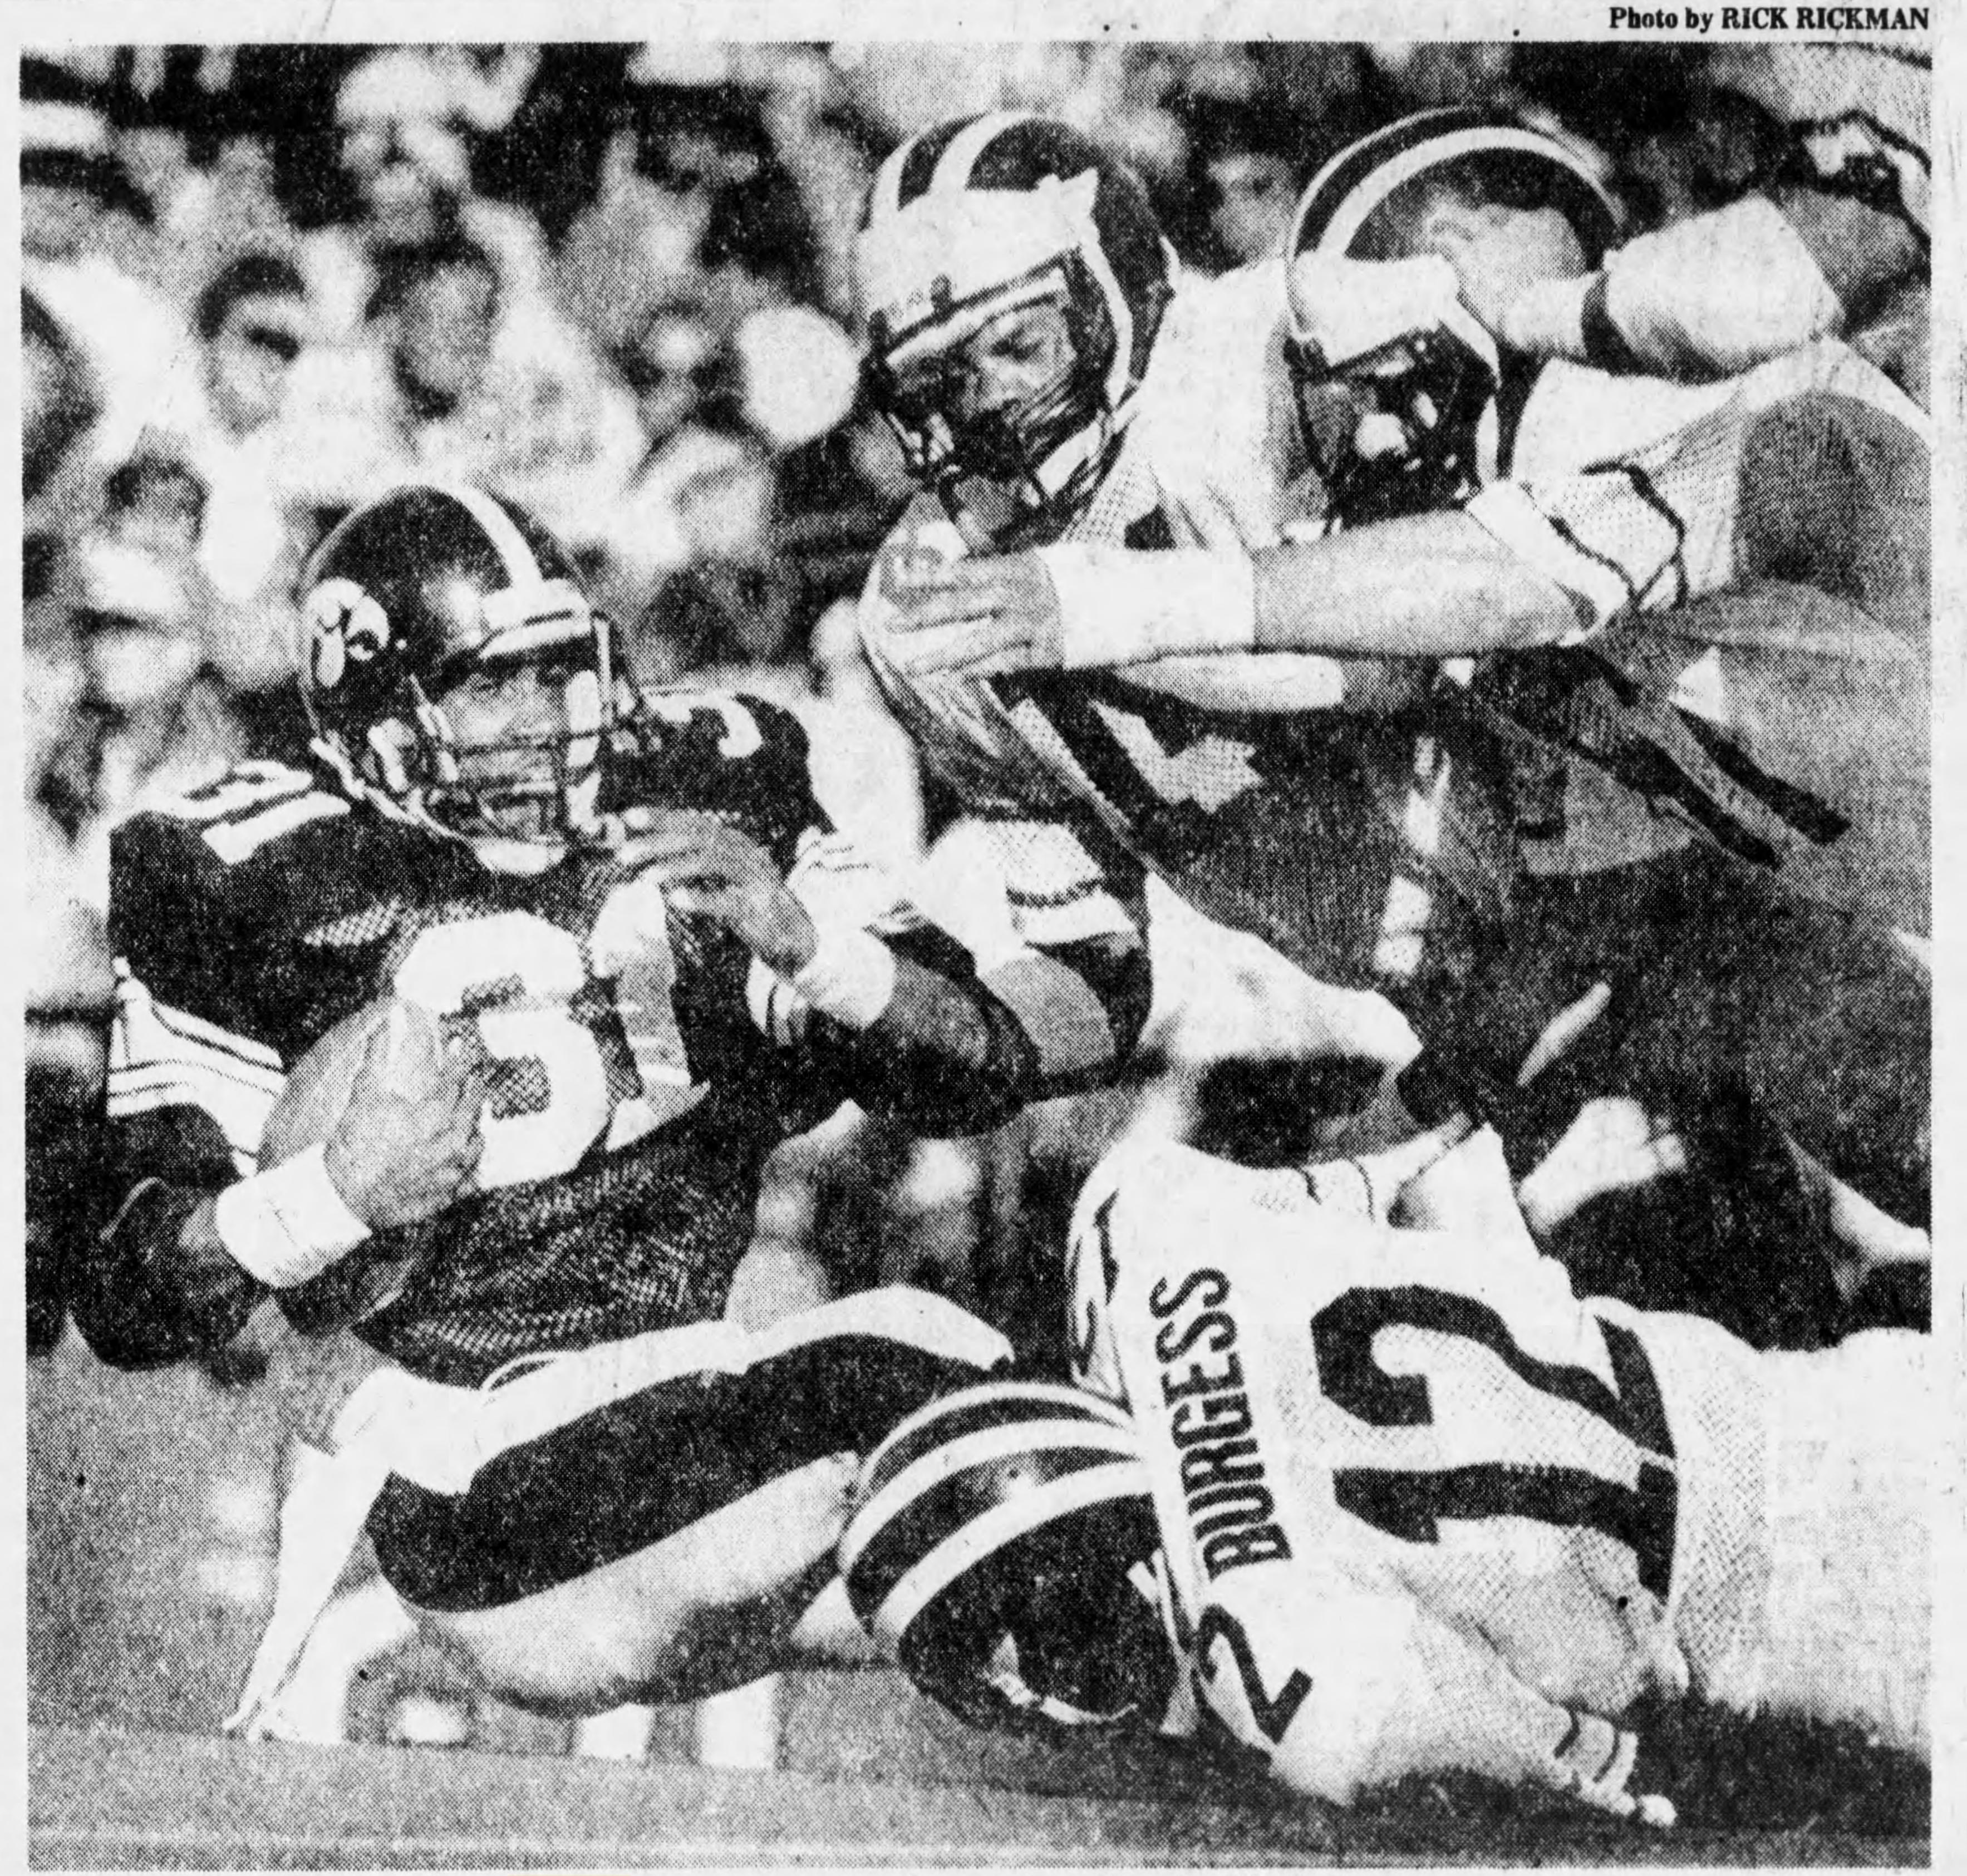

The Hawkeyes were pumped up at the start in front of a crowd of 59,989 at Kinnick Stadium, and were inches away from scoring a touchdown early in the second quarter.

Then disaster struck. Owen Gill fumbled at the goal after being hit by defensive back Jerry Burgei, and the ball was recovered by Marion Body at the two.

The momentum switched tremendously after that. Michigan went ahead, 2-0, when linebacker Carlton

		RUS					~
CHIGAN		Yds.	IOV			No. 13	-	0
:ks	18	120		lips		13		8
gers	12	61		ange	n (1		4
rcer	3	15		995	order			4
Smith	2	9			ordan	;		ő
e	233		Gill	rmo		2		ñ
Smith	3	0	Loi			13.	(-43	ň
rrett	1	PAS				13	1 -	"
CHIGAN			Att.		mp.	Int.	Y	ds.
					3	0	17
Smith NA			ATT.		mp.	Int.		ds.
			2		9	0	22
ng		ECE			·	*	**	~
CHIGAN		Yds.		NA		No	. Y	ds.
an	4	57		illips		5		51
rter	3	61		ange		5		39
naway	3	38		rmo		4		70
ce	ĩ	7		Hor		3		26
gers	i	5		ppe		1		15
cks	1	4		oritz		1		9
	TAC	KLE	LEA
CHIGAN	U.	A.		WA		U		A.
ompson	7	4	Sta	tion	1	10		3
rget	7	3	Br	own	e	7		4
rraway	6	3	B.	Stoc	ps	6		1
rgash	5	3	Er	b		5		2
stic	5	1	Bo	rtz		3		1
ren	4	4	Ya	cull	0	3		2
rgess	4	1	Ha	wie	Y	2		3
se	3	3
dy	3	3
	Sea				4.

IOWA		MICHIGAN
Nebraska	42	20 Wisconsin
Iowa State	19	17 Notre Dame
Arizona	14	27 UCLA
Northwestern	7	24 Indiana
Indiana	20	31 Mich. State
Michigan	29	29 Iowa
at Minnesola		at Northwestern
Illinois		Minnesota
at Purdue		at Illinois
Wisconsin		Purdue
at Mich. State		at Ohio State

Rose blocked Reggie Roby's punt and the ball rolled out of the end zone for a safety. Then the Wolverines made it 5-0 on Ali Haji-Sheikh's 44-yard field goal, and just kept applying the pressure.

Schembechler, whose team now stands 4-0 in the Big Ten and 4-2 for the season, admitted he and his players benefited from some charity.

"I'm pleased to get the win," he said, "and it was a tremendous one. I know how we scored a couple of times. I'm not naive - they were gifts."

The plays Fry kept harping about were the missed scoring opportunity in the first half and the fumble at the Iowa five-yard line early in the fourth period that resulted in the touchdown that made it 22-0.

Enter Rogers and Hammerstein. Hammerstein is a starter and the guy who fell on the ball when quarterback Chuck Long was charged with a umble.

Granger Error

"Norm Granger (the fullback) lined up incorrectly," Fry explained, "and Chuck turned. He shouldn't have attempted to give the ball to Granger, but did."

On the very next play, No. 2 tailback Rogers bolted into the end zone for a touchdown with just 51 seconds gone in the last quarter. That, plus Haji-Sheikh's conversion, ended any logical hope Iowa had.

Fry refused to blame Roby for the blocked punt, although it was the second time in two weeks Reggie has had it happen to him.

"It was a great effort by the tie for the Big Ten title and a spot in the Rose Bowl.

But Iowa never has beaten the Wolverines twice in succession and has won only five times in a series that began in 1900.

Strong Runners

Michigan always has a productive running game, and this year's team is no exception. The Wolverines piled up 216 yards on the ground to only 47 for owa and owned a 398-267 lead in total offense.

Tailback Lawrence Ricks, who came into the game as the Big Ten's No.1 runner with a 103.4-yard average, didn't hurt himself with 120 in 18 carries Saturday.

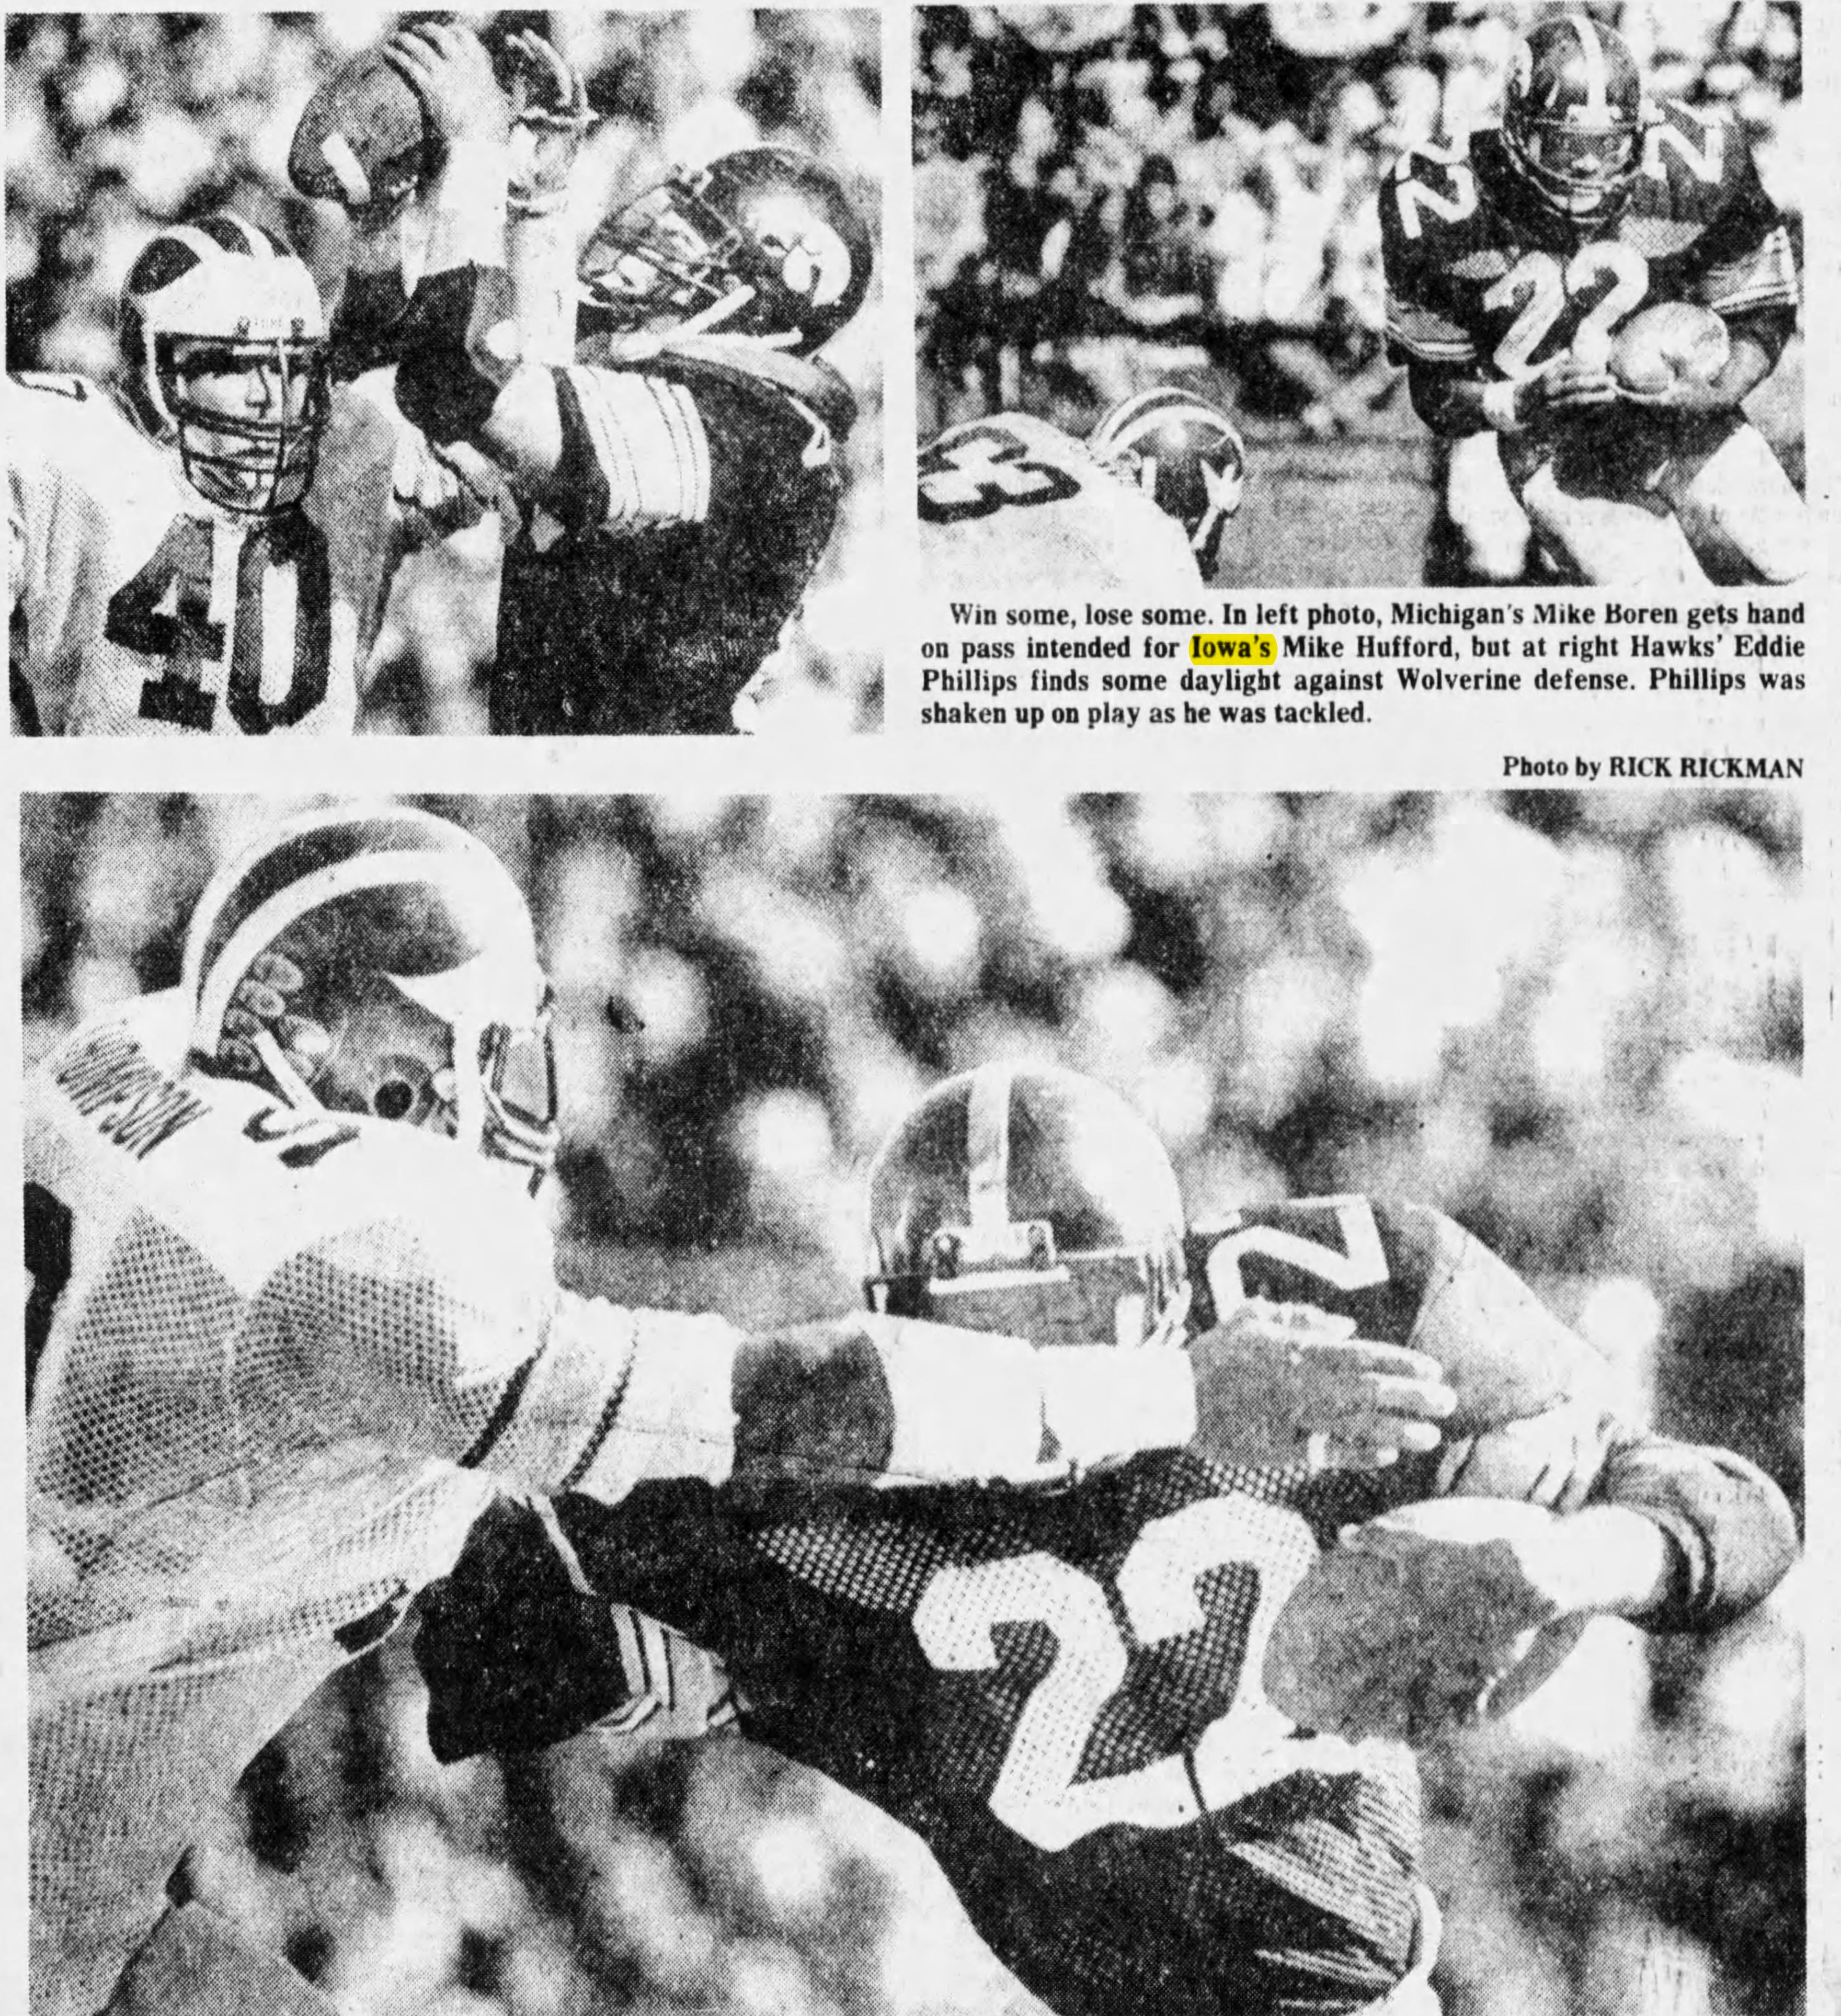

Rogers totaled 61 yards in a dozen carries and scored two touchdowns. In addition to the five-yarder early in the final period, he went across on a one-yarder with 6:28 left in the game. Haji-Sheikh's extra point sent the score to 29-0, and people were starting to wonder if Iowa would be blanked at home for the first time since Michigan's 34-0 victory here in 1978.

But Long and Mike Hufford took care of that by teaming up on an eight-yard touchdown pass for the Hawks with 2:24 to go. Tom Nichol added the conversion and gave the big crowd something more to cheer about.

"Chuck had to scramble," Hufford

Swarming Michigan gives Ronnie Harman an unhappy landing in 29-7 victory at Iowa City

Photos by HARRY BAUMERT

Michigan player (Rose)," Fry said. "He just went over the top of Granger."

There seems to be a dispute about whether Roby is a three-step punter or a two-stepper. Fry and Roby claim he uses two steps before getting the ball off, but Schembechler said he takes one more.

"Reggie is one of the few two-step kickers," said Fry. "All others use three steps. Reggie gets his kicks off in a hurry."

Said Roby: "I'm a two-step punter, but maybe I got the kick that was blocked off too slowly. I line up one yard to the right of the center, and I didn't see the Michigan player coming."

Schembechler said, "When you are a three-step punter and you're trying to kick away from the receiver, that means you take a little longer and kick from an angle. It wasn't a planned play to block the punt. We just kept our men coming."

Iowa fans hoped the Hawkeyes could repeat last year's upset of Michigan at Ann Arbor that proved to be a very large step in the march to a.

Illinois Benedictine topples Loras

Statistics

37-142 43-136

8-25-4 9-21-0 2-42 5-36

First downs Rushes-yards Passing yards Return yards Passes Punts Fumbles-lost Penalties-yards SCORING 7 3 0 0 - 10 0 14 0 13 - 27 said, "and I had to run a quick out pattern. I went to the middle of the end zone, and he saw me. I had no idea if I was in bounds or not.

"We needed to do more of that all day. We beat ourselves."

An 11-yard touchdown pass from Steve Smith to Vince Bean with 45 seconds left in the first half made the score 12-0 at halftime. Haji-Sheikh booted a 26-yard field goal with 10:12 remaining in the third period to make it 15-0.

Fry said he was "anxious to see if we'd roll over and play dead if we got behind - but we didn't."

Costly Injuries

However, it was another costly game from an injury standpoint. No. 2 defensive left end George Millett was taken off the field on a stretcher late in the game, and Fry thought he "had the same injury as Lon Olejniczak got last year against UCLA."

If so, that means he has a broken leg in two places. Olejniczak still can't play because of the 1981 mishap and faces further surgery.

"Some of our players, including Ron Hawley (free safety) and Mike Yacullo (linebacker), had lacerations on their hands," said Fry. "We lost split end Dave Moritz with a hip pointer."

Long completed seven of 10 passes for 94 yards in the first half and finished with 19 completions in 32 tries for 220. That's good enough to win most games, but not this one. "Iowa is a young team and will be a good team," said Schembechler. "I

Loras

Ineis Benedictine

- Edmeier 1 run (Jebson kick) IB — Reinert 1 run (McNally kick)
- FG Jebson 25
- McCain 1 run (McNally kick)
- Reinert 2 run (McNally kick)
- IB Vanisi 7 pass from Pudlo (kick failed)

Special Dispatch to The Register

LISLE, ILL. - Loras tailback Dan Edmeier added 106 yards rushing to bring his six-game season total to 795 yards, but the Duhawks lost to Illinois Benedictine, 27-10, Saturday. in nonconference football.

Fullback John Reinert led Illinois Benedictine with two short touchdown runs andgained 111 yards in 25 carries.

N.E. Missouri rallies past C. Missouri, 23-20

Special Dispatch to The Register

WARRENSBURG, MO. - A 16-yard scoring pass from Tom Hayes to Rich Otte climaxed an 85-yard fourth-quarter drive and lifted Northeast Missouri to a 23-20 college football victory over Central Missouri Saturday. Northeast Missouri (5-1) built an early 16-0 lead, but fell behind, 20-16, in the fourth quarter before mounting the winning drive.

How tedious

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y. (AP) -Itsabore won the feature race Saturday at Finger Lakes Race Track.

wish them luck the rest of the way. We sure would like to have them beat Illinois." Bo will have to wait until Oct. 30 for that. Iowa freshman Ronnie Harmon caught four passes for 70 yards. Three of the catches came in the first half, but Michigan's blitzing and aggressive play took care of the situation after that.

Asked if Michigan was the best team Iowa has played, Harmon said, "All the teams are good. This is college, not high school."

Fry said Granger reinjured his shoulder last Tuesday in practice and was held out of hard workouts after that.

"He's a tough kid," the coach said, "but was out of the game when Gill fumbled at the goal."

Fry said Gill was lined up at tailback just before he fumbled. However, the coach also mentioned he "thought Long had scored earlier" on the drive.

However, the officials put the ball inches away from the goal after the three-yard gain that gave Iowa a first down.

Eddie Phillips gained nothing on first down, then Gill fumbled.

"That fumble was money in the bank," said Schembechler. "That's one reason you never concede down there. Something good might happen - and it did."

Iowa's Eddie Phillips (22) tries to turn corner against Michigan defender Craig Dunaway

Carter goes for 3rd straight all-America selection

WHITE Continued from Page One

gave A.C. all sorts of time to get going before the defenders got close. He set up a touchdown with a 31-yard return to midfield.

Big man, that Carter, by whatever nickname. There's good reason to think it should be T.D. He scored 54 of those as a prep all-American and currently is tied with Rich Leach for Michigan's school record of 34.

Wanna bet he doesn't break it? I thought not.

IF YOU WILL forget the fact that he did a considerable bit of fibbing in his younger days, Anthony is an attractive young man. He is listed as 5 feet 11 inches and 161 pounds and that's about right, although he got up to 167 once.

Back in prep days, while scoring all those touchdowns, A.C. and his coach, Al Sutton, got to worrying because Our Hero weighed only about 150 and colleges seem to shy away from ittybitty guys.

"We thought my true size would cause people to lose interest, so I'd send back questionaires saying I was 6-2 and 170. Then, when the recruiter would come around, he'd say, "I'm looking for a big guy.' And I'd say, 'I'm him. Right here.' "

You may believe that the Wolverines have never regretted taking a chance on a young man who is built considerably less sturdy than your average Hercules or Goliath.

As of this moment, despite a senior season in which a groin injury has hurt his speed a little, Carter is in excellent position to become only the eighth player in Big Ten history, and the first since Alex Agase in 1946, to gain all-America honors in three straight seasons.

Oddly, Agase is now a part-time member of Schembechler's staff and spent what turned out to be a happy afternoon as one of the "eyes in the sky" at the game.

CARTER NO LONGER has two marks of distinction. His jersey number is "1" and, until this season, he was the only Wolverine who didn't have any name across the back of his jersey.

He was wearing a tear-away jersey and opponents were cooperating by ripping off about five per game. This year, the rules were tightened to make the wearing of such flimsy fabric a disadvantage, so now he does wear "CARTER" across his back.

During first brushes with fame at Ann Arbor, he also wore a gold "No. 1" charm on a chain around his neck. For one reason or another, a young lady given temporary possession of this never gave it back, even though the romance ended.

"I've got another gimmick now, but " I'd rather not say what," said A.C.

Obviously, if he's not willing to be pinned down, it's very hard to do it. Ask the Hawkeyes, or anyone else in . the league. Matter of fact, it's not too early for the Washington Huskies to start worrying about slowing down Arnold, Anthony, Snake or A.C. in the Rose Bowl. And lots of luck.