

TWO roommates wanted to share a bedroom house $140/month plus utilities 7-18

AUG. 1, own bedroom: electricity, bus. Deville Apt. 7-15

ROOMMATE wanted immediately $167.50 plus low utilities. Post. business 7-4

ROOMMATE needed: Share spacious 3 bedroom trailer in Bon Ave. Washer, dryer, cablevision, 6:30

BRAND NEW: 2 and three bed. These reduced 1/2 for summer. Lot. Rent is $520/$6 mo. August Me. 6:30

NOW R FOR

Down

Florida relieves Pell of grid job

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — University of Florida football Coach Charley Pell was fired Sunday following charges by the NCAA that his program committed 107 rules violations.

"I am relieving (Pell) of his responsibilities as head football coach as of 6 p.m. tonight," university president Marshall Criser said in a statement Sunday.

"I am placing him on administrative leave to perform such duties as may be assigned to him by me or the athletic director. The administrative leave shall terminate at my discretion, but in no event no later than December 1, 1984," Criser said.

Pell was not immediately available for comment.

CRISER CITED LAST week's announcement by the NCAA that the Florida program had committed 107 rules violations. He said the university would respond to the charges Tuesday.

"Coach Pell has agreed to cooperate with the university in attempting to bring the NCAA proceedings to a close with the least continuing damage to the university and to the student-athletes," Criser said.

"While he and I had both hoped at an earlier time that he would be able to complete the regular season, I have concluded that such cannot be the case," Criser said.

Criser said assistant Coach Galen Hall would temporarily replace Pell.

"Obviously this comes as a tremendous shock to me," Hall said Sunday. "What we are concerned about right now is doing what is best for our players. They're the number one priority right now."

EARLIER, SOME GATOR players said they would be disappointed if Pell was fired.

"I can't begin to make policies for the school or make Mr. Criser's decision," kicker Bobby Raymond said, "but I'd be real upset if they make a change. But I think Coach Pell would want us to pull together."

Quarterback Kerwin Bell said: "It would hurt the team really bad (if Pell didn't finish the season). Coach Pell is really close to the team. I don't think we'd go as far as a boycott, but our performance might drop a little bit."

On Tuesday, the NCAA delivered to the university a 75-page report containing charges of 107 rules violations against the Florida program, including illegal spying of Florida opponents and the giving of money and gifts to players. The charges were the result of a 20-month investigation.

CRISER SAID THE university would file its response to the NCAA in Kansas City, Mo., on Tuesday. Severe sanctions are likely to follow.

"The NCAA charges disclose and the university's response will acknowledge — to the extent the university and its attorneys have been able to determine —

See Pell, page 6B

Lions ground Iowa attack, 20-17

By Mike Condon
Assistant Sports Editor

You had the feeling that Joe Paterno was playing possum when he said his No. 13 Penn State squad would have no chance against Iowa.

After a week of praising Iowa and belittling his own squad, Paterno brought a determined band of Nittany Lions into Kinnick Stadium and returned to Happy Valley on Saturday night with a 20-17 win in his hip pocket.

"Earlier in the week I said we might have a mismatch on our hands," Paterno said with a sly grin. "So obviously I am pleased with the results."

The Hawkeyes were the victims of many things in their first home loss since 1982 — poor execution at times, a little bad luck and the biggest problem of all, turnovers.

"HONESTLY, WE HAD a lot of opportunities to win the game today," a dejected Fry said at his postgame press conference. "We just made a lot of mistakes. That pretty much sums up the game. We made four fumbles and they were all critical."

Critical indeed.

After taking an early lead on a 24-yard field goal by Tom Nichol, the Hawkeyes stopped the Nittany Lions and forced a punt on the final play of the quarter. With the ball resting on the Iowa 14, Penn State linebacker Shane Conlan came in untouched and buried Iowa quarterback Chuck Long forcing a fumble that Conlan pounced on at the Iowa four-yard line.

The Iowa defense rose to the task, stopping Penn State on three plays before Nick Gancitano kicked a 21-yarder to tie the score. The Lions had three points on the board and had not even gotten a first down, which would be an indication of future events.

THE FIELD GOAL seemed to motivate the Penn State offense to match the defensive effort. After Conlan rocked Owen Gill with a hit that forced a Long pass into the hands of linebacker Bob Ontko, the Lions moved down the field where Gancitano converted his second field goal of the day, a 35-yarder, to give Penn State a lead it would never relinquish.

The Iowa offense again sputtered and after a punt the Hawkeye defense had, as Fry put it, "our only major breakdown of the game." With the ball on the Iowa 24, Strang found a wide-open Herb Bellamy in the end zone to give the Lions a 13-3 lead with just 48 seconds left in the half.

But Iowa wasn't quite ready to concede. Ronnie Harmon returned the kickoff to midfield. After a pass to Quinn Early and a roughing penalty for a late hit on Long, the fleet-footed Harmon skirted untouched 15 yards for the touchdown with four seconds left in the half.

"I REALLY FELT after halftime that we would come out and win in the second half," Fry said. "We were behind at the half last year at Penn State and we came out firing."

But the only thing the Iowa offense fired much of the second half was blanks.

The third quarter was scoreless as Penn State punter John Bruno kept Iowa pinned down with his punts. "I tell you, Penn State sure kept us tied up with their pooch punts," Fry said Sunday during his teleconference. "Their kicker did a real fine job."

Nichol attempted a 56-yard field goal in the quarter, only to have it hit off the top of the upright and bounce away.

Bad luck haunted Iowa early in the final quarter. With the ball second and nine from the Iowa 15, Strang lofted a pass intended for flanker Kevin Campbell. Hawkeye defensive back Nate Creer was in front of the receiver but was flagged for interference.

"I COULDN'T BELIEVE the call on that one," Fry said. "Our defender was in front and I thought sure the call was Iowa quarterback Chuck Long looks for help as he is chased by Penn State Nittany Lion defenders Rich Kuzy (83), Don Ginnett (46), and Rogers Alexander (95) during second-half action of Iowa's 20-17 loss Saturday. Iowa moved the ball to the PSU 29-yard line late in the half but was stopped.

The Daily Iowa/Doug Smith

Iowa's Ronnie Harmon sprints around the right side as Penn State Nittany Lion outside linebacker Shane Conlan makes an attempt at a diving tackle. going against Penn State.

The Daily Iowa/Dan Nierling

With the ball on the two, Strang took two plays to put the ball over the goal line on a quarterback sneak, putting Penn State up by 10 at the 14:10 mark.

Following the kickoff, the Hawkeyes took off on their only sustained march of the game which ended with Long sneaking over from the one at the 10:01 mark, leaving the Iowa with an excellent chance to salvage the win.

After stopping Penn State on four plays, Bruno lofted a punt to little Robert Smith. The sophomore took off across the field and appeared to be heading for the end zone when Duffy Cobbs blindsided Smith forcing a fumble which bounced right to Bruno.

"All I remember was getting hit on the inside of my left leg," Smith said. "I never saw him coming. I thought I

See Hawkeyes, page 6B

Paterno's 'diagram' a year-long project

By Steve Batterson
Sports Editor

The professor stepped up to the blackboard in the Penn State locker room Saturday afternoon and successfully diagramed what became a 20-17 Nittany Lion victory over the Hawkeyes.

"It was a long, long ballgame," said Joe Paterno, who guided his team to the win at Kinnick Stadium. "It seemed like about eight hours."

But the preparation for Penn State's nonconference triumph over the Hawkeyes dates back to last season when Iowa trounced the Nittany Lions at University Park, Pa., 42-34.

Paterno's been in the business of coaching much too long to try any fancy stuff — he'll stick to the basics of good, solid, hardnosed football and that was the gameplan coming into Saturday's game.

AND THE NITTANY LION coach knew that's not what his team played against the Hawkeyes last season — at least to the level of skill he expects.

"We went in with the idea that we would just play football," he said. "This football team of ours isn't talented enough to set in on any one phase of the game. We went in with the idea that we can win if we just play football."

And it was that solid, patented Penn State football — the type of football that puts the Nittany Lion program among the nation's finest — that stopped Iowa cold in its tracks in a fourth down situation with one minute, 57 seconds remaining in the game.

"THERE'S NO DOUBT about it, our defense kept us in the game," Paterno said. "If our defense hadn't have played a strong game early, it could have been a different story." One year ago, Paterno knew something had to be done with his defense — especially after giving up 42 points to the Hawkeyes. Since that time, the Nittany Lions have gone 9-1-1.

"After the Iowa game last year, we knew we'd have to work on playing good defense," Paterno said. "We never really had a sound defense last year. We were one or two players short. This year we've got the potential to be good."

The key word from the veteran coach is potential. "Our team hung in there and got some breaks," Paterno said. "We can have a good defense but we're not there yet."

PENN STATE quarterback Doug Strang agreed, saying the Nittany Lions still have a lot of work to do on offense as well. "I don't think this team is near where we should be," Strang, who was 11 of 27 passing, said.

"That wasn't a beautiful performance," Paterno said. "We made some mistakes but we played a lot of young people. Now we can start working on putting some of the cute stuff in."

But before any of the cute stuff is inserted into the Penn State arsenal, the Penn State players can relish their win over the Hawkeyes. "This is the one we wanted," said redshirt freshman split end Herb Bellamy, who caught a 24-yard touchdown pass from Nittany Lion quarterback Doug Strang late in the second quarter.

But even if the win wasn't textbook perfect, Paterno said Saturday's game was a good lesson for his team. "I learned a lot today," he said. "I learned that we've got some character and some leadership. I learned a lot about 'em, and most of it was good."

Hawks rally to capture crown at Rice Tournament

By Melissa Rapoport
Staff Writer

A chorus of "We are the Champions" would have been an appropriate reprise after the Iowa volleyball team's winning performance last weekend at the Rice Tournament in Houston.

The Hawkeyes lost only one match, that to Rice, while defeating Tulane, Kansas and Michigan State to go into the final against Houston, where they fought back from a two-game deficit to win the title.

"On Friday morning our first match was against Tulane," Iowa Coach Sandy Stewart said. "We went five games with them. We didn't play well at all. That night we beat Kansas 15-0,

Volleyball

15-5, 15-6. We played really well. Those two wins automatically put us in the playoffs.

"THE NEXT MORNING we played Rice, who was also undefeated, and we lost in three games," she said. "All three games were 14-16. Two of those games we had game point, but we served out of bounds or in the net. That put us second place in the pool. We had to play Michigan State."

When the Spartans took the Hawkeyes five games, (15-13, 10-15, 15-9, 9-15 and 15-3), senior Julie Michelletti was the key to Iowa's success. "In the last game, Julie almost ace'd them out," Stewart said. "She served 12 of the 15 points. She was serving out of the world."

"The comeback in the Houston match was unbelievable," says Iowa volleyball Coach Sandy Stewart.

Despite Michelletti's outstanding serving, the Hawkeyes' problems resulted from too many missed serves. "Serving really bothered us," Stewart said. "Our biggest problem was serving. I don't know if it was a lack of intensity or what."

IN LIEU OF THE loss to Rice and the adjustment to the scorching heat, Iowa redeemed itself in a tremendous comeback win against defending champion Houston to clinch the tournament title. "The heat really took its toll on us, too," the Hawkeye coach said. "It was unbearable. They had to wipe the floor between every game because there was so much sweat. Matches were taking three hours because they had to keep wiping up the floor."

Going into the finals, the Hawkeye squad had already defeated Houston 18-

16, 15-7, 6-15 and 16-14 Thursday night at Houston. And after the first two games of their second meeting, it looked as though the Cougars were going to avenge the loss, but the Hawkeyes finally "clicked."

"The comeback in the Houston match was unbelievable," Stewart said. "The team just started to pull together. Julie Michelletti was a key in that. She really dug down and once Julie 'got up' so did the rest of the team. Linda Gresing played out of her head. They just couldn't stop her ..."

"THE BENCH WAS very supportive," Stewart said. "They were very encouraging and positive. Cathy Arsenault played back row and did great. Denise (Watson) came in for Ellen (Mullarkey) to play back row and played great ... Marsha Dirks did a real nice job, too."

In the Hawkeyes' 9-15, 10-15, 15-2, 15-11 and 15-9 win over Houston, the passing improved, but Stewart said they lacked "killer instinct."

"We played really well against Houston," Stewart said. "Our passing against Rice was horrible. We were really erratic in serve receive. We also need that killer instinct ... We get ahead and let up. We need to be a little meaner on the court when we get ahead."

Sophomore Kathy Griesheim and Michelletti won all-tournament honors and the Rice tournament directors, Stewart said, "want us to come back next year to defend."

Sports

Grich keeps California in race

United Press International
Bobby Grich collected three hits and drove in the go-ahead run in the fifth inning and Daryl Sconiers added a solo homer Sunday to lead the California Angels to a 4-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

In sweeping the three-game series against the defending American League West champions, the Angels ran their winning streak to four games and remained one-half game behind Minnesota and Kansas City in the American League West pennant race. Grich has now hit safely in his last eight official at-bats to tie Jim Fregosi's club record and has been on base 11 straight times for a club record, formerly held by Mickey Rivers at 10. Against the White Sox this year Grich went 18 for 25 with 10 RBI.

AFTER SINGLING and scoring the Angels' first run in the third inning, Grich singled again in the fifth to drive in Reggie Jackson to break a 1-1 tie. Jackson, who the fans came to see hit his 500th career homer, settled instead for his 222nd career stolen base after drawing a leadoff walk off starter Richard Dotson, 13-14. Grich then stroked a line single to right, scoring Jackson, and continued to second on the throw home. With one out, Dick Schofield walked and then Juan Beniquez was safe on a fielder's choice to load the bases. Sconiers hit what appeared to be a double play ball at second baseman Julio Cruz, but Cruz missed the tag on Beniquez going by with Grich scoring. Cruz argued in vain that Beniquez had gone out of the baseline.

ROOKIE RON ROMANICK, 11-12, ended a personal three-game losing streak by scattering eight hits over the first six innings. He left the game after allowing the White Sox' second run in the sixth. Greg Walker opened the inning with a double off diving left fielder Brian Downing's glove and took third on Ron

American League roundup

Kittle's single. Vance Law then hit a sacrifice fly. Romanick got Scott Fletcher and pinch hitter Roy Smalley to fly out. Doug Corbett pitched one and one-third innings and had to be rescued by Don Aase, who got out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth to record his eighth save. Sconiers, who took a blow to the head when he collided with catcher Bob Boone chasing a foul in the sixth, hit his fourth homer of the season in the seventh to make it 4-2. Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota blanked Texas 2-0, Kansas City topped Seattle 4-2, Detroit bombed Toronto 8-3, Boston downed New York 5-3 and Baltimore outslugged Milwaukee 11-8.

AT ARLINGTON, TEXAS, Frank Viola and Ron Davis combined on a five-hitter and Chris Speier produced his first RBI as a Twin, helping Minnesota remain in a first place tie with Kansas City in the American League West. Viola, 17-12, struck out four and walked three over 7 2-3 innings. Davis got the last four outs for his 27th save. At Seattle, Frank White and Steve Balboni hit two-run doubles to lead the Royals Sunday to victory. Balboni's double off loser Salome Barojas, 9-6, broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth and made a winner of Charlie Leibrandt, 10-7. At Detroit, rookie Barbaro Garbey's two-run single sandwiched between RBI doubles by Kirk Gibson and Chet Lemon keyed a four-run first inning that enabled the Tigers to reduce their magic number to two for clinching the American League East. Tom Brookens hit a two-run homer and Marty Castillo and Larry Herndon added solo shots for Detroit.

At Philadelphia, pinch hitter Max Venable doubled home two runs to highlight a five-run eighth inning and lead the Expos. Phillies second baseman Juan Samuel, who homered, also committed his 32nd error of the season, while Montreal's Tim Lincecum stole his 66th base. AT ST. LOUIS, David Green singled in two runs with one out in the 10th inning to rally the Cardinals. Andy Hassler, 1-0, who gave up a Lee Lacy solo homer in the top of the 10th, was the winner. Tito Landrum hit his third homer of the season and the first allowed by Pirates reliever Rod Scurry this year. At Atlanta, Dale Murphy hit a three-run homer and Randy Johnson added a two-run double to offset a pair of homers by San Francisco's Chili Davis. At Cincinnati, Steve Sax singled home the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning to spark the Dodgers.

New York's Bruce Berenyi slowed Chicago's drive for the National League East title by allowing only two runs in seven innings Sunday as the Mets topped the Cubs, 9-3. United Press International

Tigers could clinch with victory today

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Tigers are now just a day from clinching their first American League East Division title since 1972. Detroit reduced its magic number for first place in the division to two Sunday with an 8-3 victory over second-place Toronto. The Tigers have 13 games to play. The honor of clinching could go to a rookie pitcher not eligible for post-season play. Roger Mason is starting Monday night against Milwaukee in place of Dan Petry and Randy O'Neal is going Tuesday. Both were called up after Sept. 1.

"After we clinch it," Detroit manager Sparky Anderson said, "I'm going to play the kids two days at least. I'll have six regulars in at all times but I'm going to play the kids two games."

"THIS IS THE longest season I've ever spent personally. It's also the hardest, because of all the people bothering me."

A four-run first keyed by rookie Barbaro Garbey's two-run single sandwiched around a pair of RBI doubles by Kirk Gibson and Chet Lemon got Detroit off to a good start.

"Detroit got hot from the word go and never let up," Toronto manager Bobby Cox said. "I'm proud of the way we've played, too."

"The unfortunate thing is that anything can happen in a five-game series. That's not enough to determine a (league) winner. Anything can happen, even to a great team like Detroit. "If it was best out of 10, they'd win it easy. But Detroit gets to pitch (Jack) Morris twice — and that's an advantage. There're not too many like him around."

TOM BROOKENS HIT a two-run homer and Marty Castillo and Larry Herndon added solo shots to help Detroit end up with an 8-5 season edge over the American League East's second place team. Juan Berenguer went the first five innings, allowing three hits and striking out four, to notch his ninth victory against 10 losses. Ernie Whitt tagged Berenguer for his 14th homer in the fourth inning. It was the fourth home run Whitt has hit this year off Detroit pitching and the 14th of his career against the Tigers. Toronto picked up an unearned run in the fifth. Damaso Garcia singled, went to second on a one-out walk to Lloyd Moseby, moved up on a fly ball by Willie Upshaw and scored on a passed ball by Castillo.

LOU WHITAKER doubled to start Detroit's first, Alan Trammell walked and Gibson lined a double off losing lefty Bryan Clark, 1-2, that bounced over right fielder George Bell's glove to score Whitaker. Herndon belted his sixth homer of the season with two out in the sixth.

Mets win slows Cub title drive

United Press International

Darryl Strawberry drove in five runs Sunday and Bruce Berenyi and Ed Lynch combined on a five-hitter to pace the New York Mets to a 9-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. The loss kept the Cubs' magic number for capturing their first title in 39 years at five. The Mets, who won only one of nine games at Wrigley Field this season, trail by eight and one-half games.

Strawberry's two-run single in the sixth inning and a three-run homer in the seventh equalled his career high for RBI in a game. He drove home five against St. Louis last season. Berenyi, 12-13, allowed two hits, struck out seven and walked seven over seven innings to notch his fifth victory in his last six decisions. KELVIN CHAPMAN'S RBI single gave the Mets a 1-0 lead in the first inning off Steve Trout, 12-7, but the Cubs grabbed a 2-1 lead in the third. Trout and Bob Dernier coaxed one-out walks and with two out Thad Bosley had an infield single to fill the bases. Leon Durham's single to right then delivered two runs.

The Mets took the lead in the fifth. Strawberry and Ray Knight singled and when left fielder Bosley threw wildly to third, Strawberry scored and Knight advanced to third. Mike Fitzgerald's single scored Knight, putting New York ahead 3-2. STRAWBERRY'S 22ND home run of the season in the seventh inning scored Chapman, who walked, and Hubie Brooks, who was safe on a Ryne Sandberg error. Durham doubled home a run in the ninth for Chicago.

National League roundup

In other games, Montreal defeated Philadelphia 8-4, St. Louis edged Pittsburgh 8-7 in 10 innings, Atlanta beat San Francisco 7-5, and Los Angeles topped Cincinnati 7-5. At Philadelphia, pinch hitter Max Venable doubled home two runs to highlight a five-run eighth inning and lead the Expos. Phillies second baseman Juan Samuel, who homered, also committed his 32nd error of the season, while Montreal's Tim Raines stole his 66th base. AT ST. LOUIS, David Green singled in two runs with one out in the 10th inning to rally the Cardinals. Andy Hassler, 1-0, who gave up a Lee Lacy solo homer in the top of the 10th, was the winner. Tito Landrum hit his third homer of the season and the first allowed by Pirates reliever Rod Scurry this year. At Atlanta, Dale Murphy hit a three-run homer and Randy Johnson added a two-run double to offset a pair of homers by San Francisco's Chili Davis. At Cincinnati, Steve Sax singled home the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning to spark the Dodgers.

New York's Bruce Berenyi slowed Chicago's drive for the National League East title by allowing only two runs in seven innings Sunday as the Mets topped the Cubs, 9-3. United Press International that certain 'athletic representatives of the university' committed infractions," Criser said.

Continued from page 1B

Pell

"Some of these are major and will be dealt with appropriately by the university under procedures utilized in other NCAA investigations and subsequent sanctions. Minor infractions will be dealt with appropriately also in accordance with NCAA procedures," the president said.

CRISER SAID HE planned to tell NCAA investigators the university would not compromise itself for its athletic programs.

"Athletic programs at this university will operate for the benefit of this university," he said. "The university will not be operated for the benefit of athletic programs."

"No one wants to win an SEC championship, or a national championship, more than I, but if and when that day comes it will be won on and off the field with dignity, integrity and honor. We shall settle for nothing less," Criser said.

Pell, 43, submitted his resignation letter Aug. 26, requesting to remain through the season, ending Dec. 1.

He joined Florida in 1979 from Clemson, where he coached for two seasons. His record at Florida is 32-25-2. He has guided the Gators to four consecutive bowl appearances, including a Gator Bowl win over Iowa last season.

Pell's personal record is 83-42-4. The Gators are currently 1-1-1 overall.

Hall, 44, Pell's offensive coordinator and quarterback coach, joined Florida in February of 1984. He previously was offensive coordinator and offensive back coach for 11 seasons at Oklahoma.

Continued from page 1B

Hawkeyes

had a clear path to the end zone." ONCE AGAIN, the Iowa defense rose to the task and after a Bruno punt, the Hawkeyes were 90 yards away from paydirt with six minutes remaining. Long kept the Hawkeyes going with key completions to Gill, Harmon, Scott Helverson and Bill Happel. But the Lion defense stiffened at their own 29, leaving Iowa with a fourth and one with just under two minutes remaining.

Harmon went wide with the pitch and just missed getting the first down. At that point, Strang just ran out the clock to give Penn State its second win of the season. Fry said there was no consideration of going for the tie. "We wanted to give the ball to our best player," he said. "All of our films indicated that (Penn State) shoots the inside gap, so it would have been impossible to go inside."

Paterno was in agreement that the breaks made the difference. "We hung in there and got a couple of breaks," he said. "But, we've got a long way to go to be a real good football team."

After Saturday, it's doubtful Hayden Fry would agree with that statement.

Penn State 20 Iowa 17

Table with 3 columns: Statistic, PSU, Iowa. Rows include First downs, Rushes-yards, Passing-yards, Return yards, Fumbles, Penalties-yards, Punting.

Continued from page 1B

Gabe's Oasis 330 E. Washington. Artists from Austin, Texas. Wednesday, Sept. 19. The Leroi Brothers.

BIJOU. REAR WINDOW. OLIVIER OTHELLO. THE BOUNTY. THE 1000 EYES OF DR. MABUSE.

Special Savings This Week At Your Arby's! 19c Save 30c. Also Save 25c ONE REGULAR ROAST BEEF SANDWICH For Only $ 1.20.

Young Champion Young Concert Artists. Benny Kim. Performing September 19 8:00 p.m. Clapp Recital Hall.