

Sports

Section B The Daily Iowan Monday, October 15, 1984

Arts/entertainment
Page 7B — 10B

Classifieds
Page 8B, 9B

TWO roommates wanted to share a bedroom house $140/month plus utilities 7-15
Apt. 1, own bedroom, electricity, bus, Seattle Apt. 7-15
ROOMMATE wanted immediately $167.50 plus 1/2 low utilities, pool, busline. 7-8
ROOMMATE needed: Share spacious 3 bedroom trailer in Bon Air. Washer, dryer, cablevision. 7-8
BRAND NEW: 2 and three bed. Rent reduced for summer. Rent is $520/56. exp August. He 6291.
NOW R FOR Down

Tigers roar by Padres for Series title

DETROIT (UPI) — Kirk Gibson's bat produced the sweetest Motown sound this city has heard in 16 years Sunday and led the Detroit Tigers to the World Series title.

Gibson, the hero of the Tigers' American League playoff sweep, hit a pair of titanic homers and drove in five runs to spark the Tigers to an 8-4 victory over the San Diego Padres that clinched the club's first World Series championship since 1968.

Gibson belted a two-run homer in the first inning off starter Mark Thurmond to get the Tigers started and crushed a three-run homer in the eighth off reliever Rich Gossage to seal the victory.

HE ALSO USED his great speed to help produce a fifth-inning run that snapped a 3-3 tie. Gibson singled in the fifth, moved to second on Lance Parrish's fly to left and eventually scored on a sacrifice fly to short right that was caught by second baseman

Alan Wiggins after right fielder Tony Gwynn lost the ball in the grey sky.

"I told (coach) Alex Grammas, 'Greek, there is some thunder in this bat tonight,'" Gibson said. "When the chips are down, I like to be the one they call on."

In winning the Series four games to one, the Tigers made Sparky Anderson the first manager to win a World Series title in both leagues. Anderson also piloted the Cincinnati Reds of the National League to championships in 1975 and '76.

Anderson received a call from President Reagan in the Tigers' clubhouse after the game.

"I KNOW YOU LOVE those Cubs," Anderson told the President, "but if you'd seen these kids, you'd be a Tiger fan."

The Tigers, who never trailed from the opening game of the season, finally played the kind of game that characterized their year.

"I think we played today like we usually play," said Anderson, whose team ended up winning 111 games. "Today we showed some firepower. We led the league in home runs."

The Tigers' victory touched off a wild celebration both at Tiger Stadium and downtown that was bound to last into the wee hours of the morning.

Thousands of people began gathering outside the stadium during the middle of the game to be part of the celebration and when the final out was recorded the noise could be heard for blocks.

INSIDE THE STADIUM hundreds of police formed a semicircle around the infield, but they could not prevent thousands of fans from jumping onto the field to salute their heroes. Many of the fans ripped up pieces of turf to take home as souvenirs.

"I can't believe what the fans have meant to us," said Parrish, who contributed to the victory with a solo home run.

See Series, page 2B

Hawkeye strategy irritates Burtnett

By Jeff Stratton
Staff Writer

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — They had a riot in West Lafayette, Ind., two weeks ago, but on Saturday, Purdue's bubble burst and the Boilermakers came back to the realities of Big Ten football, and they didn't like it one bit.

After upsetting Ohio State, 28-23, Purdue came into Saturday's match-up with Iowa as the Big Ten's lone unbeaten squad, but after the 40-3 pasting at the hands of the Hawkeyes the Boilermakers have come back to the pack in a big way.

Purdue Coach Leon Burtnett didn't take his team's defeat well. "That was the most horrible display of football I have ever witnessed," Burtnett said. "We did all possible to give the game away which we finally succeeded in doing."

EVEN AFTER WATCHING his team surrender 568 yards in total offense to the Hawkeyes, Burtnett wasn't impressed with Iowa.

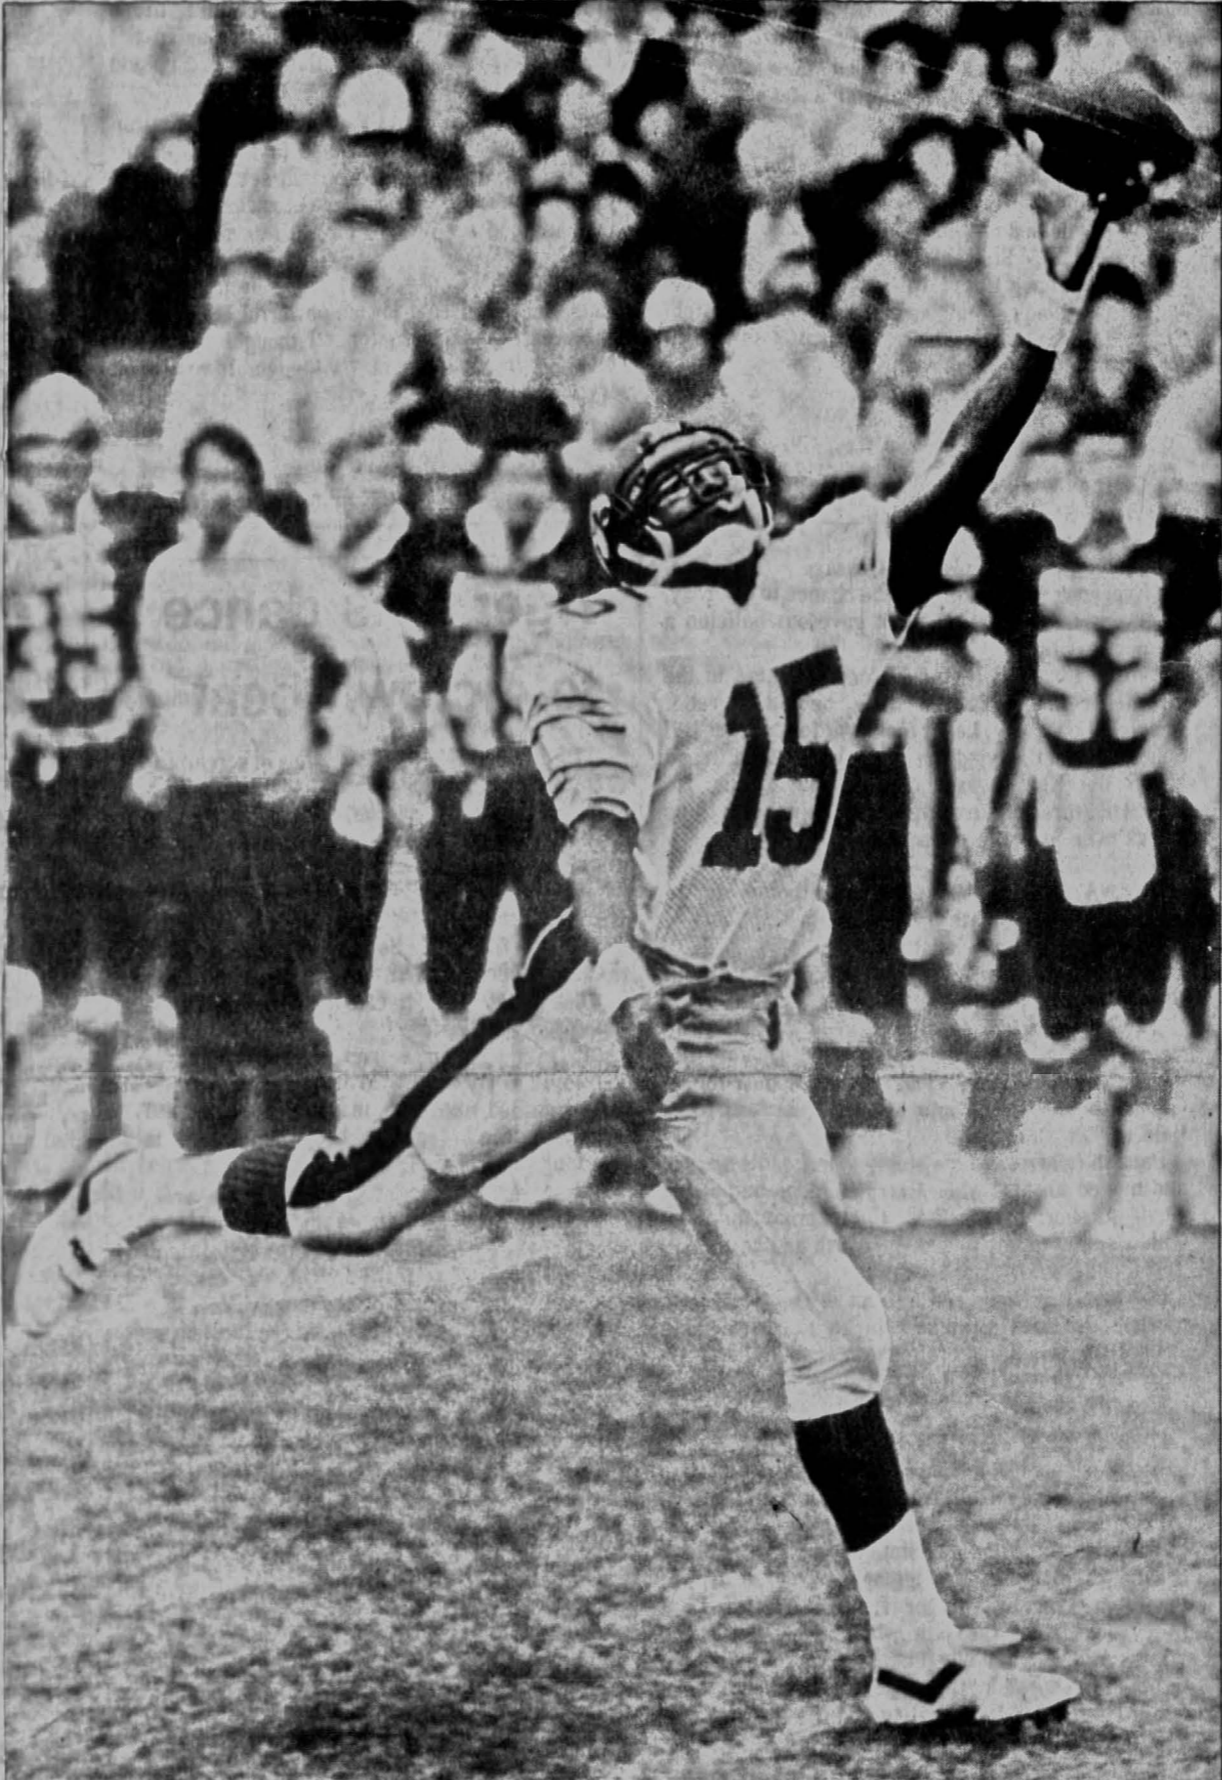

"Both teams played badly and the team that played the worst finally lost," Burtnett said. "Iowa is not the best team we've played by far. If we had played to our ability we could have won."

"Iowa turned the ball over that many times and had three personal fouls so they didn't play that well," he said. "(Iowa Coach) Hayden (Fry) would go along with that. They are a good team but not as good as we made them look."

Burtnett was upset with Iowa's final possession of the game. Iowa reserve quarterback Mark Vlasic attempted six passes on the drive, including a 54-yard completion to wide receiver Kerry Burt.

"IF THE STATS are that important to Hayden then he will do what he wants," Burtnett said. Burtnett didn't shake hands with Fry following the game.

Purdue's senior cornerback, Don Anderson, also said Iowa isn't the best team the Boilermakers have played this season. "That wasn't Purdue out there," he said. "They took advantage of our mistakes. Iowa isn't the best we've played."

J.C. Love Jordan watches the ball graze off his fingertips while attempting to pull in a pass from Chuck Long during the first quarter of Iowa's 40-3 win over the 17th-ranked Purdue Boilermakers at Ross-Ade Stadium.

Anderson listed Ohio State and Miami (Fla.) when asked which teams Purdue has faced this season are better than Iowa. Purdue defeated Ohio State and dropped a 28-17 decision to Miami (Fla.).

Sophomore free safety Rod Woodson, another member of the Purdue secondary that gave up 438 yards to the Iowa passing game, said his team wasn't emotionally ready for Iowa.

"WE WERE NOT as emotionally ready for this game as for Ohio State,"

Woodson said. "We were more fired up for Ohio State. We made things happen in that game, but today we didn't. That was the biggest factor to me."

Burtnett said he didn't think that Iowa would be able to throw the ball deep on his team.

Long, Smith take to air in Iowa rout

By Steve Batterson
Sports Editor

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — The Iowa football team dropped a bomb — four of them in fact — on Saturday and the Purdue Boilermakers were a 40-3 victim at West Lafayette, Ind., giving Iowa its first win at Ross-Ade Stadium since 1956.

Quarterback Chuck Long was on the money all afternoon, throwing for 369 yards against a pass defense that had rated as the Big Ten's best going into the game.

"Supposedly, they were No. 1," Long said. "We knew last Monday we could take it deep. To be honest, Purdue didn't play very smart defense. We saw in the films that they gambled a lot and we knew we could get deep. I was surprised they didn't change during the game. They just kept daring us to go deep — and we did."

"THEY PLAYED A lot of man-to-man and you can't play man-to-man the whole game because we have fast guys and they made good catches," he said. "We had great pass protection today. It gave me a lot of time to throw."

Long then threw, and threw, and threw, riddling the Purdue defense with four touchdown tosses, the shortest of which was 31 yards.

Iowa fired its first load of ammunition with three minutes, 52 seconds remaining in the first quarter when Long connected with Robert Smith on a 51-yard pass.

Kicker Tom Nichol missed the point after and when Purdue's Mike Rendina added a 32-yard field goal with 48 seconds left in the first frame, the score stood at 6-3.

NICHOL ADDED to the Iowa lead with a 22-yarder early in the second quarter and Long went deep to split end Scott Helverson with a 56-yard touchdown pass to lift the Hawkeyes to a 16-3 lead. A 38-yard field goal by Nichol sent Iowa to the locker room at halftime with a 19-3 advantage.

Helverson pulled a hamstring on the touchdown, Iowa Coach Hayden Fry

Iowa 40 Purdue 3

Statistics	Iowa	Purdue
First downs	24	18
Rushes-yards	47-167	29-93
Passing yards	435	235
Return yards	53	7
Passes	20-29-1	23-42-3
Punts	3-39	6-34
Fumbles-lost	4-3	2-1
Penalties-yards	8-92	5-45
Iowa	6	13
Iowa State	3	0

Iowa — Smith 51 pass from Long (kick failed)
Purdue — FG Rendina 32
Iowa — FG Nichol 22
Iowa — Helverson 56 pass from Long (Nichol kick)
Iowa — FG Nichol 38
Iowa — Smith 31 pass from Long (Nichol kick)
Iowa — Smith 38 pass from Long (Nichol kick)
Iowa — Harmon 3 run (Nichol kick)
A — 66,359

said Sunday.

A pair of fumbles by Ronnie Harmon, who was held to 42 yards rushing by the Boilermaker defense, gave the Purdue homecoming crowd something to cheer about early in the third quarter. The Hawkeyes coughed up the football on the Iowa 25 and 15-yard lines.

Iowa's defense held the Boilermakers as Rendina missed a 30-yard field goal and Purdue tight end Marty Scott fumbled a pass completion from Boilermaker quarterback Jim Everett in the end zone. Iowa's Larry Station picked up the ball.

"OUR TOTAL DEFENSE played their best game of the year," Fry said.

Fry said when Iowa lost the ball twice he had some worries. "It was just the mystique of 28 years since we've won over there," Fry said.

"I thought, well, whatever it is that's been the jinx or the bug or whatever, here we go again," he said. "But our defense wouldn't have any part of it. They kept rising up."

Fry said the defensive stands were probably the key to the ball game.

"That had to give everyone great confidence," Fry said. "Purdue wasn't an average ball club. They were No. 1

Iowa Citizens sweep marathon; Hospice draws 1,300 runners

By Brad Zimaneck
Staff Writer

Except for a mishap with a turnout on the 5,000-meter course, Sunday's Iowa City Hospice Marathon was quite successful.

The mishap was a missed turn by all the runners that led to a shorter course for the race. There were no officials at the turn to direct the runners, resulting in times about 30 seconds faster.

The turnout was good as 1,300 runners competed in the four races but the mark fell short of the expected 2,000 runners.

The marathon was won by two Iowa City residents as Mark Koehn won the race with a time of two hours, 33 minutes, 11 seconds and first-time marathoner Diane Murray won the women's division in 3:11:11.

"IT WENT FINE except for the last three or four miles," Koehn said. "I worked hard enough and it would've been hard to go much faster."

Koehn, who is a graduate student at Iowa, is planning to run a much more important race in November.

"The Turkey Trot (intramural cross country run) is the most important race," Koehn said jokingly. "It's a small race and we make a big deal out of it. We peak for it and it's the highlight of the year."

Koehn has had an injury problem of late and has only been racing competitively since August. Koehn had never won a marathon though he finished second in the Iowa City MS Marathon in 1980.

"I didn't run for 25 months. I've had a hamstring and tendon problem," Koehn said. "I haven't been racing that much but I might run a marathon next spring."

MURRAY, ON THE other hand, had one goal and that was to finish a marathon — let alone win it.

"It was my first marathon and I felt really good until 21 or 22 miles then I was hurting," Murray said. "The first time around (the loop course) there was a girl ahead of me but after she went off I knew that I was the first girl. I was only running to finish."

Jim Docherty, of Minneapolis, Minn., won the 5,000-meter race in a time of 13:41.

"I went out pretty fast and we made a wrong turn which made the course a little short," Docherty said. "I probably would have run 14:30 for the regular distance."

Docherty is now looking forward to the TAC national cross country meet to be held in November.

NAN DOAK, an Iowa track runner who is ineligible to compete in cross country this season, won the women's portion of the 5,000-meter race in 16:09.

"I felt really good," Doak said. "But it doesn't make me feel too good that the course was short. I think I could've run in the low 16s. I was psyched."

The half-marathon was won by Dennis Donahue of Davenport in a time of 1:11:49 and the women's winner was Mary Hansen, who won the race in her third attempt after finishing second the last two years.

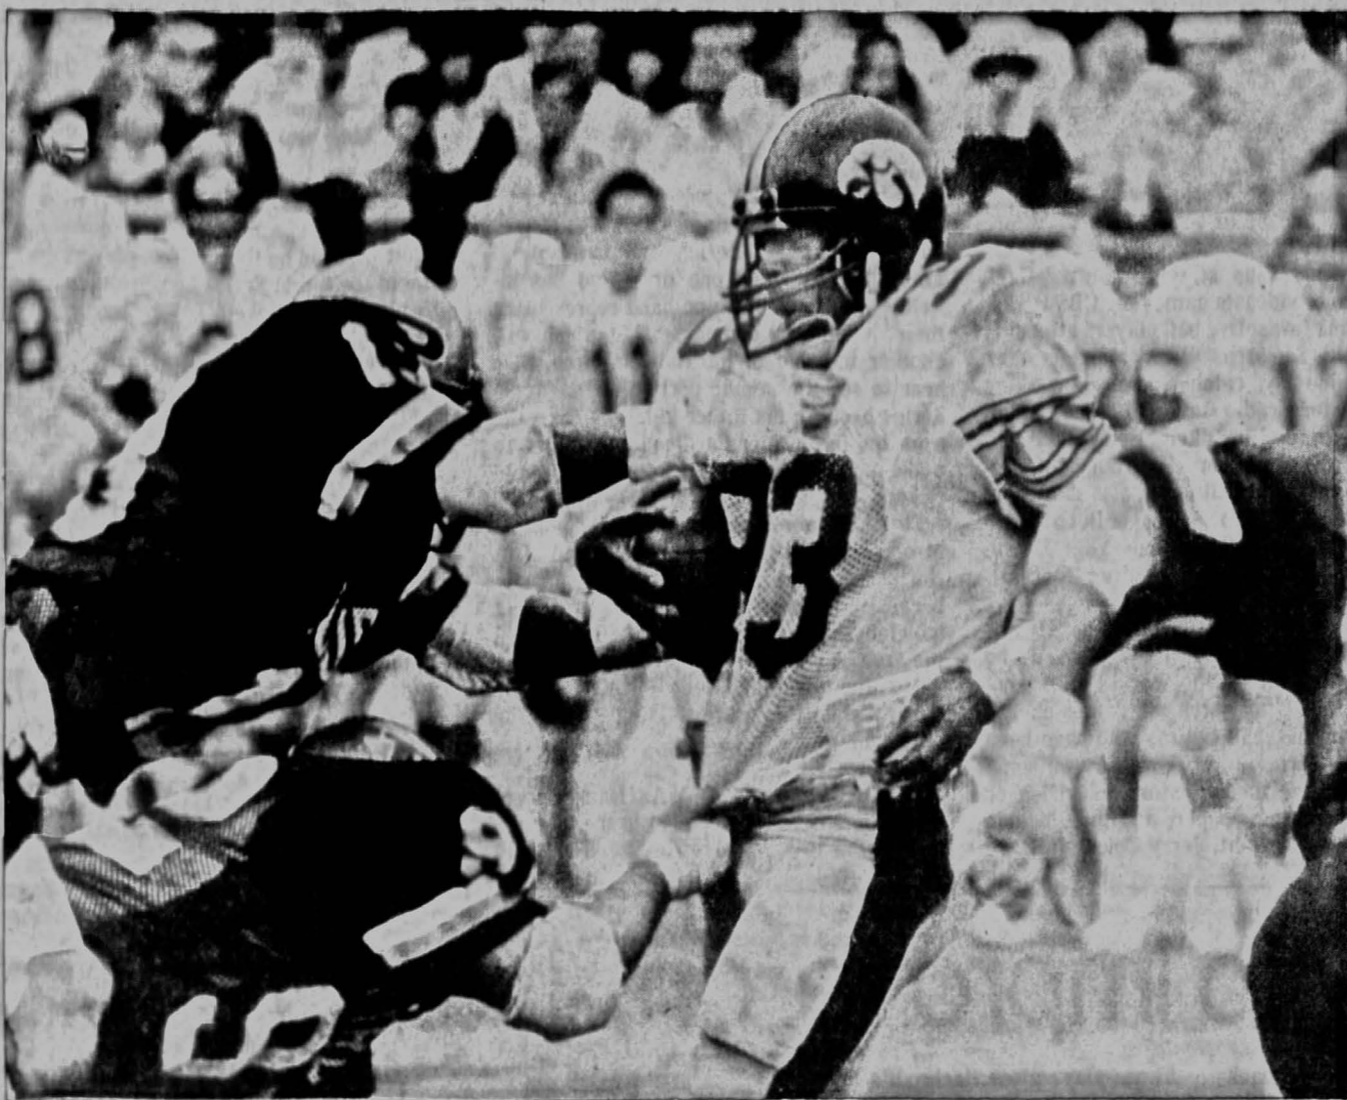

The men's 10,000-meter race was won by Dallas Robertson of Iowa City in 32:15 while Bev Boddicker of Minneapolis took the women's title in 36:46.

"I went out too fast," Boddicker said.

Jim Strickland of Cedar Rapids douses himself with a cup of water at the aid station at Mercy Hospital on Market Street during the Iowa City Striders Hospice Marathon Sunday morning. Strickland was running in the half-marathon portion of the annual event and finished in a time of 1 hour, 27 minutes, and 42.3 seconds.

Sports

Owen Gill prepares to take a hit from Purdue Boilermaker strong safety Corey Cooper, top, and noseguard Brad Hornor during the second quarter of Iowa's 40-3 victory over the Boilermakers Saturday at West Lafayette, Ind.

Hawkeyes

in the Big Ten. (Purdue quarterback) Jim Everett was behind only Long in passing. They played and defeated some quality football teams this year and their record speaks for itself, so for us to keep them out of the end zone, we really did a heck of a job," Fry said.

"I JUST COULDN'T believe we fumbled the football twice down there, but we did and we got away with it," he said.

Long and the Hawkeye aerial attack came back in the third quarter and took the crowd out of the game — many of whom left after Iowa scored three third-quarter touchdowns.

Iowa struck for a 31-yard touchdown pass with 7:49 left in the third quarter from Long to Smith, who was listed on the third team going into the game. The duo connected for another score with 4:20 left in the quarter on a 38-yard pass.

The Hawkeyes added their final score with 3:31 on the clock in the third quarter when Harmon went around the left end for a three-yard touchdown run.

Fry played his offensive reserves the entire fourth quarter.

SMITH, WHO HAULED in three passes for 120 yards, said that it was just one of those days for Long. "I had a chance to catch passes," he said. "It was a lot of fun ... I just want to get my hands on the ball."

The loss left the Boilermakers and Burtnett befuddled — especially after Purdue had upset Ohio State the previous weekend and the talk of a Rose Bowl berth was already predominant on the West Lafayette campus.

"For as good as we have played in the first five games, this was a horrible football game," Burtnett said. "We had men wide open all day who were either overthrown or they dropped the ball."

"Our secondary got beat all day long," Burtnett said. "I didn't feel it was a good game; the team that played the worst finally lost. Iowa turned the ball over a lot and had too many penalties. We could have beaten them if we'd have played up to our potential. Neither team played that well."

Burtnett left the field without shaking Fry's hand and the Iowa coach appeared upset following the game. "No one was more surprised about it than I was," Fry said. "I'm sure he was just disappointed in the play of his team."

FRY SAID THAT he didn't agree with a statement attributed to Burtnett that the Hawkeyes ran up the score. "I didn't even play the first team offense in the fourth quarter," he said. "I've been in coaching long enough to know that you bite your lip and go out and shake the guy's hand and wish him luck."

The win lifts the Hawkeyes into a three-way tie atop the Big Ten standings and Fry proclaimed his team to be back in the race. "We knew our backs were up against the wall," Fry said. "We're right in the middle of it now and we've got a chance to go to a big bowl game — particularly the one out West."

"I'd be telling you a story if I said we completely overlooked Iowa's 12-straight losses at Purdue, but we really didn't play it up at all. We tried that once before and they put a knot on our head."

The Hawkeyes, 4-2 on the year and 3-1 in the Big Ten, now face another Big Ten leader when a Michigan team with an identical record comes to Kinnick Stadium on Saturday for a nationally-televised contest.

Continued from page 1B

Byars' record-setting performance rallies Buckeyes past Illinois, 45-38

United Press International

Iowa knocked Cinderella Purdue off its lofty perch atop the Big Ten, ending a long losing streak at West Lafayette, Ind. and turning the league football race into a four-way tie at the top.

The Hawkeyes, who hadn't won at Ross-Ade Stadium since 1956, bombed the previously unbeaten Boilermakers 40-3 behind four touchdown passes by Chuck Long.

The win left four teams with identical 3-1 records atop the league. Ohio State, which spotted Illinois a 24-0 lead, roared back to beat the defending league champions 45-38 behind a spectacular running day by Keith Byars.

Michigan moved up to 3-1 with a 31-0 shutout over Northwestern. Minnesota, which ended a 19-game Big Ten losing streak one week ago, upset Wisconsin 17-14, while Michigan State kept Indiana winless with a 13-7 decision over the Hoosiers.

NEXT WEEK, Iowa hosts Michigan, Purdue visits Illinois, Wisconsin is at Indiana, Ohio State visits Michigan State and Northwestern is at Minnesota.

Byars rushed for a school record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns to power ninth-ranked Ohio State to its come-from-behind 45-38 victory over Illinois.

Byars final touchdown was the game winner in the final minute of the fourth quarter, to seal the Buckeyes' dramatic win over the tough-luck Illini.

Big Ten roundup

"Keith Byars is just a great, great tailback," Ohio State Coach Earle Bruce said. "If we asked him to, he probably could have played another quarter. I think he can do more."

Illinois Coach Mike White conceded that the game boiled down to the final seven or eight minutes, after Illinois had blown an early 24-0 lead.

"IT SETTLED DOWN to the last few minutes to what we did and what we didn't do," White said. "But Byars did it all. He is so sudden, so versatile, and he has everything a good running back needs."

Illinois fell to 3-2 in the league, one-half game back of the leaders.

Michigan went to its running game with its No. 1 quarterback hurt, and Rick Rogers responded with 139 yards in 23 carries to pace the Wolverines.

Michigan went to freshman Russell Rein, who played all but the final six minutes against Northwestern.

"I thought Rein did a good job," Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler said. "I just decided to go with Rein. He did a good job in the first half so I let him go." Rein completed eight of 11 passes for 83 yards and a touchdown.

NORTHWESTERN, which fell to 1-6 overall and 1-4 in the Big Ten, also had a quarterback starting his first college game. Freshman John Greenfield was starting in place of junior Sandy Schwab, who missed the game because of an arm injury sustained in an earlier loss to Iowa.

"The fact that Schwab was not in there had no effect on our inability to move the ball," Northwestern Coach Dennis Green said. "Greenfield was the best player on the field for us today. He ran well and threw well, but there were a lot of dropped passes. We just couldn't seem to move the ball on their defense."

Freshman quarterback Ricky Foggie ran for two touchdowns in Minnesota's second straight win of the season.

"We've been hunted for so long, we'd like to be the hunter for a while," Minnesota Coach Lou Holtz said. "Let's stop sneaking in and out of stadiums. Let's go hunting."

Michigan State Coach George Perles said the win wasn't pretty, but he would take the Spartans' win over winless Indiana.

Sooners, Longhorns settle nothing

United Press International

College football's most publicized battle for bragging rights touched off the biggest argument of the year.

No. 1 Texas and No. 2 Oklahoma played to a 15-15 tie Saturday at Dallas amid wet conditions, curious coaching decisions and controversial officiating. Neither coach felt like a loser afterward.

"There are times when we came down that ramp (in the Cotton Bowl) when we were the best team and we didn't think we were the best team," said Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer. "But in this game we thought we were the best team."

"I don't think the game would have been that way if the conditions hadn't been that way," Texas Coach Fred Akers said, "because I do believe we have the better football team."

TEXAS FORGED THE tie on Jeff Ward's 32-yard field goal as time expired. The field goal drive was kept alive by some questionable calls and began after Switzer elected to give up a safety to pull the Longhorns within three points.

Leading 15-10 with two minutes left, Switzer had the ball snapped out of the endzone in a punting situation, then kicked off from the 20 instead of the endzone.

"That's their choice," said Akers of the decision by Switzer. "It worked well for us. We weren't disappointed. I might have done the same thing. I'm not saying it was a bad choice. But I'm saying we're glad they did it."

ON THE PLAY before Ward's field goal, the Sooners Keith Stanberry seemed to have intercepted in the endzone but the catch was ruled out of bounds.

Switzer talked to the officials as he was walking off the field.

"I just told them I'd be sending them some film clips to show them the plays they missed," he said. "There were three in that last drive."

Meanwhile, No. 3 Washington staked its bid for No. 1 with a 37-15 victory over Stanford.

Hugh Millen threw touchdown passes of 10 and 33 yards to help Washington improve to 6-0 overall and 2-0 in the Pac-10. Millen hit Mark Patterson from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead then hooked up with Danny Greene from 33 yards to make it 34-3 in the fourth quarter.

In other games involving ranked teams, No. 4 Boston College topped Temple 24-10, No. 5 Brigham Young struggled past Wyoming 41-38, No. 6 Nebraska downed Missouri 33-23, No. 7 Southern Methodist nipped Baylor 24-20, No. 16 Auburn upended No. 8 Florida State 42-41, No. 9 Ohio State held off Illinois 45-38 and No. 10 Louisiana State clipped Vanderbilt 34-27.

ALSO, NO. 11 Miami beat Cincinnati 49-25, Alabama shocked No. 12 Penn State 6-0, No. 14 South Carolina crushed Pittsburgh 45-21, No. 15 Georgia shaded Mississippi 18-12, No. 19 Iowa hammered No. 17 Purdue 40-3 and No. 20 Kentucky shaded Mississippi State 17-13.

BIJOU

THE EVIL DEAD
"The most ferociously original horror film of the year."
—Stephen King
FRI. 9:30
SAT. 7:30

Spinal TAP
FRI. 7:30
SAT. 9:15
SUN. 9:30

AID TO WOMEN
Free Pregnancy Testing
Confidential
105 1st Ave. Bldg.
Cedar Rapids
for appt. 364-8967

MAVIES

Astro COUNTRY
Weeknights 7:00-9:30
Sat. & Sun. 2:00-4:30-7:00-9:30

Campus I FOOTLOOSE
2:00-4:15-6:45-9:30

Campus II REUBEN, REUBEN
1:45-4:15-7:15-9:30

Campus III TEACHERS
1:45-4:15-7:15-9:30

Cinema I PLACES IN THE HEART
Weeknights 7:15-9:30
Sat. & Sun. 1:30-4:00-7:15-9:30

Cinema II ALL OF ME
Weeknights 7:00-9:15
Sat. & Sun. 2:00-4:30-7:00-9:15

Englert I IRRECONCILABLE DIFFERENCES
Weeknights 8:30-9:00
Sat. & Sun. 1:30-4:00-6:30-9:00

Englert II TROUBLE WITH HARRY
Weeknights 7:30-9:30
Sat. & Sun. 1:30-3:30-5:30-7:30

Cornell Theatre
presents
The Midwest Premiere
of
Stephen Sondheim's Musical

Merrily We Roll Along

Saturday, Oct. 20, 8:15 p.m.
Sunday, Oct. 21, 2:30 matinee
Friday, Oct. 26, 8:15 p.m.
Saturday, Oct. 27, 8:15 p.m.

For information and reservations call
Cornell College 895-8811, Ext. 334

Mumma's SALOON

Monday Night Football on Big Screen T.V.
$1.50 Pitchers Pool Tourney at 7 p.m. Call for details.
21 West Benton
Next to McDonald's

HUNAN 湖南
CHINESE RESTAURANT
Now Open
Luncheon and Dinner
Luncheon platter served with fried rice, fried wonton, soup of day and chinese hot tea.
$3.95
13 Entrees from which to choose
LUNCH: 11:30 am-2:00 pm M-F
DINNER: 4:30-9:30 pm M-Th
4:30-10:30 pm Fri. & Sat.
11:30-9:00 pm Sun.
Hwy 6 West-Coralville (across from Randall's) Phone 338-8885

Hot 'n Quick Pizza Wheels
Free Delivery
517 S. Riverside
Iowa City, Iowa
337-3400
DELIVERY Hours:
Mon.-Wed. 4 pm-Midnight
Thurs. 4 pm-1 am
Friday 4 pm-2 am
Saturday Noon-2 am
Sunday Noon-Midnight
Open for carry-out each day at noon

SAVE 2 BUCKS
Get a $2.00 discount and a FREE PIZZA CUTTER when you purchase any LARGE pizza with 2 or more toppings while supply lasts.
Expires 10-20-84. Void in conjunction with any other offer.
CALL: 337-3400 for Carry Out or FREE DELIVERY

CROSSWORD PUZZLE
Edited by EUGENE T. MALESKA

ACROSS
1 Taps
5 Part of a BLT
10 Munch
14 Atmosphere
15 Fanny — (Baby Snooks)
16 At this place
17 Fermenting grape juice
18 Magna —
19 Concerning
20 Pizazz
22 Joel Chandler Harris rabbit
23 L-Q connection
24 Wings it
27 Piece of cake
29 "—, We Have No Bananas"
30 Consume
31 Roughneck
35 Lehar's was merry
39 Stepped on it
41 Accumulate, as bills
43 Brood of pheasants
44 Valuable violin, for short
46 Motorist's haven
48 Herbert's "The Mill"
49 Born
51 Ginger or Roy
53 Accept the consequences
58 "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" lyricist
59 Fruit of the pine tree
60 Tingit's pole
63 Theater sign
64 — couture
66 Kind of bag
67 Propensity
68 Heron's cousin

DOWN
1 El —, Tex.
2 Stanley Steamer, e.g.
3 Swan or Bunny Berigan
4 Swatch, e.g.
5 U.K. network
6 Scheherazade and Ali Baba
7 High, wispy clouds
8 Musical group
9 Close
10 Adds one's two cents' worth
11 Hair tint
12 Blooper
13 Emulate Niobe
21 Somewhat obscure
25 "It Was a Very Good —"
Sinatra hit
26 Wood for an archer's bow
27 Porgy's woman
28 Enthralls
32 Sing sans words
33 Yoko —
34 Three strikes
36 Conductors
37 Brandenburg river
38 Espouses
40 Molding with a zigzag pattern
42 Land of El Misti
45 One of the Tweedles
47 Sullivan's "The — Chord"
50 Engraved
52 Early Florentine painter
53 Tricked
54 Astonishing, in a way
55 Songwriter Carmichael
56 Toughen
57 Rhythm for Richard Wilbur
58 Goddess of youth
61 Useful Latin abbr.
62 Office note
65 French conjunctions

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

prairie lights books
"Best bookstore within hundreds of miles."
15. S. Dubuque 337-2881