

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1985

A GANNETT NEWSPAPER . 35°

Raid ends in bloodbath

At least 46 killed during assault of hijacked jet

By John Winn Miller The Associated Press

VALLETTA, Malta - Egypt said today its commandos stormed the hijacked jet at Malta's airport to prevent a massacre, and claimed the terrorists lobbed phosphorus grenades that touched off fires killing trapped passengers.

At least 46 people were killed by "bullet or fire" during the assault, said Maltese government landed in Malta Saturday night spokesman Paul Mifsud.

"still some corpses aboard" the Before the commando assault Egyptian Boeing 737, which be- ended the hijacking, the captain

More on the hijacking/11A The Reagan administration voices its support for the assault. All three Americans aboard the hijacked airliner were shot, but two came a bloodbath when Egyptian soldiers blew in two doors and surged aboard Sunday night.

An American woman shot dead by the hijackers after the plane was the only person killed before Mifsud said today there were the rescue attempt, Mifsud said.

had reported the hijackers killed seven people:

The two other American passengers were wounded and thrown from the Egyptair plane before the assault, said U.S. Embassy deputy chief Joel Levy. Mifsud said 30 people were being treated in Malta hospitals.

The Egyptian government, in its first official reaction to the attack, said today the three grenades touched off "large fires" that killed the passengers.

"The storming of the plane took place successfully according to plan," the statement said. "The terrorists were attacked in a lightening assault that took no longer than five minutes, and they were shot without any of the passengers being hurt (by commandos) and without any loss among the heroic commandos."

The pilot, Capt. Hani Galal, described the hijackers as "firstclass killers" and said the ringleader had singled out Americans and Israelis "for execution."

Gilbert Briard, a 36-year-old Frenchman injured in the raid, told Europe 1 radio in Paris the hijackers called the Americans "and tied their hands behind their

Turn to back of section

THE HIJACKING The plane is hijacked while on an evening flight from Athens, Greece, to Cairo, Egypt, and is forced to land on Malta, a Mediterranean island. In radio conversations, one of the sky pirates say they are members of the group "Egypt's Revolutionaries."

THE SHOOTINGS An American woman is shot dead by the hijackers shortly after the plane lands. She is said to be the only casualty before the raid. The pilot said that soon after the hijack began, a shootout in the cabin killed an Egyptian security guard and wounded two stewardesses and one of the hijackers. The only demand ever announced is for refueling of the jetliner.

THE PILOT'S PLEAS The pilot pleads with airport officials by radio to cooperate with the hijackers to save passengers' lives. Officials say seven people injured before the raid were undergoing treatment after being released or thrown onto the runway. THOSE RELEASEDEleven women are released unharmed by the sky pirates early Sunday.

THE RAID SUNDAY Pilot tells control tower to send Egyptians through cargo door because others are locked. Airport lights are shut off; commandos sneak up on jet. Commandos blow open cargo doors, storm into plane firing automatic weapons.

Hijackers hurl three grenades at passengers, filling the plane with smoke, flames. Gun battle rages for 10 minutes, killing up to 50 people, including hijackers. Hijacker shoots at pilot, grazing his head. Pilot strikes hijacker with an ax.

It's Roses!

survived.

City breaks out in bowl fever

By Jerry Heth The Press-Citizen

Chuck Long and Hap Peterson celebrated a Big 10 championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl by dancing a jig on the bar at the Sports Column tavern Saturday

"Everybody was celebrating, and the Rose Bowl gave them an excuse to celebrate more," said John Stuhr, a bartender at the tavern. "A lot of the football players were in and helped tend bar for a while. It was zoo, a real madhouse."

Celebrations abounded after Iowa clinched its first outright conference championship since 1958 with its win over

• The players and fans knew it was roses long before the final gun.

zona State.

• The Norvell family's Rose Bowl tradition.

· Chuck Long and Larry Station will appear on NBC's "Today Show."

Minnesota. But the jubilation lacked the euphoria following Iowa's last-second victory over Michigan.

The Press-Citizen

them?

Tickets can be ordered only by mail and all orders must be postmarked by Friday, Dec. 6. The priority used for determining season tickets will be used for the Rose Bowl tickets, which cost $35

Game review/Sports

· lowa will meet UCLA in the Rose Bowl, but coach Hayden Fry was pulling for Ari-

The word on bowl tickets

Rose Bowl tickets: Where do you get orders will be mailed Friday to members plus a pictured ID. of the public and University of Iowa facnounced.

each.

• This was the first time something was promised and delivered.

Turn to back of section

Iowa students may order Rose Bowl tickets at the athletic ticket office starting Monday, Dec. 2. Students may order one ticket each, which must be picked up individual ticket at the bowl site with UI identification

Applications from students holding a ulty and staff, UI officials have an- season ticket will be filled first (guest tickets included). Any tickets remaining in the student allotment will be issued on a lottery basis to students who haven't held season tickets.

Game tickets also will be included in the price of various tours offered by the

Turn to back of section

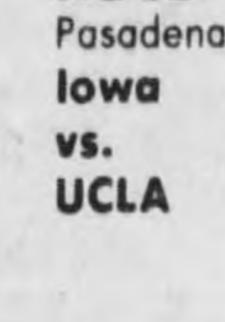

Press-Citizen/Jeff Myers

University of lowa junior Steve Quinn of Cedar Rapids and a rose. Roses were everywhere during the decidgets into the Rose Bowl spirit with Hawkeye war paint ing game Saturday against Minnesota.

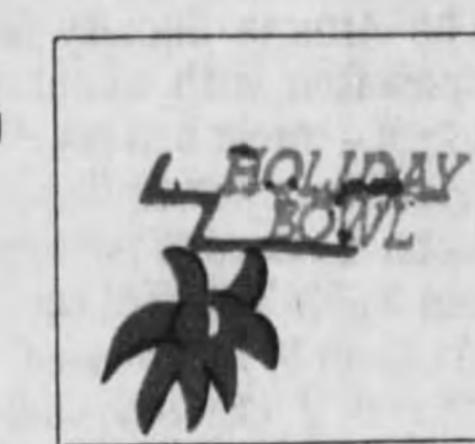

THE BOWL GAME LINEUP

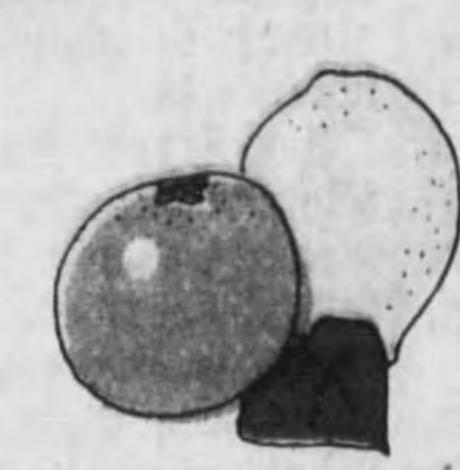

ROSE

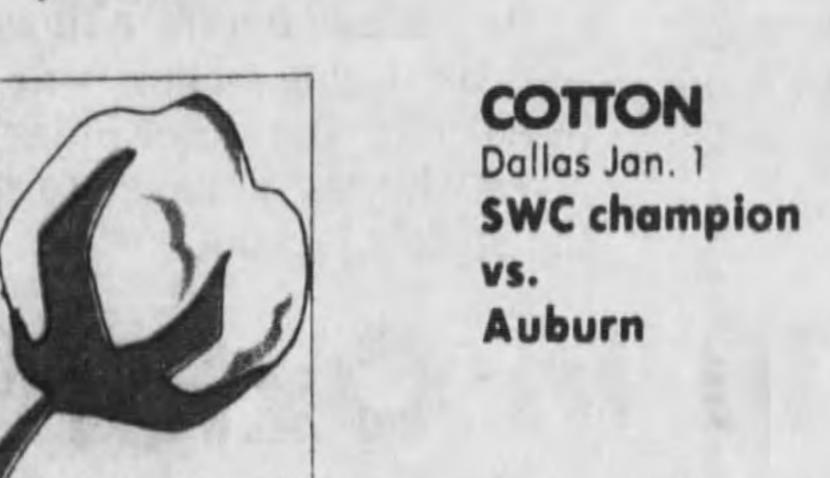

Pasadena, Calif. Jan. 1

HOLIDAY San Diego Dec. 22 Arkansas Arizona St.

FLA. CITRUS Orlando, Fla. Dec. 28 Ohio St. Brigham Young

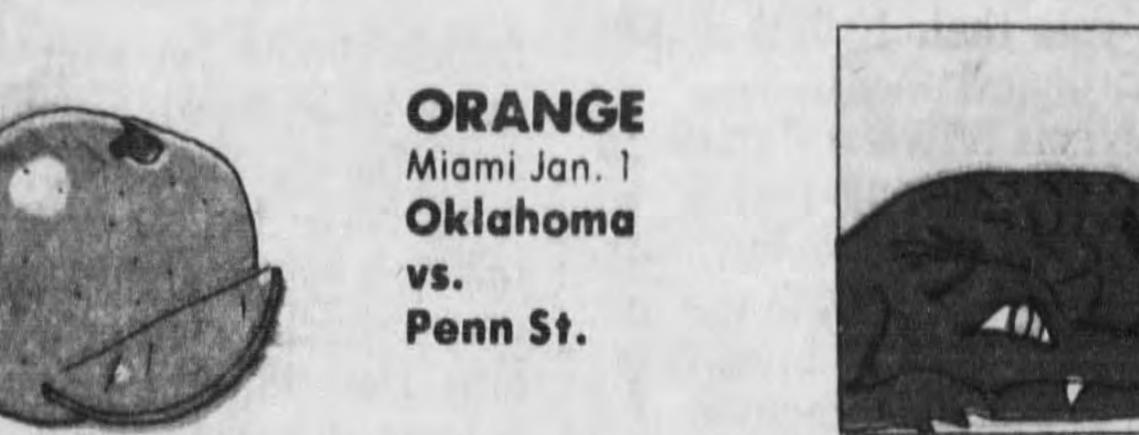

BLUEBONNET Houston Dec. 31 Air Force

Undetermined

ALOHA Honolulu Dec. 28 USC Undetermined

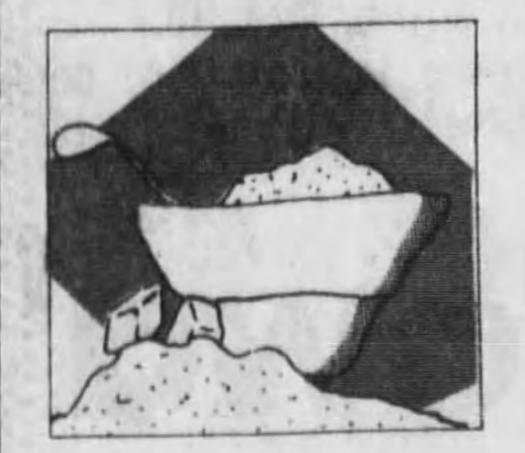

GATOR Jacksnylle, Fla. Dec. 30 Oklahoma St. Florida St.

LIBERTY Memphis Dec. 27 Baylor Undetermined

SUGAR New Orleans Jan. Miami, Fla. VS. SEC champion

PEACH

Army

Illinois

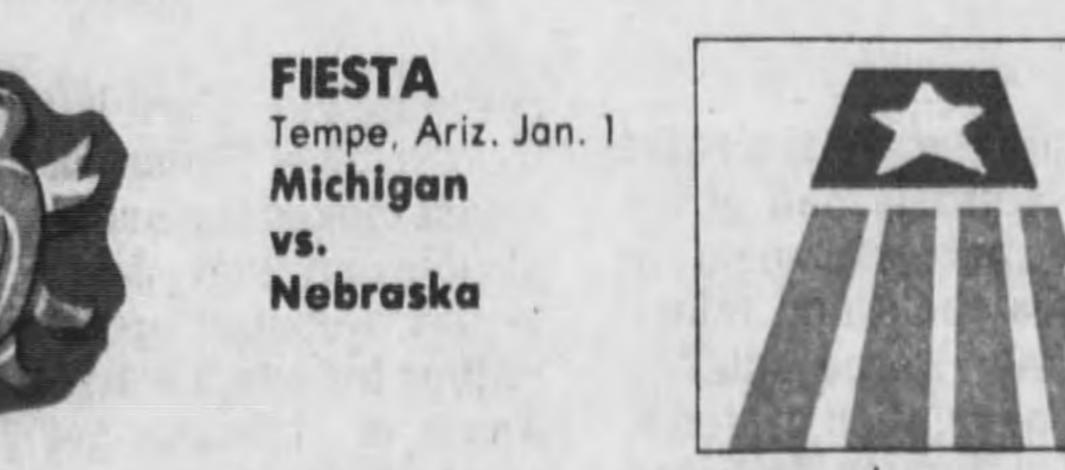

Atlanta Dec. 31

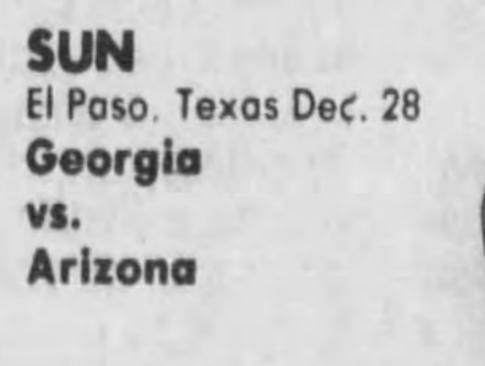

FREEDOM Anaheim Dec. 30 Washington Undetermined

INDEPENDENCE Shreveport, La. Dec. 21 Clemson Minneso:a

ALL-AMERICAN Birmingham, Ala. 31 Michigan St. Georgia Tech

CHERRY Pontiac, Mich. Dec. 21 Syracuse Undetermined

CALIFORNIA Fresno, Calif. Dec. 14 Fresno St. Bowling Green

Oxford man critically injured when hands get caught in combine

By Tom Daykin The Press-Citizen

An Oxford farmer's hands were crushed and severely frost-bitten after he was trapped for about 10 hours Saturday night in a cornpicker.

Rick Stockman, 37, was listed in critical condition today at University Hospital's burn treatment unit. Rescuers used a welding torch to free him at about 8:15 a.m. Sunday in a cornfield about one mile south of Oxford. Stockman told them his hands got caught in the combine's rollers at about 10:30 p.m. Saturday.

"He left his kid off at home and said he was going to work all night," said Dick self. Stockman, a member of Oxford First Responders rescue unit and Rick's third cousin. "That's why no one missed him."

Rick was found by Joe Allen, 11, and his minutes to free him. 7-year-old sister Andrea, who live across a.m.

Smith said Joe turned the combine off and returned home with Andrea to call for help. Joe and Andrea's parents, Ray and Eileen were not home at the time. "It was just one of those things," Dick past the cornpicker while Stockman was caught. "You wouldn't stop every time you see a tractor that's stopped." Dick Stockman said Rick was conscious when rescuers arrived, but his hands and feet were frostbitten. Saturday night's said, noting other people probably drove temperatures dropped into the low teens. "He had gloves on but one foot was bare and another foot had just a sock on," Dick said. He said Rick's shoes were laying near the combine, and might have fallen off when he was struggling to free him-

Dick said Bill Kutcher, another first responder, is a welder and used his torch to cut Rick free. He said it took about 45

Members of the Oxford Fire Departstate Highway 109 from where Rick ment, Johnson County Ambulance Serfarms. According to Emmett Smith, Joe's vice, Johnson County Sheriff's Departgrandfather, Joe noticed Rick's combine ment, Johnson County Rescue Unit, and was in the same place Sunday morning as Iowa State Patrol assisted with the resit was the night before, investigated it cue operation. Stockman was flown to Uniwith Andrea, and found Rick at about 7:30 versity Hospital by Air Care helicopter ambulance.

INDEX

The weather

Cloudy tonight with a 30 percent chance of freezing rain. Near steady temperatures around 30. Southeast wind 10 to 15 mph. Cloudy Tuesday with a 40 percent chance of rain or freezing rain. High in the mid 30s. Page 3A.

lassi	fied				90	C-12C
omic	s, T	/				8C
omn	nent					4A
ear	Abb	y			•••••	8C
NAME OF TAXABLE PARTY.	-	DESCRIPTION OF THE PERSON NAMED IN	THE REAL PROPERTY.	-	-	-

Deaths	3A
Editor's Choice	3C
Emphasis	1C-3C
Nation 6/
Pennywhistle Press
People
Sports
State
Volunteer Watch
World	9C

Continued from page 1A

Of course, bars were packed and lines of people stood in the cold waiting to get into the Deadwood and Joe's Place.

At The Nickelodeon in Coralville, a group of Minnesota fans led celebrants in singing the Iowa fight song. "They knew all the words," said Trudy Olson, a waitress. "They wished us good

Perhaps the cold weather tempered the enthusiasm. Temperatures during the game fell nine degrees as the wind chill factor reached about minus 15.

When an older couple started leaving the game early, presumably to escape the bitter cold, a self-proclaimed cheerleader yelled, "Where do you think you're going? The Hawks are going to the Rose Bowl. Sit your buns down."

The surrounding crowd roared, but the exiting couple didn't crack a smile as they ignored the scold-

Clarinet players in the Hawkeye marching band took honors for the coldest finger tips: Their white gloves were minus the ends so they could play. Horn players took top honors for cold lips.

Still, fans maintained their sense of humor."I'll give anyone a buck who's colder than me," yelled one man.

A young girl, about 10 years old, dressed in a green-and-orange Miami Dolphines ski-like suit and huddled close to her father with her head in his lap, stuck out her hand for the payoff — not missing a beat.

wallet," he said.

Of course, the drinking began the field and Charles proposed to Holly.

A new measurement of drinking prowess, the "30-second Bota," was unveiled Saturday. A fan championship season: his fiber would drink wine from a bota while the crowd around him chanted off the seconds until they reached 30.

The Two-Star Detective Agency, hired by the university for additional security, scoured the rows of bleachers for imbibers. At one point, a detective had to suspend his snooping after he confiscated a half-dozen cans of unfinished travel agencies.

"This is the worst they've ever been," said one woman, olding a control."

Continued from page 1A

UI Alumni Association and local

A number of Iowa fans going to with two sets of tickets, Iowa City travel agent Larry Chegwidden said. These fans ordered tickets from UI even though they already had tickets through the tours they had booked, he said. In Los Angeles the day before the game, he said, "there were 500 tickets avail-the Rose Bowl in 1981 ended up about 20,000).

The low clouds over Kinnick Stadium almost foiled Chuck Buss' $250 proposition. The plane towing his marriage proposal to Holly ing the second quarter, but couldn't. So at half time, Buss called Green Castle Aviation and asked if the banner could be flown in the ed all of the hijackers, said to second half. And sure enough, late number at least four, were killed. in the third quarter, the plane flew But the state-run Egyptian newsoverhead, towing the proposal: "Holly Will You Marry Me. Chas."

The message left her speechless, momentarily. "I was the last to see it," said Granger who was sitting with her parents and Buss. "He was on his knees in front of me. He asked me three times. I finally said yes. How could I say

Buss immediately slipped an engagement ring on her finger. "She had no idea,"he said. "She was shocked."

Granger and Buss, both 21 and both UI seniors, plan a June wedding. Meanwhile, as the plane circled overhead, some students in the northwest section of the stadium chanted, "Holly, say no."

With two minutes left in the game, the fans were racing down the aisles in the north student section, waiting to tear down the goal

About 30 security guards moved into position to protect the goal post. They did. But the three guards stationed at the south end goal post proved no match for the mass of students who confronted

Two students, David Desing of 308 S. Gilbert St. and Christopher But the man reneged on his Gibbs of 830 E. Davenport St., offer. "I'm too cold to get to my were arrested on charges of criminal trespass and disorderly conduct when they tried to get near long before the black dog ran onto the north goal post, campus security officers said.

Despite all the security, an intoxicated fan left Kinnick Stadium with an unusual souvenir of the glass seat from the bleachers.

A lingering mystery is how the black dog was able to get into the stadium. With 11:51 remaining in the first quarter, the dog ran onto the field.

"I can't imagine a dog running out onto the field without some help," said Lt. Richard Gordon of campus security. "I don't know how it got in. The officers took it out of the stadium and turned it Also contributing to this report can of Old Style Light discreetly were Lyle Muller, Tom Daykin, beneath the bleacher. "I guess Belinda Stewart, Nan Seelman, they want to keep this one under Marlene Perrin and Jacqueline Dutton.

because tickets are included in most tour packages, Chegwidden said. "Then there will be enough tickets for everybody" (Iowa's of-

If you want to buy a ticket on your own, you might try a broker in Los Angeles or a scalper at the game. But the price might be steep — as much as $135 and up,

You can find numbers for Los Angeles ticket agencies in the yel-

Los Angeles brokers warn.

ficial allotment for the game is

It's Roses for Hawks Commando raid of jet

Continued from page 1A

Granger was supposed to fly dur- backs. They first shot the boy, then waited about an hour to shoot the second person and then ... shot the third."

> Levy said initial reports indicatpaper al-Ahram, without giving sources, reported today that one of the sky pirates was wounded and recovering in a Valletta hos-

> Co-pilot Emad Bahey, 27, told The Associated Press he thought he saw one of the hijackers still alive being carried off the plane. Doctors at St. Luke's Hospital said that based on their conversations with wounded passengers they suspected one hijacker sur-

Mifsud said the hijackers threw the grenades when they realized they were being attacked, and that the victims "were trapped inside and couldn't get out." All eight children aboard the jetliner were killed, the pilot said.

Plane was one forced down last month by U.S. Navy

The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt — The Egyptair jetliner diverted by hijackers to Malta and attacked by Egyptian commandos is the same plane U.S. Navy jets intercepted last month with the Achille Lauro pirates on

For the second time in two months, the red-white-and-yellow Boeing 737 with the call letters SU-AYK was stranded on an alien airfield. On Oct. 10, U.S. Navy F-14s forced the jetliner to land at Sigonella, Sicily, with the four Palestinians who hijacked the Italian cruise ship Achille Lauro.

The plane had been flying the four to the Tunisian headquarters of the Palestine Liberation Organization under an agreement that ended the two-day Achille Lauro hijacking, in which an elderly American passenger was killed.

commandos were involved in the raid and returned to Egypt etched on the emergency exits aboard their C-130 plane this morning.

Charred remains of luggage and puddles of water were beneath the airliner, parked on a tarmac runway. Some passenger windows

Mifsud said about 25 Egyptian and those in the cockpit were smashed and burn marks were and the rear cargo door.

Malta's state-run television said about 80 people were aboard the jetliner when the commandos attacked. The plane was hijacked while on a Saturday evening flight from Athens, Greece, to Cairo, Egypt, and forced to land on Malta, a Mediterranean island. In radio conversations, one of the sky pirates said they were members of the group "Egypt's Revolutionaries."

Egyptian aviation authorities said "Egypt's Revolutionaries" is an extremist group opposed to Egypt's 1979 peace pact with Isra-

A group using a similar name "Egypt's Revolution" claimed responsibility for the Aug. 20 assassination of an Israeli diplomat in Cairo and the June 1984 wounding of another Israeli envoy in Egypt's capital. The group purportedly sent a letter in August that vowed to continue attacks until "Israeli colonialists leave this country."

In Kuwait, newspapers today said they received letters supposedly from an obscure group calling itself the Egypt Liberation Organization claiming responsibility for the hijacking.

NOVEMBER 22ND TO NOVEMBER 30TH MHI IS OFFERING:

A.P.R. FINANCING ON ALL 1986 LINCOLN, MERCURY, AND NISSAN CAR AND TRUCK MODELS IN OUR INVENTORY.*

*Available with qualified credit. 25% down payment required, 48-month maximum financing. Dealer contribution may effect price.

NISSAN STANZA WAGON

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY... A LEASE BETTER FITS YOUR NEEDS!

LEASE A 1986 NISSAN STANDARD PICKUP FOR AS LITTLE AS

PER MONTH*

*Payment based on 48 month lease. No down payment required. $389.53 due at lease inception to cover first month's payment. $200.00 security deposit, and first year's license, registration, and title fees. Total amount of monthly payments equal $6157.44. Customer has option to purchase vehicle at lease end. Lease subject to credti approval.

Nissan Standard Regular Bed Stock No. D6-131

Study says latchkey kids more likely to have sex

they don't need their own tickets at the public library.

If people are going on a tour, low pages of the L.A. phone book

The word on bowl tickets

The Associated Press

home from school and their par- do at home after school. ents are still at work? According to a study, the latchkey children school children between the ages work."

of 12 and 15. Interestingly, the children did not say they were experi-DENVER - What are those menting with alcohol or drugs children doing when they come when they were asked what they

"Teen-agers these days don't are more likely than others their get pregnant in motels and cars at age to be experimenting with sex. 10 at night," educational re-The study, reported in The Den- searcher Thomas Long said. "Sex ver Post, was the result of nation- happens at home at three in the afwide interviews with 400 middle- ternoon while mom is away at

MODELS AVAILABLE FOR LEASE AT REASONABLE RATES.

FACTORY INVOICE FACTORY INVOICE FACTORY INVOICE W FACTORY INVOICE

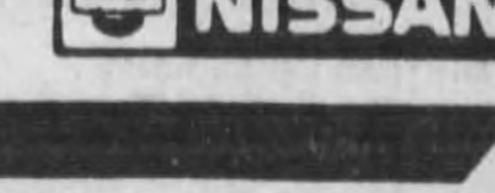

BELOW FACTORY INVOICE REMAINING 1985 LINCOLNS OR MERCURYS IN STOCK!

Choose from:

- 3 Mercury Grand Marquis
- 1 Mercury Marquis Brougham
- 1 Mercury Topaz
- 1 Mercury Lynx
- 1 Lincoln Continental Mark VII

IF YOU'VE BEEN WAITING TO BUY...WE'VE MADE IT WORTH YOUR WAIT!

124 W. Benton, lowa City, lowa • 337-4124

Hours: Mon. till 9; Tues.-Fri. till 5:30; Sat. 8-4

THANKSGIVING DAY MENU

10:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M.

Adults $6.50 Senior Citizens $6.00 Children $3.95

Entrees:

 Roast Turkey and Stuffing · Baked Ham with Champagne Sauce

· Baron of Beef Carved Tableside

 Stuffed Cabbage with Sweet and Sour Sauce Sliced Canadian Pork Loins

Trimmings: Candied Yams Mashed Potatoes and Gravy Green Bean Casserole Hot Chunky Apple Sauce Hot Rolls and Butter Full Salad Bar Jell-o Molds

Fresh Fruit

DESSERT TABLE Pumpkin Pie Apple Pie Bread Pudding and Rice Chocolate Mousse Eclairs

Save this menu and compare! - Reservations Recommended -

Hawk dreams didn't wilt

Some felt it sooner than others, but in end, everyone was Rosy

By Steve Carlson The Press-Citizen

For almost everyone in Kinnick Stadium Saturday, there came a time when there was nothing left to

At some point, all the players, coaches and fans came to the realization that nothing could stop Iowa from going to the Rose Bowl. For most, that enlightenment came long before Iowa's 31-9 Big Ten crown-clinching game with Minnesota had ended.

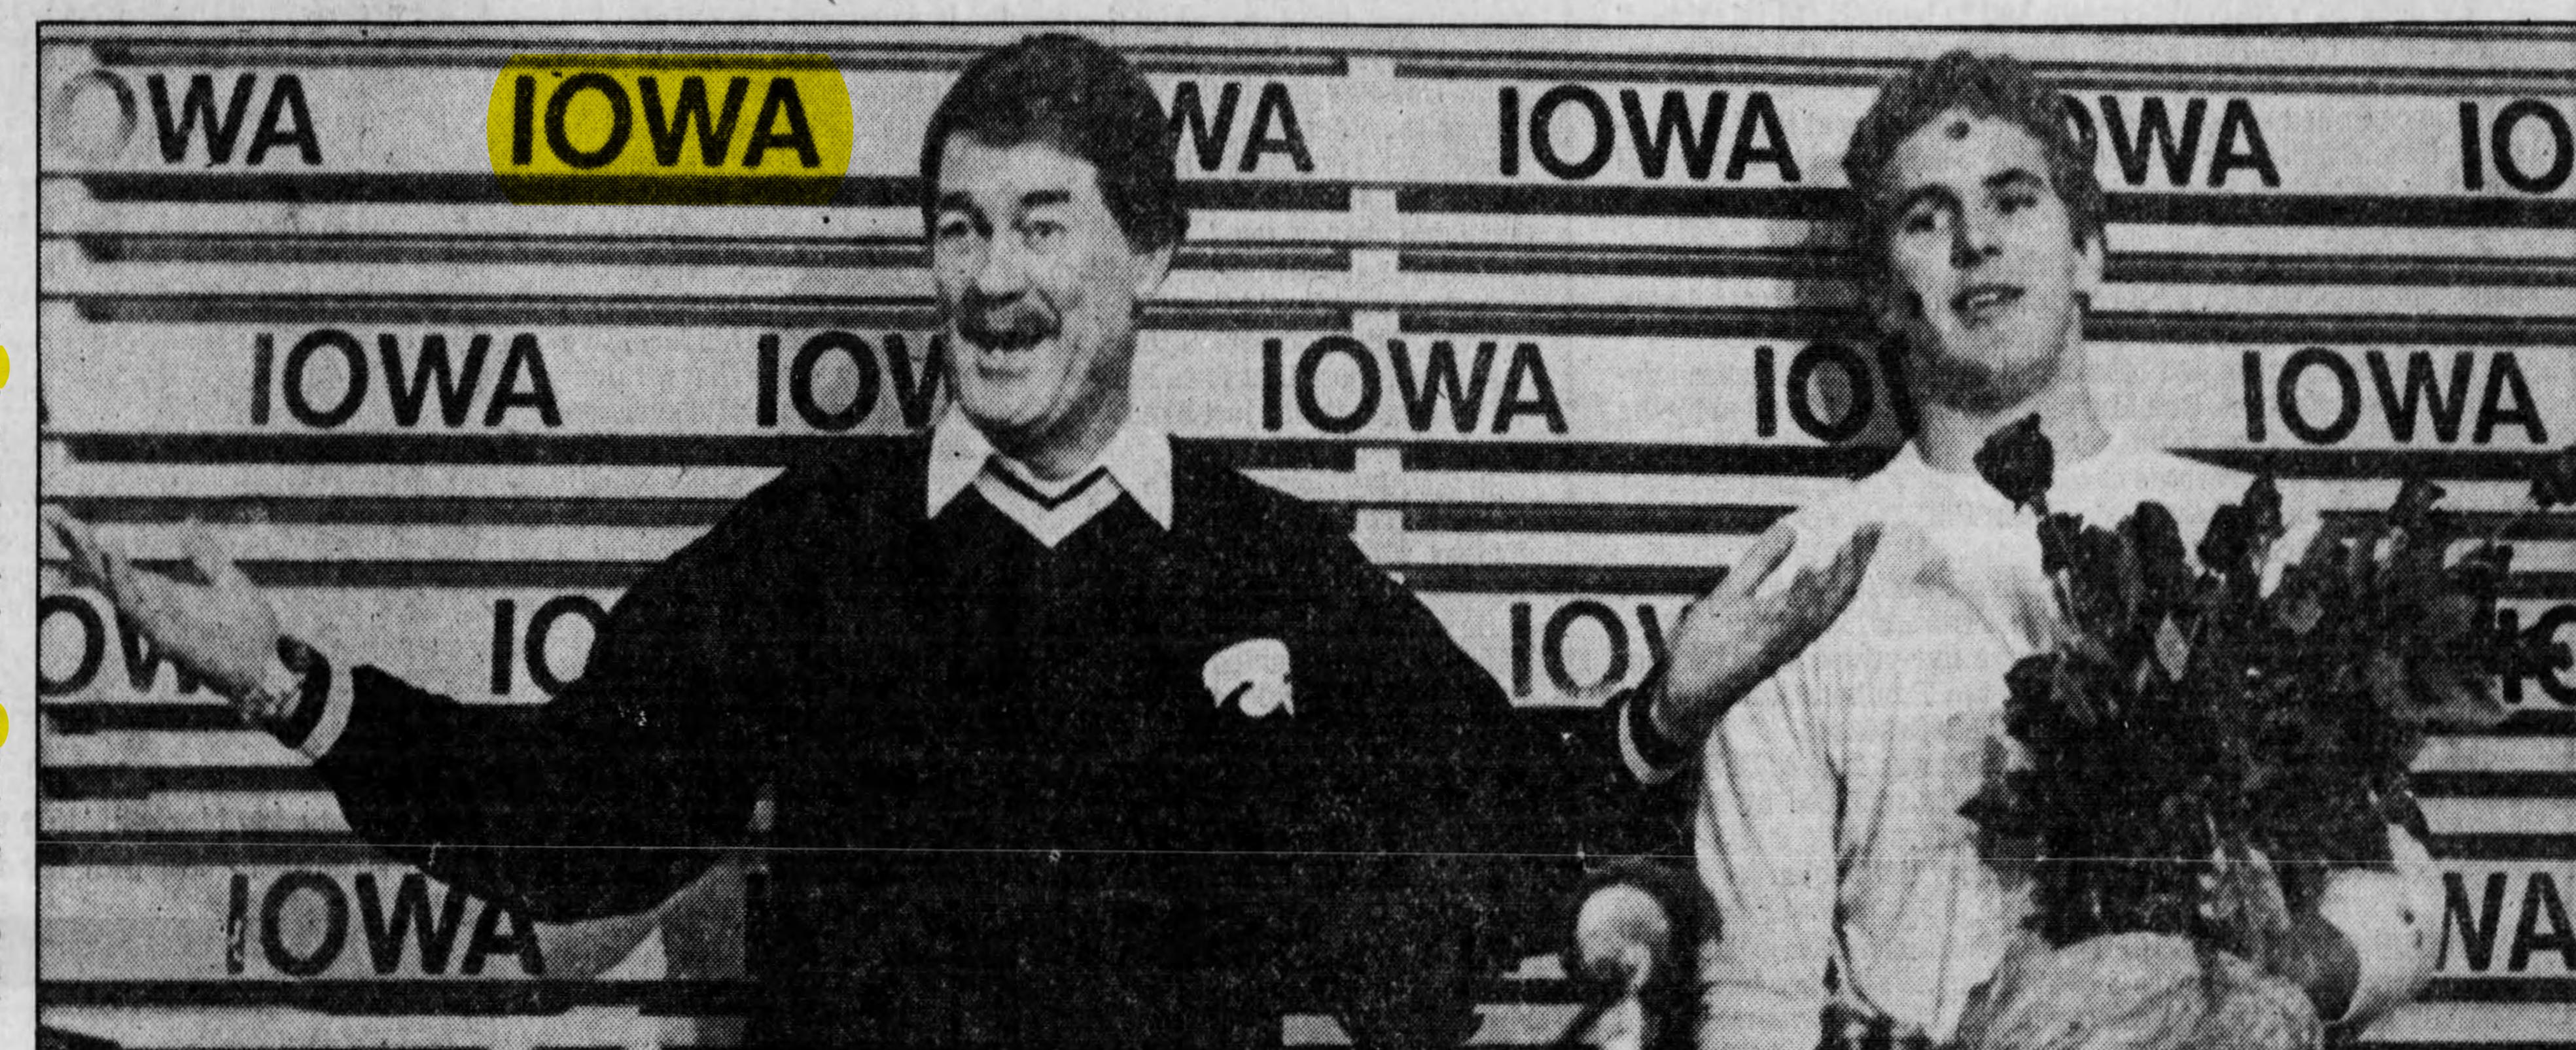

For Hawkeye receiver Scott Helverson, it came with about five minutes left on the game clock.

Before the game Jim Mauro, who, like Helverson, came to Iowa as a walk-on receiver from Des Moines, gave Helverson a small stick-on rose to wear. Helverson prudently placed it on the inside of his helmet.

"We were discussing when to wear it on the outside," Helverson said. "I didn't want to get too cocky too soon."

But as the clock wound down, it

Turn to page 3B

Press-Citizen/John Schultz

Hayden Fry, 'the greatest college football coach in the world,' and Chuck Long, 'the greatest quarterback in America,' trade compliments Saturday.

AL GRADY

This time, no miracle was needed

Back last winter, while all Iowans held their breath, Chuck Long, the greatest Hawkeye football hero since Nile Kinnick, dared to dream a dream for all of us.

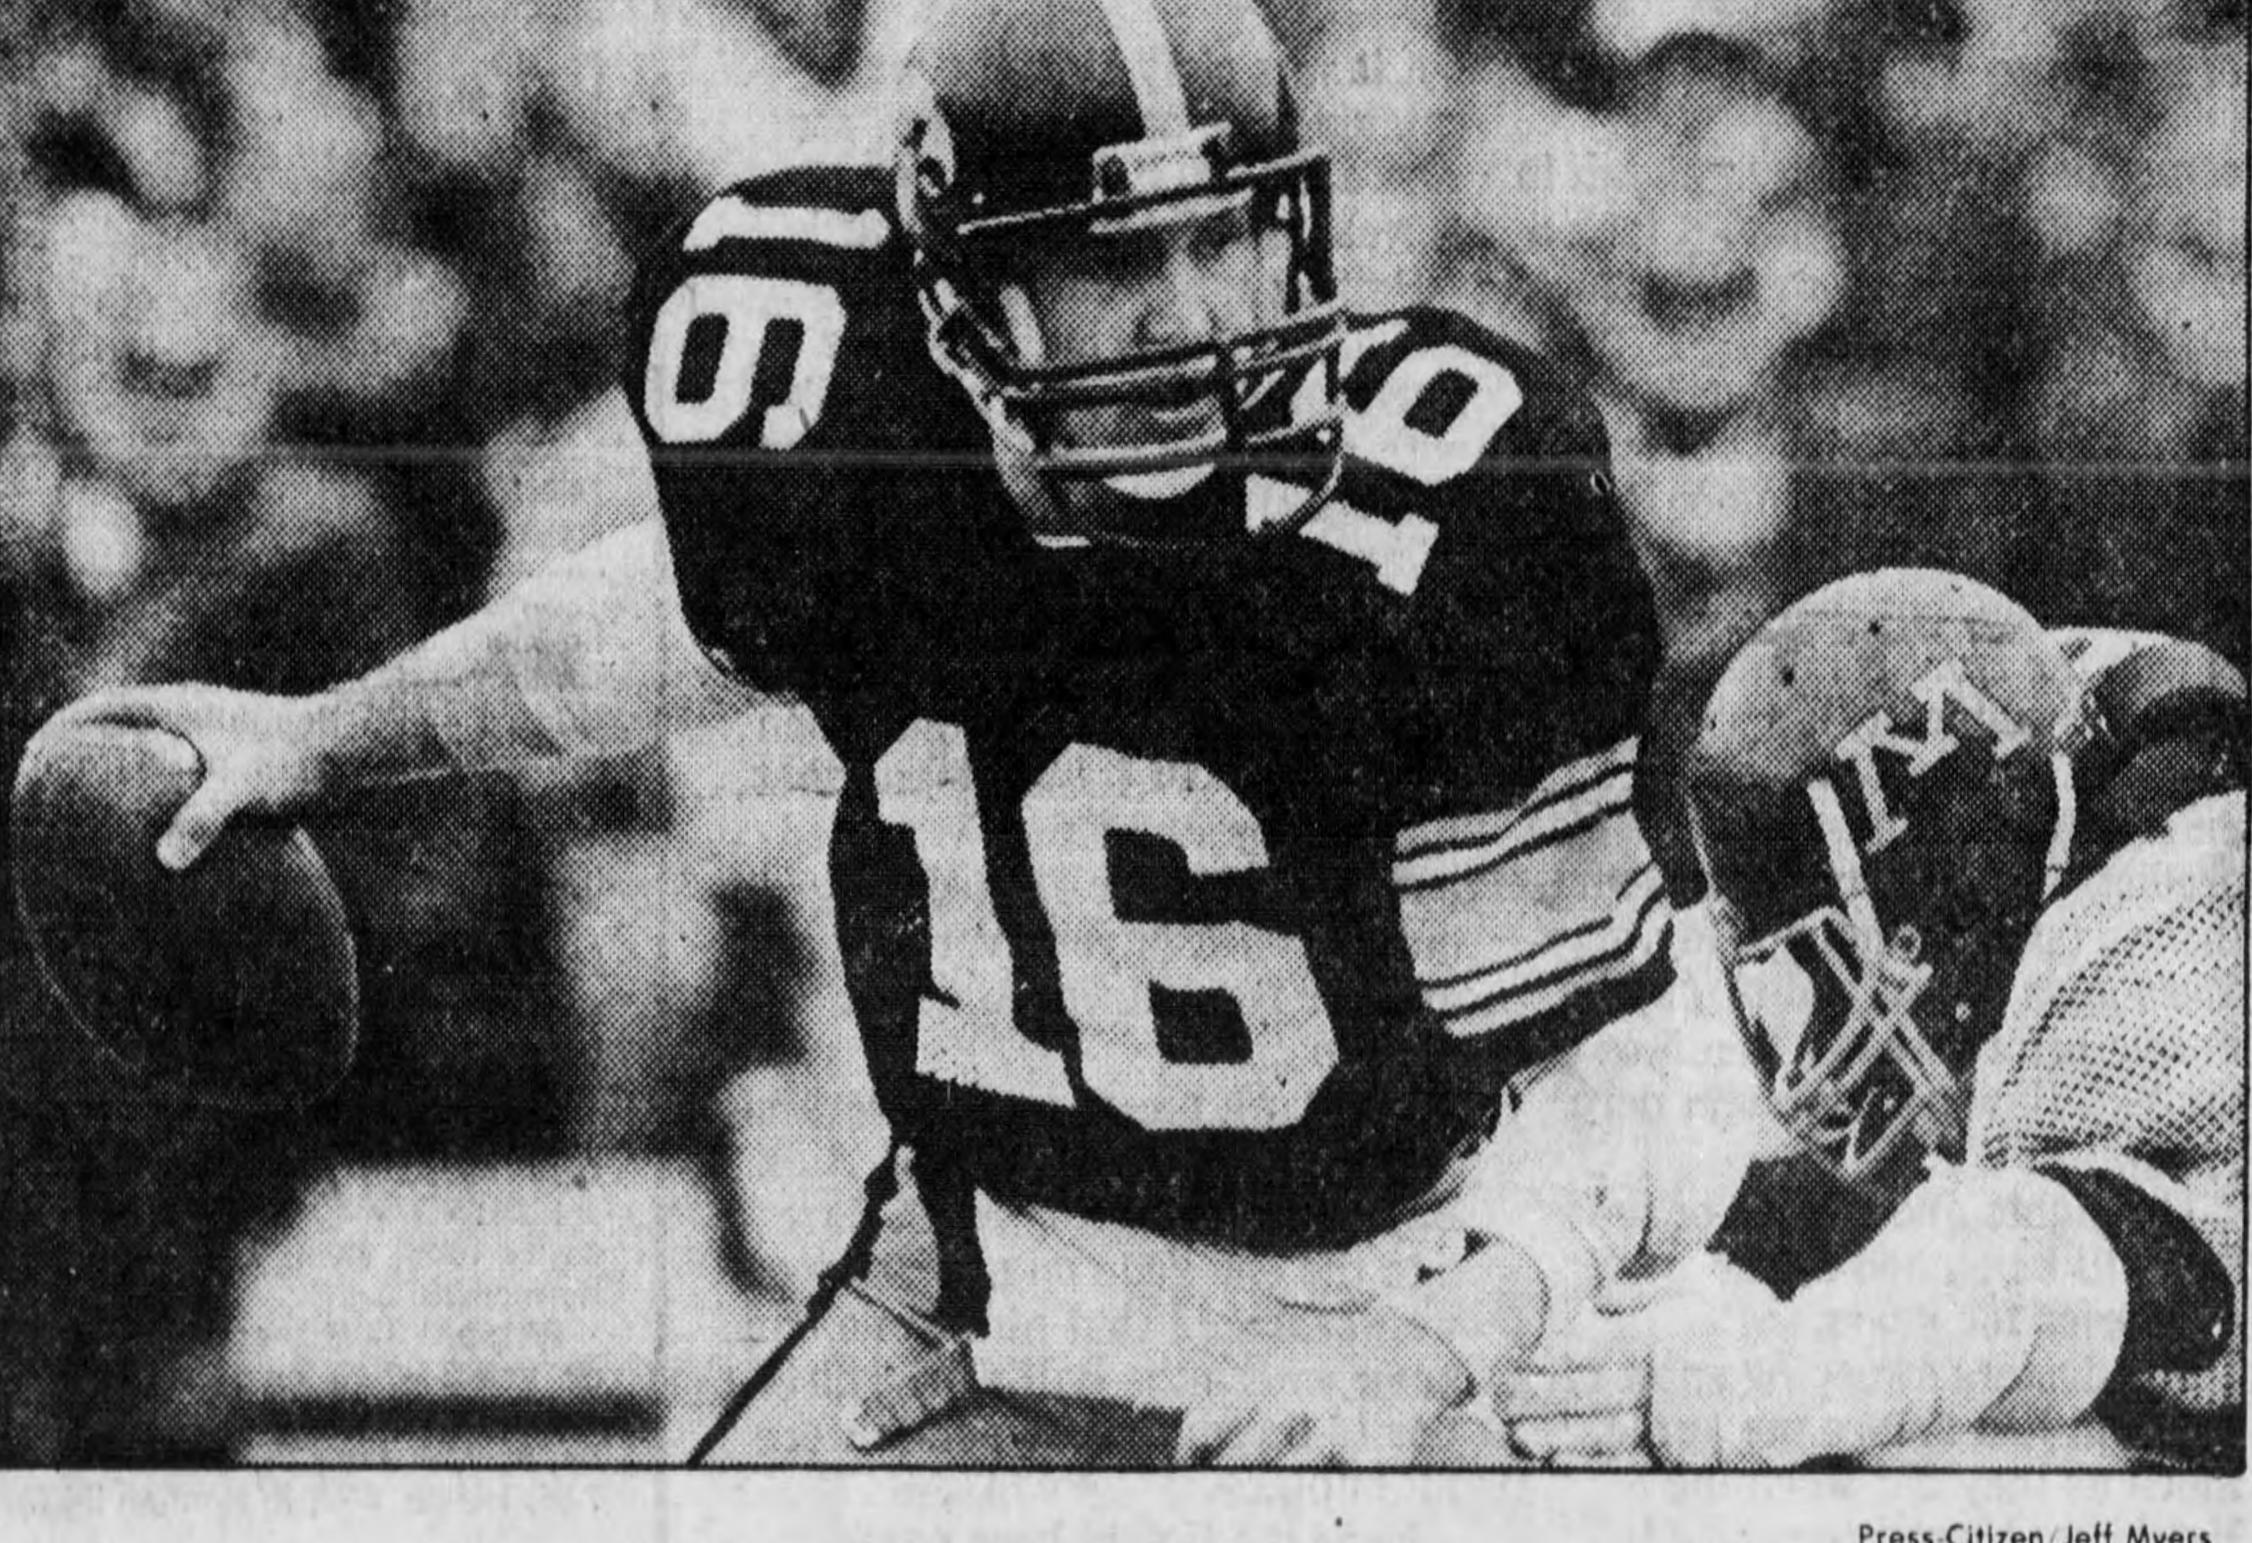

And Saturday, on the frostbitten concrete ramparts of Kinnick Stadium, the dream came true. Not just for Chuck Long, not just for his teammates, not just for Hayden Fry, not just for the coaching staff, but for University of Iowa football fans everywhere, from border to border and coast to coast. The dream was the Rose Bowl, and the Rose Bowl is now reality. California, here we come!

In scaling the heights and becoming the first Iowa team in 27 years to win the outright Big Ten football championship, I figure Hayden Fry's football program reached a new plateau. You see, this was the first time something was promised (or almost so) and delivered. In Iowa's three previous Rose Bowl visits, it came as a surprise ranging from mild to great. Each time, Iowa was picked as

Turn to next page

Press-Citizen/Jeff Myers

Chuck Long on the run Saturday, when he became the Big Ten's all-time leading passer.

Long: 10,142 and climbing

By Steve Carlson The Press-Citizen

On the previous play, Chuck Long had flipped a screen pass to tailback Ronnie Harmon, who scampered 50 yards to become Iowa's all-time receiving yardage leader. Now it was time for Long to add his name to a prestigious list. Long had already broken former Purdue star Mark Herrmann's career Big Ten passing record earlier in the second quarter when he hit receiver Scott Helverson for a seven-yard

But with about three minutes

NCAA CAREER LEADERS

Including Bowl Games

Player, School	Yords
Doug Flutie, Boston College	11,345
Brian McClure, Bowling Green	10,526
Jim McMahon, Brigham Young	10,505
Chuck Long, lowa	10,142
Mark Herrmann, Purdue	9,946
Ben Bennett, Duke	9,614

left in the second quarter, Long achieved an even more impressive milestone. With another short pass to Helverson, this one good for nine yards, Long became only the fourth college

Not including bowls

Player, School	Yards
Doug Flutie, Boston College	10,579
Brian McClure, Bowling Gree	n 10,280
Ben Bennett, Duke	9,614
Jim McMahon, Brigham Your	ng 9.536
John Elway, Stanford	9,349
Chuck Long, lowa	9,210

quarterback to have passed for more than 10,000 yards - just over five and one-half miles - in his career.

Turn to page 3B

Norvell keeps tradition alive

Like dad, he'll be in Rose Bowl

In a corner of the Iowa locker room stood a 22-year-old, his head shaking in disbelief as he talked to a couple of newspapermen.

On occasion, his voice would crack, and he would run out of

Once, he even permitted his eyes to get a bit misty. "Look at me, getting all crazy like this," Jay Norvell said.

Of course, craziness reigned both in the stands and underneath them in the dressing room Saturday. Iowa, the football team and its followers, realized its first outright Big Ten football championship in 27 years; Jay Norvell realized the dream he and his father have long shared was the stuff of merely a father-son talk no more. Just as Merritt Norvell had started in the Rose Bowl for Wisconsin in 1963, son Jay will now do the same for the Hawkeves. "When I was growing up I would always see his Rose Bowl plaque and ring," said Jay as he worked at buttoning his white dress shirt nearly an hour after the Hawkeyes' had left the field and the fans taken over it. "Me and my dad, we've talked a lot about football and life and school and everything. He's always wanted me to play in the Big Ten and to have an opportunity to play in the greatest bowl game in the world."

It was an easy-to-understand wish, since playing in Pasadena Jan. 1 is among the greatest of traditions in Norvell's bloodlines. You see, not only has Merritt played in the Rose Bowl, but Jay's cousin, Kenny Gear, made it to the 1981 game in a Michigan Wolverine uniform. And Kenny's brother, Bruce, a Hawkeye starter at defensive end, will join Jay in suiting up this year against UCLA.

BRUBAKER RANDY

For Jay, though, there have been times during the past five years when he's had to have wondered if his wish would be Norvell logged duty on the scout team and on special teams in 1982 and 1983. Last season, he was on the second team. Still, his playing time was limited, to be generous. In 1981, his first season in Iowa City, he had been red-shirted and watched from the Rose Bowl's sidelines as Iowa lost to Washington, 28-0. "You felt like you were a part of the team, but you didn't feel like you'd earned being there," he said.

"That's the part that most people don't know about," said Merritt Norvell, 44, a computer salesman for IBM whose family lives in Madison. "I got those

Turn to next page

NFL HUDDLE/ Compiled by The Press-Citizen

Archer humbled by Bears

Dave Archer felt like a man who had been rescued after being relieved as quarterback during the Chicago Bears' 36-0 victory over Atlanta Sunday.

Archer, the second-year QB out of lowa State, was limited to 10 yards passing with two interceptions and was removed early in the second half by coach Dan Henning. Henning had a substitute. Lord had mercy.

"They have a guy coming free every play." Archer said. "You haven't got the time to look for one receiver then look for some other guy. If you do then you're screwed." Bob Holly replaced Archer. New quarterback. Same results. Holly entered the game with the ball on his own 4-yard line, the goalpost in his shadow and the Bears in his face. Not the best working conditions.

Holly was hit and fumbled at the 2-yard line. Moments later he was sacked for a safety.

DAVID ARCHER

Chiefs overcome

Todd Blackledge, hardly pestered by a weak Indianapolis pass rush, drilled 16 passes for 246 yards Sunday and the Kansas City Chiefs snapped a 7-game losing streak Sunday with a 20-7 romp over the Colts. The Chiefs, who had been struggling with rumors that coach John Mackovic arrest of defensive end Mike Bell. seized a 17-0 halftime lead and were never challenged in the second half. Their first victory since September raised their record to 4-8. The Colts' fourth straight loss plunged them to 3-9.

Blackledge, a third-year pro named by Mackovic the starter for the season's last five games, made good on 16 of 31 passes. In the first half, he had 190 net passing yards to zero for the Colts' Matt Kofler.

Tomorrow: Hawkeye Huddle

STANDINGS

AFC	1	11			× -
EAST			1
	W	L	T	Pct.	PF	PA
N.Y. Jets	9	3	0.	.750	303	197
New England	8	4	0	.667	240	200
Miami	8	4	0	.667	298	245
Indianapolis	3	9	0	.250	214	292
Buffalo	2	10	0	.167	162	256
CENTRAL
Cleveland	6	6	0	.500	201	172
Pittsburgh	6	6	0	.500	272	218
Houston	5	7	0	.417	206	270
Cincinnati	5	7	0	.417	299	325
L.A. Raiders	8	4	0	.667	274	261
Denver	8	4	0	.667	294	252
Seattle	6	5	0	.645	261	225
San Diego	5	7	0	.417	319	332
Kansas City	4	8	0	.333	222	278

SUNDAY'S RESULTS Chicago 36, Atlanta 0 Cleveland 24. Cincinnati 6 Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16, OT Houston 37, San Diego 35 Washington 30, Pittsburgh 23 Miami 23, Buffalo 14 New York Jets 16. New England 13, OT New Orleans 30, Minnesota 23

NFC

N.Y. Giants	0	4	U	.00/	202	140
Washington	7	5	0	.583	218	225
Philadelphia	6	6	0	.500	200	210
St. Louis	4	8	0	.333	203	290
CENTRAL
x-Chicago	12	0	0	1.000	359	127
Detroit	6	6	0	.500	230	260
Green Bay	5	7	0	.417	246	281
Minnesota	5	7	0	.417	244	278
Tampa Bay	2	10	0	.167	247	350
WEST
L.A. Rams	9	3	0	.750	258	198
San Francisco	6	5	0	.545	275	187
New Orleans	4	8	0	.333	220	323
Atlanta	2	10	0	.167	218	357
x-clinched divis	ion t	itle
-

New York Giants 34, St. Louis 3 Dallas 34, Philadelphia 17 Los Angeles Rams 34, Green Bay 17 Kansas City 20, Indianapolis 7 Los Angeles Raiders 31, Denver 28, OT

TONIGHT'S GAME TV — Seattle at San Francisco, 9 p.m. (KCRG-

POSTGAME

Campbell offers glimpse of past

Half-dressed Earl Campbell sat hunched in his locker stall, reluctantly accepting the post-game congratulatory swarm.

He had little to say. He forgot what it felt like. After all, the last big game of his eight-year career had been a 130-yard outing against Cleveland Dec.

Though 100-yard rushing celebrations are old hat for Campbell, they should not be confused with his brief career with New Orleans.

Until Sunday's 30-23 win over the Minnesota Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, Campbell was a Saint with unfulfilled expectations. "I thought he played extremely well," New Orleans coach Bum Phillips said of Campbell, who ran for 160 yards on 35 carries. "He ran just as hard at the end as when he started."

NUMBERS

adversity in win

would be fired as well as the midweek

BRIEFLY . . .

Pittsburgh fires Fazio

PITTSBURGH - The University of Pittsburgh fired Foge Fazio as head football coach today and began a search for a replacement.

University Athletic Director Edward Bozik, in a news conference at Pitt Stadium, said Fazio was fired "in the long-term interest of the football program.

"We decided a coaching change had to be made at this time," Bozik said. "Fazio represented this university in the best possible way."

Fazio compiled a 25-18-3 record in four seasons at the University of Pittsburgh. He replaced Jackie Sherrill as head football coach in 1982 when Sherrill became head coach at Texas A&M University.

Fazio's 1982 team was ranked the nation's best in preseason polls. But it ended with a 9-3 record, including a 7-0 loss to Southern Methodist University in the Cotton Bowl.

The Panthers struggled offensively the entire 1982 season despite star quarterback Dan Marino, who later was drafted by the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League.

Pitt followed with records of 8-3-1 in 1983, 3-7-1 in 1984 and 5-5-1 this season. It lost to Penn State 31-0 in Pitt's season finale Saturday night at Pitt Stadium.

Fazio's last two teams failed to win postseason bowl bids. Pitt had played in nine straight bowl games from 1975 through 1983. Fazio had three years remaining on a five-year contract extension given him several weeks after the Panthers lost to Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl at the end of the 1983 season. The last football coach to be fired at Pitt was Carl A. DePasqua after the 1972 season. DePasqua, who was replaced by Majors, posted a 13-29 record from 1969 through 1972.

Fazio served as an assistant coach under DePasqua.

MORE COLLEGE FOOTBALL: Northern Iowa coach Darrell Mudra says there are times when he's happy to see the football season end, but this isn't one of those years. That's because the Panthers will be in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Northern Iowa capped a 10-1 regular season by whipping Northeast Missouri 41-24 on Saturday night. The Panthers will have their first playoff game Dec. 7 at the UNI-Dome against the winner of next Saturday's game between Eastern Washington and Idaho. "Football is a tough and hard sport, preparation is very hard for the staff and players and sometimes you can get to the point when you're glad the season is over," Mudra said. "But I don't feel that way about this team. We're just beginning to blossom and I know the players aren't ready for the season to COLLEGE BASKETBALL: Iowa State's Jeff Hornacek has given every indication he intends to take up where Stevens left off. Hornacek is expected to lead the Cyclone basketball team this year now that the high-scoring Stevens is gone and he did just that in the season opener on Saturday night. The 6-foot-3 senior guard scored 24 points and had five steals to fuel an 83-39 rout of South Dakota State. Hornacek hit nine of 14 shots from the field and was 6-for-7 from the free throw line.

PRO FOOTBALL: Quarterback Roy Dewalt's pinpoint passing, wide receiver Ned Armour's two touchdown catches and a tough defense carried the British Columbia Lions to a 37-24 Grey Cup victory over the Hamilton Tiger Cats Sunday in the Canadian Football League championship game. Dewalt, named the game's outstanding player, threw touchdown passes of 84 and 60 yards to Armour and a 66-yarder to Jim Sandusky, and kept the Lions' offense moving enough to set up five field goals.

ROAD RACING: British runner Zola Budd weathered a cold, grey morning and a handful of protesters to win the Sixth Annual Rosemont 10K Turkey Trot Sunday. Mark Nenow, of the United States, took the men's title, setting a new course record. Budd, a native of South Africa and now a British citizen, crossed the finish line in 32:29. The 19-year-old known for running barefoot wore shoes in the 19-degree chill. Nenow, 28, of Lexington, Ky., took an early lead and never lost it, finishing with a time of 28:35, breaking his own course record of 28:52.

FIELD HOCKEY: Marjorie Abbott scored all three goals for Connecticut, including the game-winner with 21 minutes left to play Sunday, as the Huskies defeated Old Dominion, 3-2, to capture the NCAA women's championship.

SCOREBOARD

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Top 20 results

How the Top 20 teams in the Associated Press' college basketball poll fared this week:

No.1 Georgia Tech (0-0) did not play. No.2 North Carolina (1-0) beat UCLA 107-70. No.3 Michigan (2-0) beat Virginia Tech 67-66; beat Kansas St. 80-58.

No.4 Syracuse (1-0) beat Utica 102-55. No.5 Kansas (2-0) beat Pepperdine 67-61; beat Washington 69-64. No.6 Duke (2-0) beat Lamar 66-62; beat Alabama-Birmingham 66-54.

No.7 Illinois (0-0) did not play. No.8 Georgetown (1-0) beat Hawaii Loa 100-No.9 Louisville (2-0) beat Miami, Ohio 81-65;

beat Tulsa 80-74. No.10 Auburn (0-1) lost to West Virginia 75-

No.11 Kentucky (1-0) beat Northwest Louisi-No.12 Notre Dame (1-0) beat St. Joseph's.

No.13 Oklahoma (1-0) beat California-Santa Barbara 107-92. No.14 Louisiana State (1-0) beat Montana State 84-59.

No.15 Memphis State (0-0) did not play. No.16 Alabama-Birmingham (1-1) beat Texas A&M 71-68: lost to Duke 66-54. No.17 North Carolina State (0-0) did not play.

No.18 Nevada-Las Vegas (1-0) beat Nevada-Reno 89-62. No.19 Maryland (1-0) beat Northeastern 84-

(tie) Navy (0-1) lost to St. John's 66-58.

COLLEGE

FOOTBALL

Top 20 Results

How the Top 20 teams in the Associated Press poll fared:

No.1 Penn State (11-0-0) beat Pittsburgh 31-0. Jan. 1 vs. No. 5 Oklahoma in Orange Bowl. No.2 Nebraska (9-2-0) lost to No. 5 Oklahoma 27-7. Next: Jan. 1 vs. No. 6 Michigan in Sunkist

Fiesta Bowl. No.3 Iowa (10-1-0) beat Minnesota 31-9. Next: Jan. 1 vs. No. 8 UCLA in Rose Bowl. No.4 Miami, Fla. (9-1-0) beat Colorado State 24-3. Next: vs. Notre Dame.

No.5 Oklahoma (8-1-0) beat No. 2 Nebraska 27-7. Next: at No. 7 Oklahoma State. No.6 Michigan (9-1-1) beat No. 12 Ohio State 27-17. Next: Jan. 1 vs. No. 2 Nebraska in Sun-kist Fiesta Bowl. No.7 Oklahoma State (8-2-0) lost to lowa State 15-10. Next: vs. No. 5 Oklahoma. No.8 UCLA (8-2-1) lost to Southern California 7-13. Next: Jan 1 vs. No. 3 lowa in Rose Bowl. No.9 Florida (8-1-1) was idle. Next: vs. No. 14

Florida State. No.10 Auburn (8-2-0) was idle. Next: vs. Alabama at Birmingham, Ala. No.11 Brigham Young (10-2-0) beat Utah 38

28. Next: Dec. 7 at Hawaii. No.12 Ohio State (8-3-0) lost to No. 6 Michigan 27-17. Next: Dec. 28 vs. No. 11 Brigham

Young in Florida Citrus Bowl. No.13 Air Force (11-1-0) beat Hawaii 27-20. Next: Dec. 31 in Bluebonnet Bowl, opponent un-

No.14 Florida State (8-2-0) was idle. Next: at No. 9 Florida. No.15 Baylor (8-3-0) lost to Texas 17-10. Next:

Dec. 27 in Liberty Bowl, opponent, undeter-No.16 Tennessee (7-1-2) beat Kentucky 42-0.

Next: vs. Vanderbilt. No.17 Louisiana State (7-1-1) beat Notre Dame 10-7. Next: at Tulane. No.18 Arkansas (9-2-0) beat Southern Methodist 15-9. Next: Dec. 22 in Holiday Bowl, opponent undetermined. No.19 Texas A&M (8-2-0) beat Texas Christian 53-6. Next: Thursday vs. Texas. No.20 Georgia (7-2-1) was idle. Next: at

Saturday's results

Georgia Tech.

Boston College 38, Holy Cross 7 Penn St. 31. Pittsburgh 0 Syracuse 31, Rutgers 14 Bowling Green 38, Ohio U. 17 Cent. Michigan 30, N. Illinois 21 Illinois 45, Northwestern 20 lowa 31, Minnesota 9 lowa St. 15, Oklahoma St. 10 Kansas 34, Missouri 20 LSU 10, Notre Dame 7 Miami, Ohio 16. Cincinnati 10 Michigan 27, Ohio St. 17 Michigan St. 41, Wisconsin 7

Purdue 34. Indiana 21 FAR WEST Arizona 16, Arizona St. 13 Brigham Young 38, Utah 28 Calorado 30, Kansas St. 0 Fullerton St. 38, Long Beach St. 27 Oregon 34, Oregon St. 13 Pacific U. 36, Weber St. 34 Southern Cal 17, UCLA 13 Stanford 24, California 22 Washington St. 21, Washington 20

Norvell keeps tradition alive

'I pointed my finger saying, We got the championship'

From page 1B

phone calls - Jay would call home two or three times a week — and sometimes he would say, 'Dad

"But as a parent, you've got to keep 'em up," he said. "I remember when I was a kid, there were always two things I wanted to do. One was play in the World Series, the other was play in the Rose Bowl. I got to play in the Rose Bowl and I wanted Jay to have that chance, too."

"He was frustrated the first two or three years," said Cynthia Norvell, Jay's mother. "I think he was one of those that Iowa knew he was good, it was just a matter of where to play him."

season of collegiate football, the 6-foot-4, 207-pounder found his He secured the No. 1 strong safety position vacated by Mike

In this, Jay Norvell's fifth

Stoops with 11 tackles in the spring game. He started the fall by making six tackles and forcing a fumble against Drake in Iowa's opener.

In games 2 through 10, he made seven interceptions, one shy of the school record shared by Nile Kinnick and Lou King.

And as the final seconds of the season ticked off the clock Saturday, Jay Norvell shared a special moment with his dad, who was seated in the stands behind the Iowa bench. Typical of Norvell's career, though, it almost didn't happen.

"I kept looking for him and looking," said Jay. "And finally he saw me.

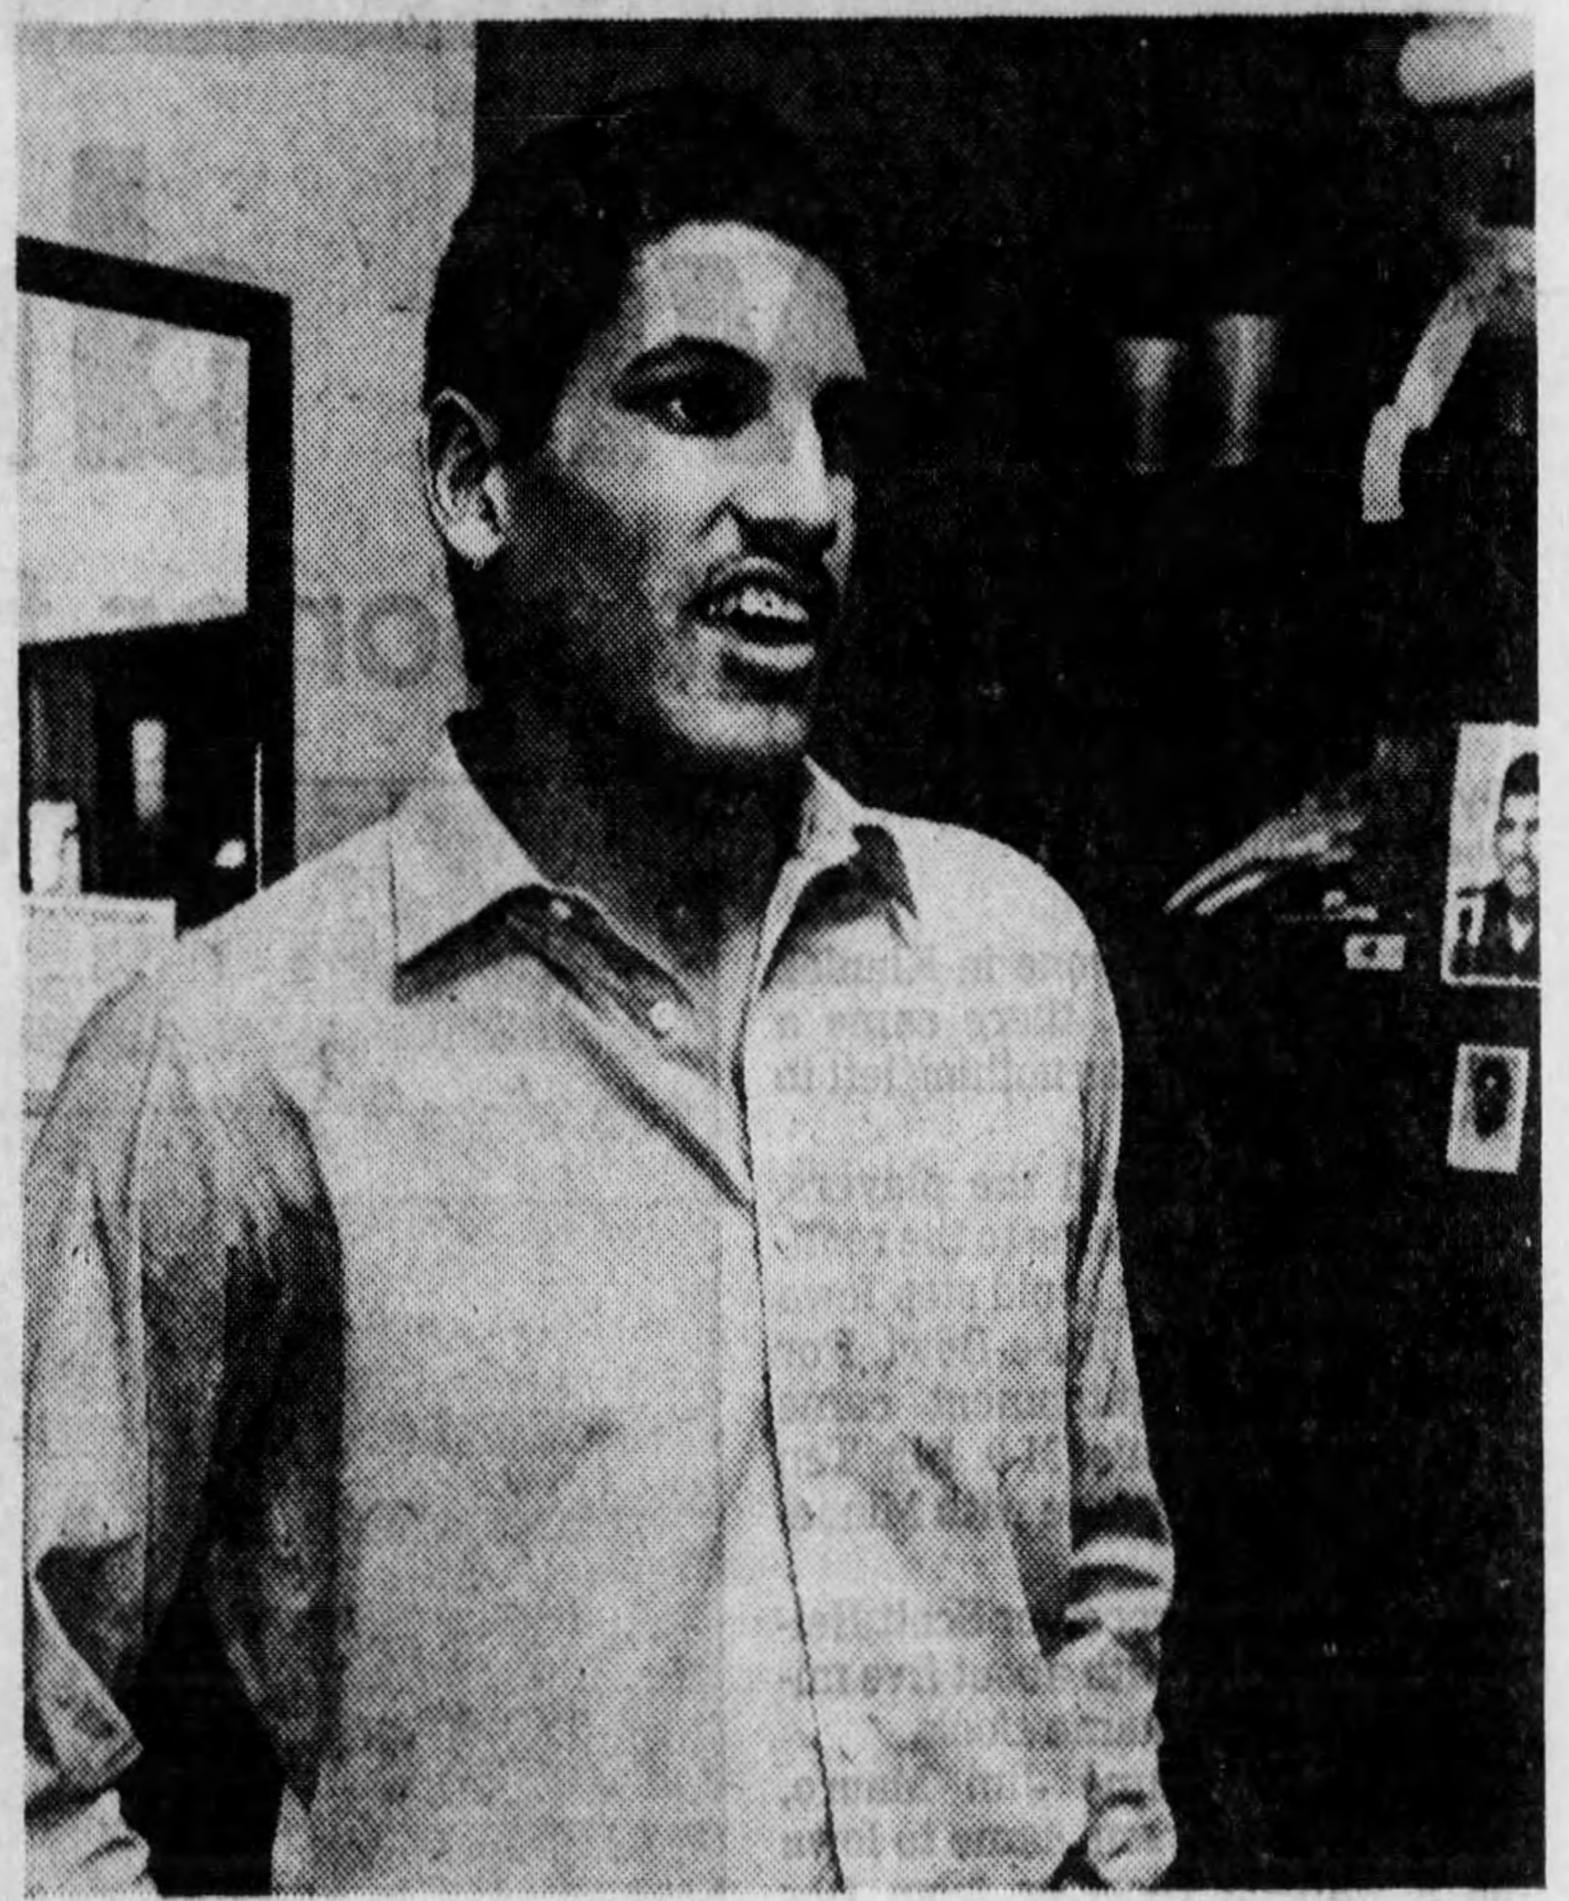

"I pointed at him and pointed at my finger saying, 'We got the ring, we got the championship.' "Just the look on his face, I've been waiting to see that for five years. I didn't think I'd ever see it. To make him proud is one of the greatest feelings this year."

Said father: "When you've grown up with 'em and you've seen 'em through junior high and high school football, this is the crown."

And, fittingly for a member of this family, it was a crown of Randy Brubaker is sports editor of the Press-Citizen.

Press-Citizen/John Schultz

lowa safety Jay Norvell: 'Just the look on (my dad's) face, I've been waiting to see that for five years."

This time.

From page 1B

somewhere from fifth to eighth in the Big Ten. Each time, it took a miracle ranging from minor to major.

But this time it was no surprise. No miracle. The Hawkeyes had a job to do. Not everyone picked them to win the Big Ten title, but they were among the front-runners and they did not disappoint. It's something new and different around here for an Iowa football team to be predicted to be outstanding, and then to be outstanding. Hey, these guys did it, and it may be again. The sights and sounds of the day will be etched in our memories for years.

awhile before we see the likes of

The dusters sweeping snow off the field just before the game, much as they did when the Hawkeyes turned the snow to roses against Michigan State here four years ago. The 19 seniors coming out for an emotional farewell, thanked by the thunderous applause of a full house of Hawkeye fans who didn't know enough to come in out of the cold. The Gophers zonked on their first possession. The Hawkeyes taking just two minutes and 12 seconds to go 53 yards and score seven points the second time they had the ball. The Gophers eating up eight minutes of clock, but having to settle for a field goal. (Bend but don't break.) Let's hear it for the defense! A frightening moment. Chuck Long is blind-sided and fumbles at the Iowa 18 with the Hawks leading only 7-3 early in the second quarter and it looked like a Gopher had the football. But good ol' Mike Haight wrestled it away from him. And Long is OK. Breathe easier again.

A 50-yard pass completion to that Harmon named Ronnie put about three petals on the rose and the Hawks went in to score. There was a Flagg on the play, but it was okay since he was catching the ball in the end zone. And although it was a Long pass, it was good for only four yards.

Halftime. Seventeen to three and 63,542 shivering Hawkeye fans send the team off the field with a rousing cheer. (The rest of the 66,020 in attendance were Minnesota fans.)

The Hawkeye defense had to stop the Gophers' first drive of the second half, and it did. Then the offense did its thing and that Harmon named Kevin wriggled and wraggled for 11 of the darndest yards you ever saw and another touchdown. Add four more petals!

Later, an unsung, hard-working kid from Minnesota named Rick Bayless, playing for Iowa, dove into the end zone on a reverse so well executed that almost no one knew where the ball was. Thirtyone to three and the petals were all in place.

Near the finish, here came Floyd of Rosebowl being carried out of the Minnesota team tunnel by a couple of Iowa team managers. Rousing cheers in the south end zone. Welcome home, Floyd!

Who cares if Michigan and Ohio State were playing?

At the finish, wild cheering, and here came the students out of the stands again. It's disgusting to many, but might as well give 'em the goal posts. It'd be easier for all concerned. For 20 years there was never anything to tear down a goal post

A rose is a rose is a rose . . . It was a day that will live forever in the hearts of Hawkeye

One last salute for the season that was, and is. One last hurrah for the dream that came true.

So now let's all take a break. I promise not to start worrying about the Rose Bowl game before Al Grady is a Press-Citizen sports columnist. His column appears Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

LIGARICIES ACICAI

Wednesday.

DES MOINES - City High's girls basketball team won its third city game of the season Saturday D.M. East night, coasting to a 49-34 victory over Des Moines East.

Des Moines East

"Our defense played extremely well," said City coach Kevin Klein. "We got into the pasing lanes and didn't allow them to get the ball inside."

Gayle Oaks led City's offense with 12 points as Lara Paris and Greta Sokoloff both added 10.

City's next game is Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. when it hosts Cedar Rapids Jefferson, the No. 2 team in the 10, Cain 4 0-1 8, C. Kennedy 2 0-0 4, Kolp 1 0-0 2. Alvarez 1 0-0 2. Burke 0 1-2 1, S. Kennedy 0 0-0 0. Champion 0 0-0 0, TenBroeke 0 0-1 0, Fulton 0 0-0 0. Totals — 23 3-6 49. D.M. EAST (34) Anderson 3 2-4 8, Cameron 3 0-6 6, Shepard 0

0-0 0, Boers 5 0-0 10, Carroll 0 0-1 0, Jackson

Oaks 6 0-0 12, Paris 5 0-0 10, Sokoloff 4 2-2 0-4 2, Hammer 2 2-2 6, Rogness 1 0-0 2. Totals 12 14 14 9 - 49 4 5 14 11 - 34 Total fouls — City 13, East 11.

Get the latest scores in the Press-Citizen Sports pages

> Start your year end tax planning now

Consult with Greenwood & Crim PC Certified Public Accountants 1705 First Avenue, Iowa City 351-0231

of the year broke Tom Nichol's

IOWA 31, MINNESOTA 9

REPLAY

	MINN	IOWA
First downs	18	24
Rushing	10	14
Passing	8	10
Penalty	0	0
Rushing (AttYds)	49-154	43-177
Passing	9-18-0	21-31-1
Yards Passing	118	268
Total Off. Plays	67	74
Punts-Avg.	6-32.8	2-39.5
Fumbles-Lost	4-2	2-1
Penalties-Yards	1-5	6-30
Time of Possession	30:10	29:50
Third Down Conv.	10-13	6-15

Score by Quarters MINNESOTA 7 10 7 7 - 31

lowa - R. Harmon 5 run (Houghtlin kick) Minn - FG Lohmiller 35 lowa - FG Houghtlin 26 lowa — Flagg 4 pass from Long (Houghtlin kick) lin kick) - Bayless 4 run (Houghtlin Minn — Gailord 16 pass from Holt (pass failed) lowa - K. Harmon 11 run (Hought-

A-66,020 INDIVIDUAL STATS RUSHING - Minnesota, Puk 13-61, Baylor 10-39; Iowa, R Harmon 13-75, K.

Harmon 13-73 PASSING — Minnesota, Foggie 6-13-0-69. Holt 3-5-0-49; lowa Long 21-31-1-268. RECEIVING - Minnesota, Gailord 3-57; Baylor 2-24; Hare 2-14; lowa, Halverson 7-86; Happel 4-72, R. Harmon 2-62.

NOTED, QUOTED

 Among the many records broken by lowa Saturday was points scored in a season. Kicker Rob Houghtlin established the new lowa mark with 97 points in a season, breaking Dennis Mosley's record of 96 in 1979. Also, Houghtlin's 17th field goal lowa record of 16 in a season.

 About 35 minutes before game time Saturday, Minnesota defensive end Joe Christopherson, coach Lou Holtz and lowa's Hayden Fry met at the 50-yard line. Christopherson was quoted earlier this week as calling Fry a "jerk who likes to run up scores" and he said lowa fans were "obnoxious." Saturday, it was time for ammends. "Nobody feels worse than Joe does," Holtz said. ". . . We do apologize to lowa and Hayden Fry."

"Prior to the game he came up and the young man was very apologetic in regards to what was printed in a newspaper up there, Fry said. "I think it took a lot of class. I was certainly impressed with the young man's honesty and integrity.

Haight was wearing a Gator Bowl shirt after the game. "Oh yeah, shoulda had my Rose Bowl shirt on," he said. Coach Hayden Fry said Chuck lowa offensive tackle Mike

Long's decision to return to lowa for that last run at the roses is a story that should be told and "I think there's a great story in and being tough and working their tail off to make things happen that are positive," he said. Fry said Long's behavior - on and off the football field inspired his whole team to become regards to people hanging in there

"first class." He said other teams which are perpetual underdogs the way lowa was until the Long era - should take note. "We're not just winning for the University of lowa, we're trying to win for all the people who were down like we were, say for 20 years, and then came back," the coach said.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

The Press-Citizen regularly prints schedules of upcoming recreation activities and results of such events on the Scoreboard Page of the sports section. If your organization is sponsoring such an activity here's how you can let others know of it:

To announce an event: Mail to the Press-Citizen, at least one week in advance, the pertinent information to be published. Include the name and phone number of a person the paper can contact if we need more information.

To have results of an event published: The paper must have a typed list of placewinners no later than three days after the event took place. Again, provide the name and phone number of a person who can be contacted for more information.

CLASSIFIED helps bring buyers and sellers together. If you have a slightly used item to sell, rely on CLASSIFIED to find you a buyer.

ROSE BOWL

7 Days-6 Nights Dec. 27-Jan. 2 from CEDAR RAPIDS

$999

Round trip L-1011 jet from Cedar Rapids to Los Angeles via American Trans Air.

Accommodations for 6 nights at the Hacienda Hotel.

 Reserved seat at The Rose Bowl Game. · Choice reserved seat for the Tournament of Roses Parade (sun at your back), including transportation to the parade and game. Continental breakfast each morning.

• Bus transfers and luggage handling in Los Angeles. Optionals include Disneyland, Universal Studios, San Diego, Palm Springs, etc.

Call (319) 354-2926

• Tour escorted by Bill Ramer and Dick Twining of Twining Tours.

TWINING TOURS

Abbey Inn-US 6 & 218 W, Iowa City

WE TOOK 1,000 IOWA FANS TO THE 1982 ROSE BOWL

UCLA not Fry's pick

lowa coach wanted to face Arizona St., not Bruins

By Steve Carlson The Press-Citizen

It was a little past 11:30 a.m. Sunday, and Hayden Fry claimed he still hadn't heard.

"I don't even know who we're playing in the Rose Bowl, if that's been determined," he said during his weekly teleconference.

How does UCLA sound, coach? The 8-2-1 Bruins were upset by USC 17-13 Saturday, leaving the Pac-10 crown open for Arizona State. But Arizona upset Arizona State late Saturday night, putting the Bruins right back into the Rose Bowl they had seemingly bumbled away hours before. Fry didn't seem to be ecstatic to hear the news, admitting that he had been pulling for Arizona State.

"(UCLA), that's tough duty because (the Rose Bowl) is their home stadium," Fry said. "Plus they lost to USC. That's doubletough. I'm sorry to hear that."

When asked if Iowa had someone scouting the UCLA-USC game, Fry replied: "I couldn't even tell you what time UCLA played yesterday."

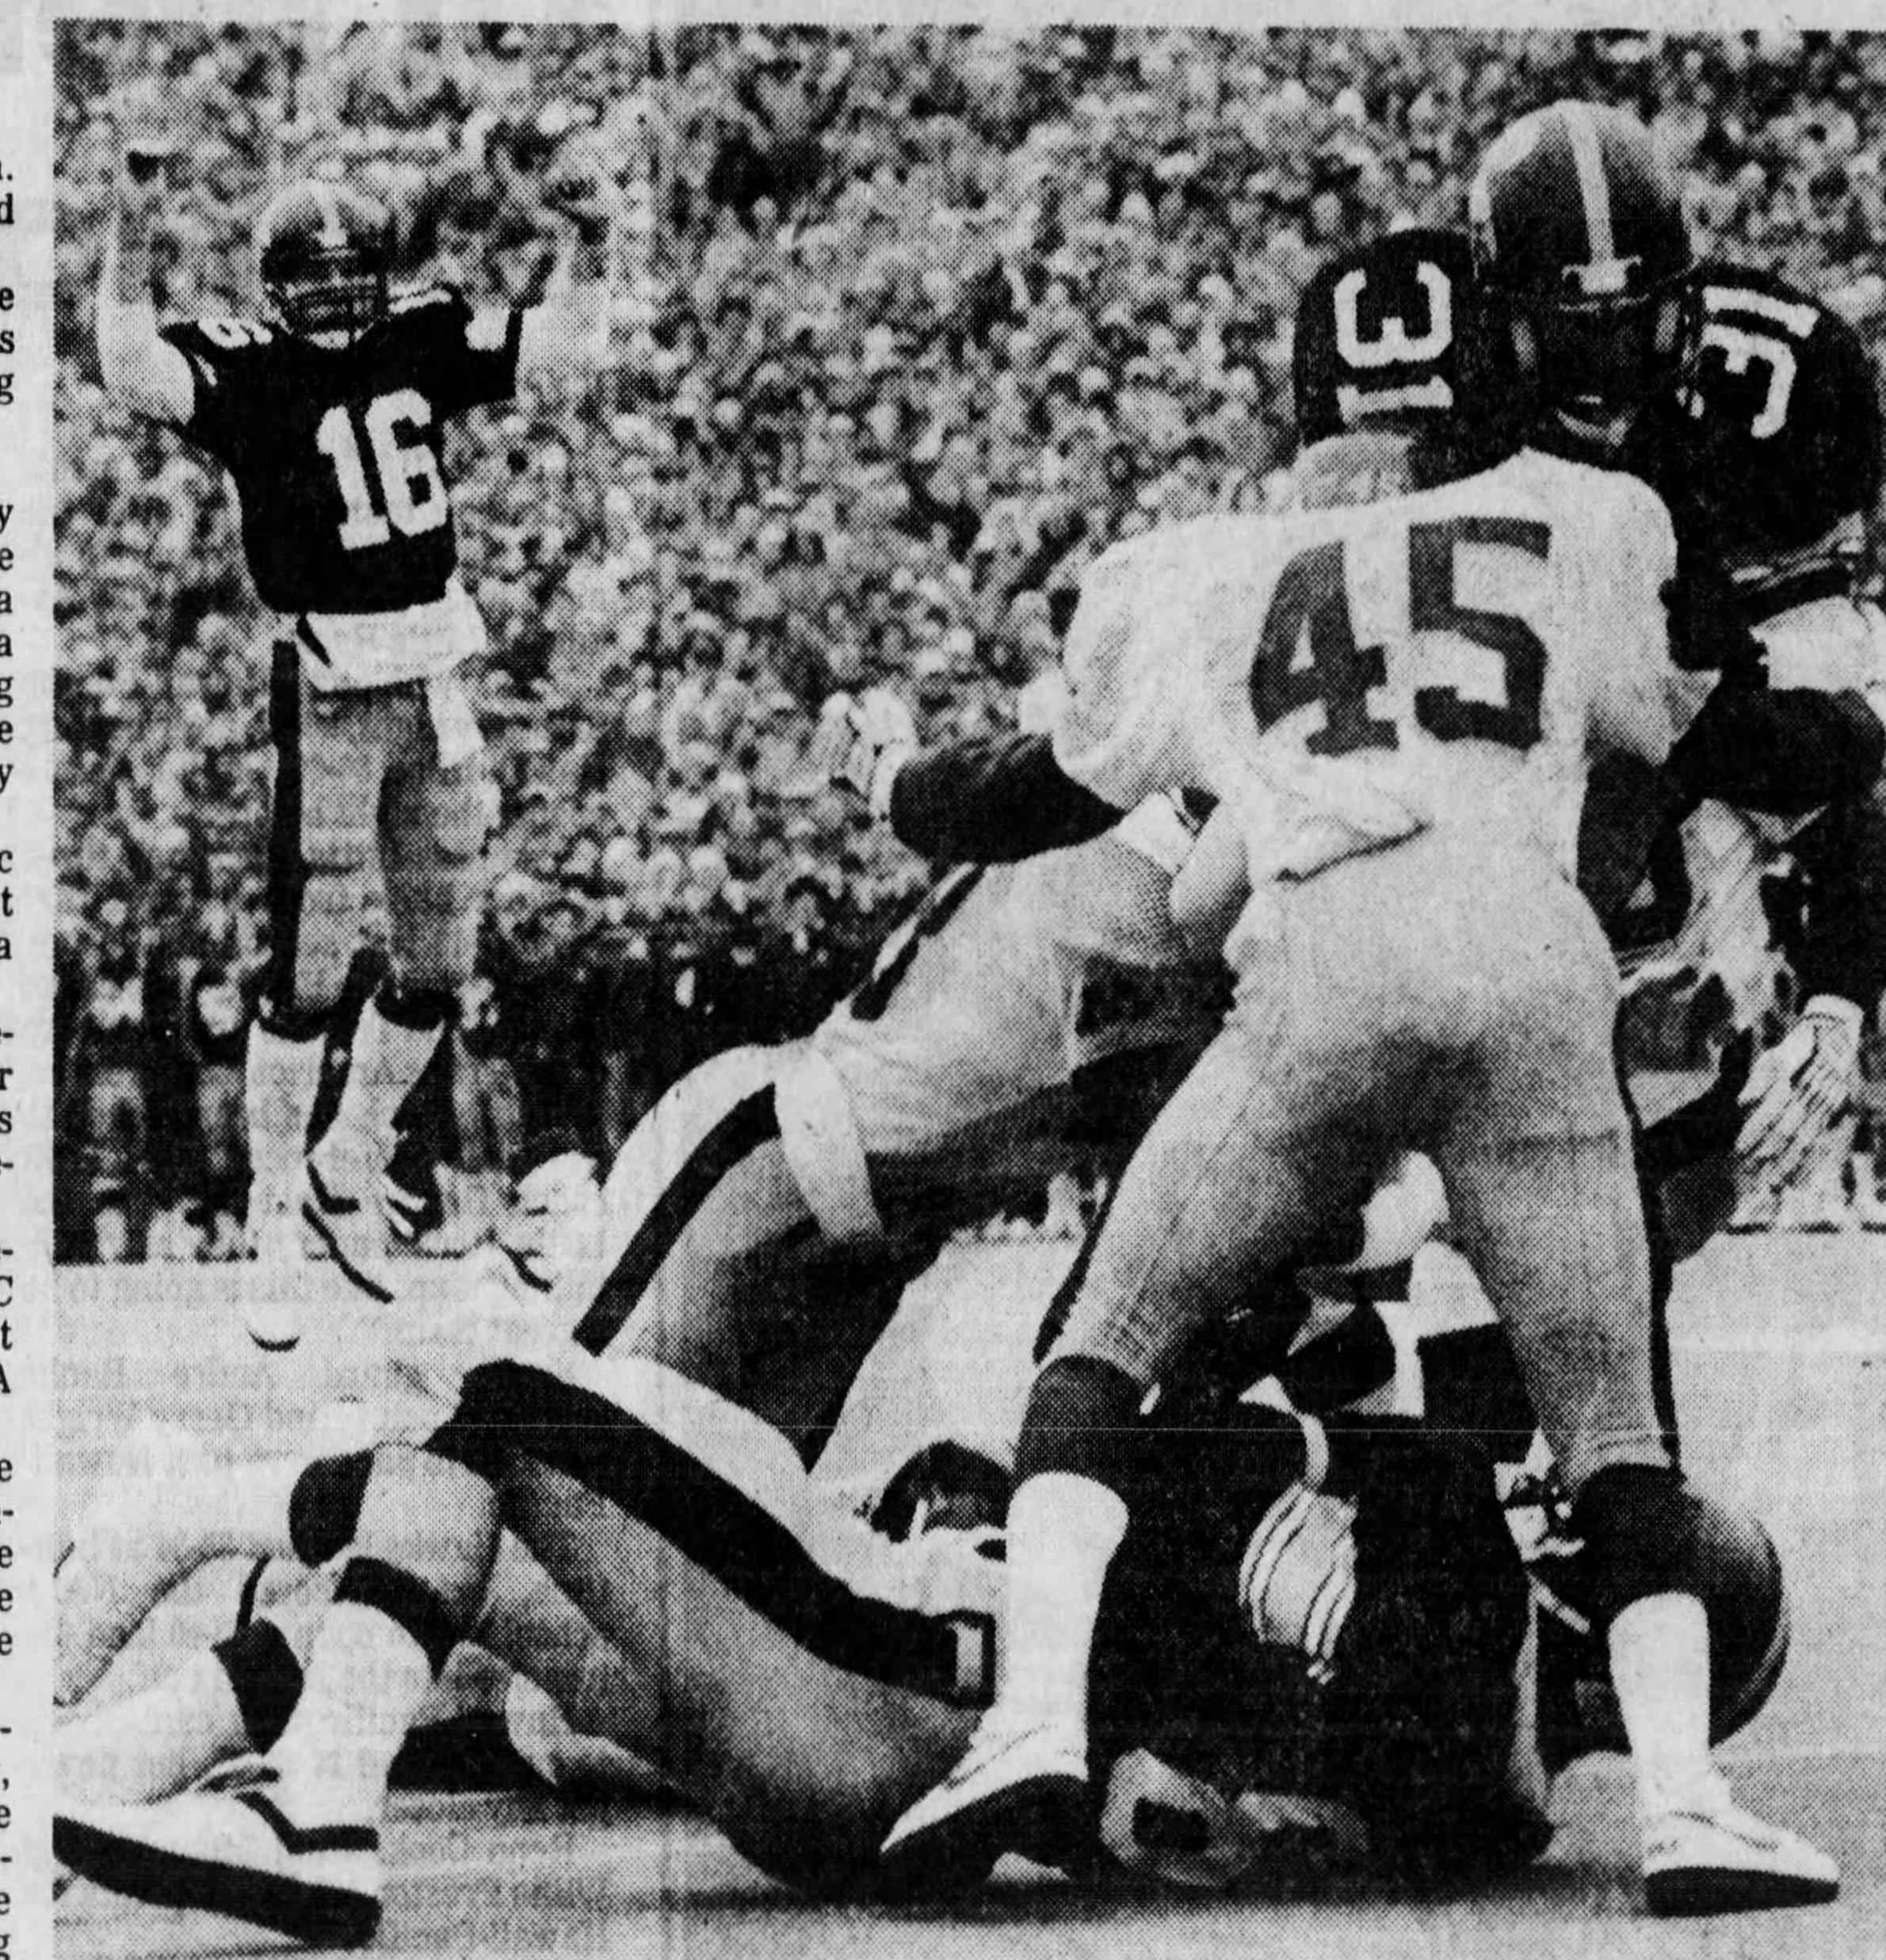

Fry hopes his Hawkeyes will be healthy by Jan. 1. After the Minnesota win that put Iowa in the Rose Bowl, Fry said none of the players injured in the game were seriously hurt.

Although there are five and onehalf weeks before game day, Iowa's coaches have very little time to sit back and enjoy the pre-Rose Bowl limelight. Fry said he would hold a recruiting meeting Sunday and the coaches would start flying around the country to recruit today. He said Rose Bowl schedules were to be finalized Sunday night.

Fry tentatively intends to take his team to California on Dec. 26, much later than the team went out for the 1982 Rose Bowl. Fry said the Hawks will attend a minimum number of social functions before the game this time.

"We're going to enjoy ourselves, but we're going out there with one thing in mind, and that's to win the ballgame," he said.

The schedule will get pretty hectic for Fry in the next few weeks. In addition to recruiting, he said he will be in Los Angeles

FREE Friedrich von Friedrich von der der von d

Press-Citizen/John Schultz

lowa's Ronnie Harmon bulls in for a 5-yard touchdown run in the first quarter Saturday. Minnesota cornerback Duane Dutrieuille makes a futile attempt to stop Harmon, while Hawkeye quarterback Chuck Long celebrates in the background.

press conference and to screen the Hawkeyes' workout facilities and accommodations. That night he will take a late flight to New York.

New York's Downtown Athletic Club is where Iowa quarterback Chuck Long will be to appear on the television show on which the Heisman Trophy winner will be announced Saturday, Dec. 7.

That night, Fry will head back to Iowa City. "It's a big recruiting for a Friday, Dec. 6, Rose Bowl weekend for us," he said.

Long at 10,142 and climbing

From page 1B

The Five-Mile Foursome Long became a member of includes Doug Flutie of Boston College (11,345 yards), Brian McClure of Bowling Green (10,526), Jim McMahon of Brigham Young (10,505) and Long, who ended the game Saturday with 10,142.

Those yardage figures include statistics attained in bowl games. Not counting bowls (which the NCAA doesn't when tabulating its official statistics), only Flutie and McClure have surpassed 10,000 yards.

Long isn't likely to move up into the No. 3 spot. He would have to pass for 364 yards in the Rose Bowl to surpass McMahon.

Long's passing Herrmann was something that Iowa coach Hayden Fry was conscious of all season. More than once Fry left his quarterback in games in which the outcome had already been decided so that Long could remain within reach of the rec-

"I never dreamed five years ago I'd even come close to Mark Herrmann's record," Long said. "I read a lot of things about Mark Herrmann in high school and the things he did. It's something I'll cherish forever."

COLLEGE BOWL LINEUP

CALIFORNIA BOWL (Dec. 14) Bowling Green, 11-0, vs. Fresno St., 9-0-1, 2 p.m. CHERRY BOWL (Dec. 21) Syracuse, 7-3, vs. undetermined, noon INDEPENDENCE BOWL (Dec. 21) Clemson, 6-5, vs. Minnesota, 6-5, 7 p.m. HOLIDAY BOWL (Dec. 22) Arkansas, 9-2, vs. Arizona St., 8-3, 7 p.m. LIBERTY BOWL (Dec. 27) Baylor, 8-3, vs. undetermined, 7:30 p.m. FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL (Dec. 28) Ohio St., 8-3, vs. Brigham Young, 10-2, noon SUN BOWL (Dec. 28) Georgia, 7-2-1, vs. Arizona, 8-3, 2 p.m. ALOHA BOWL (Dec. 28) Southern California, 5-5, vs. undetermined, 7 p.m. FREEDOM BOWL (Dec. 30) Washington, 6-5, vs. undetermined, 6:30 p.m. GATOR BOWL (Dec. 30) Oklahoma St., 8-2, vs. Florida St., 8-2, 7 p.m. PEACH BOWL (Dec. 31) Army, 8-2, vs. Illinois, 6-4-1, 2 p.m. ALL-AMERICAN BOWL (Dec. 31) Michigan St., 7-4, vs. Georgia Tech, 7-2-1, 7 p.m.

ROSE BOWL (Jan. 1) UCLA, 8-2-1, vs. lowa, 10-1, 4 p.m. SUGAR BOWL (Jan. 1) Miami, Fla., 9-1 vs. SEC Champion, 7 p.m. ORANGE BOWL (Jan. 1) Oklahoma, 8-1, vs. Penn St., 11-0, 7 p.m.

Air Force, 11-1, vs. undetermined, 7 p.m.

Michigan, 9-1-1, vs. Nebraska, 9-2, 12:30 p.m.

SWC champion vs. Auburn, 8-2, 12:30 p.m.

BLUEBONNET BOWL (Dec. 31)

FIESTA BOWL (Jan. 1)

COTTON BOWL (Jan. 1)

Dreams of Hawks didn't wilt

Mitchell: It was 'an all-day high' was time to disperse with all inhibitions. With the Hawkeyes leading 31-3 and a mere five minutes remaining, Helverson moved the rose sticker to the outside forehead of his helmet.

From page 1B

"That's when you could really feel the enthusiasm of the crowd,' Helverson said as he stuffed five long-stemmed roses into his shaving kit, explaining that it was the only way he could carry them without getting pricked.

"It was the first time you could really appreciate the fans. There with about five minutes left I was talking to everyone in the stands. And they were giving us roses and congratulating me and blowing

For Iowa coach Hayden Fry, the first time he appreciated a feeling of comfort came with 14:11 left. A slick play that involved two fakes into the line and a flip of the ball from quarterback Chuck Long to running back Rick Bayless, who skirted around left end for a 4-yard touchdown run, gave Iowa 31 points and put Fry at ease.

"You know, so many strange things happen," Fry said. "When we got to 31-3, that's the first time I really felt good."

Free safety Devon Mitchell felt good long before that. Mitchell, who said there was "an all-day high" on the Iowa sideline, was feeling pretty good himself early in the game.

"When I saw our offense take control in the first quarter, right then and there I knew we had this football game," Mitchell said.

Max Christian of the Cotton Bowl knew Iowa had the game and the Rose Bowl berth early in the fourth quarter.

With 10:34 left, Christian called Jim Brock, the executive vice president of the Cotton Bowl, to tell him Auburn — not Iowa — was the team to extend a bid to. If Iowa had lost to Minnesota and fallen from the Rose Bowl picture, the Cotton Bowl was prepared to snatch up the Hawks.

When the third quarter ended, the chorus of "Rose Bowl" chants could be heard throughout the stadium. With 13:47 left, the Iowa cheerleaders unvieled an enormous banner that read "Rose Bowl '86." With 8:54 left, Iowa sports information director George Wine passed out information sheets on the Rose Bowl to the media.

Clearly, there was nothing to fear now.

Unless you were on the field afterwards.

With just over two minutes remaining, the public address announcer requested that fans stay off the field. The fans sneered, laughed and booed. Soon, they would defy.

curity people gathered around the "Best record in umpteen years. goal post in the North end zone. First time ever (in school history) it's worth," said State Trooper Al at Iowa." Perkins, to make sure the post

Long, Station on Today show

Iowa quarterback Chuck Long and linebacker Larry Station have been selected to the Kodak All-American team.

The two Hawkeyes are in New York today and will appear on the NBC Today show at 7 a.m. Tuesday.

Long and Station are two of the three players who will appear on the Today show. The other Kodak All-American will be Syracuse defensive tackle Tim Green.

According to Iowa sports information director George Wine, Long and Station will join the other 20 members of the team some time in mid-December for the taping of Bob Hope's Christmas special, which will feature the Kodak All-American team.

remained upright.

"We won't be able to stop them (fans), but about 30 of them will go to jail," Perkins said.

As time expired, the fans in the grass area above the North end zone produced what sounded like a multi-car pile-up by slamming their fists against the metal scoreboard above them. Fans spilled onto the field.

Eventually, the South goal post came down. The troopers at the North end of the field did a nice 100 reporters than crammed into the small interview room below the Iowa locker room to do their jobs. Had he been there, the state fire marshal would not have been amused at the sight.

Fry and Long soon arrived, and Fry was presented with a bouquet of roses by Fred Soldwedel of the Tournament of Roses. Fry vowed the Hawkeyes would make a better account of themselves than they did in the 1982 Rose Bowl, when they lost to Washington, 28-0.

Fry passed the roses to Long and called him "the greatest quarterback in America."

Long one-upped that, calling Fry "the greatest college head football coach in the world." Long didn't really need any more roses. He was already wearing a rose sticker on his forehead and another one on his cheek, and he had a single rose stuffed down his shirt. Any other day, it would have looked gaudy.

Fry, meanwhile, was wearing a perpetual grin.

"Can you guys believe we're ac-At about that time, a bevy of se-tually Big Ten champs?" he said. They were going to try "for what with 10 wins. That doesn't happen

It didn't used to.

1985 CHEVROLET TRUCK FACTORY INVOICE SALE

3 CHEVY S-10 PICKUPS 2 CHEVY S-10 BLAZERS 1 CHEVY C-10 PICKUP 2 CHEVY CONVERSION VANS 1 CHEVY BEAUVILLE SPORTVAN 2 CHEVY K-10 BLAZERS 7 CHEVY EL CAMINOS

WE'RE DEALING!

OLD CAPITOL MOTORS

HWY. I WEST, IOWA CITY

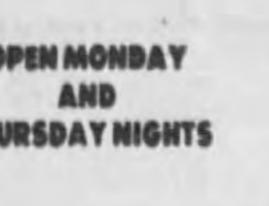

354-1011

1985 CHEVROLET FACTORY INVOICE SALE

7 CHEVY NOVAS 1 CHEVY CITATION II 4 CHEVY MONTE CARLOS 2 CHEVY CAPRICE CLASSICS

WE'RE DEALING!

HWY. I WEST, IOWA CITY

354-1011

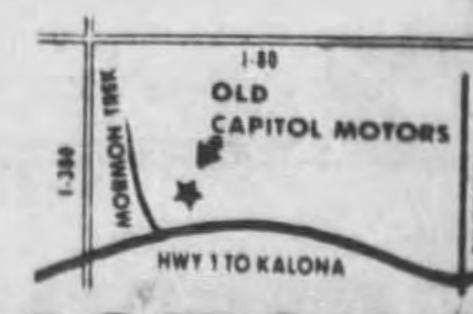

1985 BUICK FACTORY INVOICE SALE

2 BUICK SKYHAWKS 2 BUICK REGALS 4 BUICK LeSABRES BUICK ELECTRA PARK AVE. 1 BUICK RIVIERA BUICK ELECTRA ESTATE WAGON

WE'RE DEALING!

OLD CAPITOL MOTORS