Kennedy boys hit their stride, tie for honors at Ask Relays

By J.R. Ogden Gazette sportswriter

The Cedar Rapids Kennedy boys' track and field team has come a long way in one month.

The Cougars have gone from finishing 10th in their own Draxton Classic April 10, to placing fourth at the Marion Invitational Tuesday, to tying Waterloo Central for the championship at the 29th John F. Ask Relays Thursday night.

"I don't know if surprised is the right word," Cougar Coach Al Stiers said. "I'd rather say I'm very happy about it.

"We had some injuries earlier and we're starting to get into shape. We've got a good group of seniors who are beginning to come on.

"Hey, this is the time to start coming on," added Stiers, whose team tied Waterloo Central atop the 11-team field with 50 points. The title was the firstever in this meet for Kennedy and only the second for Central.

"I had no idea that we'd even be in contention for this," Central Coach Dick Miller said. "It's a real honor. Goodness."

Marshalltown, which had won the previous three Ask titles and five of the last sixth, finished third with 47 points, followed by Cedar Falls with 39, host Jefferson, Waterloo West, Washington, Waterloo East and Dubuque Wahlert, Waverly-Shell Rock and Waterloo Columbus.

Kennedy won just one of the 14 events, but collected four runner-up finishes.

Kennedy's lone titlist was senior Jim Wessel, who captured the 110-meter high hurdles in a season-best 14.96-seconds.

But the Cougars collected 29 of their 50 points by finishing second in the 800, 400 and 1,600 medley relays and high jump. Sophomore Jamie Quelle cleared 6-feet, 4-inches in the high jump - the same as winner Todd Weidman of Columbus - but had to settle for second because of more misses.

"I think they've got a long way to go yet," noted Stiers of his team. "They're not done improving yet."

Central piled up 30 of its total by capturing the 800, 400 and 1,600 relays. Chris Cook, Richard Powell, Andre Dudley and David Harrington teamed to win the 800 relay in 1:29.73, then Darius Hart and Jim Hart joined Cook and Powell in winning the 400 in 43.42. Mike Wright, Harrington, Cook and Dudley raced to the 1,600 relay title in 3:24.45.

Harrington gave the Chargers their other win, capturing the 100 dash in :11.09.

Dubuque Wahlert's Doug Boleyn was the meet's individual star, winning the 3,200 run in a record 9:26.33 and the 1,600 run in 4:29.92. The 3,200 run not only produced the only record on this cool evening, but also was the most exciting. After eight laps around the 400-meter track, Boleyn had to outlean Waverly's Jim Johnson at the wire to win by .04 second.

The only other local winners were Jeff's David Reid in the long jump and Washington's 3,200 relay unit of Van White, Earl Harrison, Jason Maples and Jason Maxson.

Reid leaped a Metro and area season-best 22-31/4 in the long jump and the Warrior foursome turned in an 8:06.95 performance.

Marshalltown won the medley relay and Bobcat Kelly Ruddick raced to a :55.44 win in the 400 low hurdles. West's Scott Fox grabbed the shot put title with a 52-61/4 effort and Cedar Falls' Mark Bauman won the discus with a 153-2 toss.

Rockets bump off Portland HOUSTON (AP) - Akeem Olaju-

won scored 27 points and fueled a third-quarter surge that led the Houston Rockets to a 113-101 victory over Portland Thursday night, clinching their first-round NBA playoff series 3-1.

The Trail Blazers, trailing 61-51 at the half, outscored Houston 13-8 to start the third quarter. But it was their last charge at the team that has beaten them eight straight times at The Summit.

After a timeout, Olajuwon hit two straight baskets and the Rockets outscored the Blazers 20-4 in the rest of the quarter to lead 89-68 going into the fourth period.

It was the first time the Rockets had ever clinched a playoff in The Summit. Houston will meet either Seattle or Dallas in the next round.

"He pitched out of trouble," Cincinnati Reds' minor league pitching instructor Larry Rothschild noted. "He had a lot of guts tonight. He really battled it."

"It's the first time I've felt this good since the season started," added Brown.

"Keith Brown is a joy to catch," Wakamatsu said. "He just works so smoothly. And it helps when Curt Kindred can come in and shut the door."

Kindred earned his first save by striking out three in three perfect Wakamatsu's show of power was unusual. With one out in the second, he pounded a towering shot over the 385-foot mark in left-center field. It was just his second professional home run.

"I've been waiting for that first one to get me going," Wakamatsu said. "This spring, I've been working on my power and that's why I'm off to a slow start. I've been thinking about a lot of different things. Tonight, I was seeing it good."

Cedar Rapids, which just returned home after losing twice at Kenosha, added a run in the third

Don Brown started it with a bloop double just out of the reach of Kenosha shortstop Scott Leius. After Keith Lockhart struck out, designated hitter Brooks Shumake bounced a hit through the right side to score Brown.

"We're just trying to get a few games over .500 and get rolling a little bit," Reds Manager Paul Kirsch said after his team improved to 10-8. "Right now, the hitters are struggling a little bit and our pitching has been carrying us. But I'm not worried about it. I think our hitters will break out."

The Reds, tied for first place in the Central Division, wrap up their three-game stand against Kenosha tonight at 7. Madison opens a twogame stand in Cedar Rapids on Saturday.

SPORTS BRIEFLY

BASKETBALL — Memphis State guard Vincent Askew has declared himself eligible for the NBA draft, his attorney said Thursday The 6-foot-6 junior has sent a letter to the NBA notifying the league of his decision, attorney Keith Glass said in a phone interview from his office in Middletown, N.J. Askew, who averaged 15.1 points and five rebounds a game last season, is the second underclassman to make himself eligible for this year's draft, which will be held June 22. The other player is Norris Coleman, a 6-8 sophomore from Kansas State . . . An NCAA inquiry into alleged abuse involving an athletic department credit card at West Texas State University has expanded into an investigation of the school's basketball program, the school's athletic director said Thursday.

FOOTBALL — Denver Broncos linebacker Tom Jackson, the oldest active linebacker in the NFL, announced his retirement Thursday after playing a franchise-record 14 seasons. Jackson, 36, has been invited to join the Denver coaching staff — an option he said he is considering along with a possible broadcasting career. . Tony Woods, the NFL Seattle Seahawks' first-round draft choice this year, admits he signed with an agent before completing his college career, in violation of NCAA rules. Woods said Wednesday he signed early because the University of Pittsburgh was between coaching staffs, and the agent, Norby Walters of New York, dazzled him by taking him to parties, where he met entertainment stars.

MISC. — Baltimore Orioles third baseman Ray Knight, who suffered a concussion during Tuesday night's game against the Kansas City Royals, was to be released from a Kansas City hospital Thursday afternoon . . . Jack Dixon, 17, a junior at Columbus (Ohio) West Side High School, died Wednesday as a result of a pole vaulting accident. Dixon, who died of head trauma, did not regain consciousness after landing on his head on a blacktop runway of a long jump area behind the pole vault landing mat during a practice vault prior to a meet.

Reggie's blast slows Brewers

Associated Press

OAKLAND, Calif. - Reggie Jackson homered on an October-style swing and the Oakland Athletics were on their way to a 4-1 victory over April's darlings, the Milwaukee Brewers.

"That one was hit pretty good, wasn't it?" Jackson said of Thursday's two-run blast, a high, arcing drive which carried more than 400 feet and put the A's ahead in the third inning.

The Brewers have lost two of their last three games, but finished their awesome April with an 18-3 record, second best in major-league history to the Detroit Tigers' 18-2 mark in April 1984.

Oakland pitchers Dave Stewart and Jay Howell combined on a three-hitter. Stewart, 3-2, walked three and struck out eight. Howell retired all five batters he faced.

Jackson's homer was his fourth this season, the 552nd of his career and his 61st against Milwaukee, the most he has hit against any team.

Hawkeyes foil Coe's escape act

By Bob Denney Gazette sportswriter

IOWA CITY — Coe College came within a pitch of one of the best escape acts of the spring baseball season Thursday afternoon.

But Iowa, behind the combined Givens, erupted for a six-run fourth Madison, Wis., today to begin a inning en route to a 14-4 victory in four-game Big Ten series against six innings at Iowa Field.

Coe relief pitcher Damon Walker almost bailed his teammates out of a bases-loaded jam in the fourth inning before the floodgates opened.

The Hawkeyes held a 6-4 advantage, with Walker coming in with the bases loaded. The junior righthander from Danville got two ground balls resulting in forceouts at home plate. He then took Iowa's Bryan Luedtke to a 3-2 count.

Walker's next pitch was high and wide to force in one run before Givens stroked his second triple of the afternoon and chased home three more, making it 10-4.

Frakes cracked two homers in the the sixth to end the contest by the 10-run rule.

Iowa's victory was preceded in over Augustana of Rock Island, Ill. that and know what they have to do. 3-3. Wisconsin.

Coe falls to 5-10, and hosts archrival Cornell Saturday in a doubleheader at Washington High School at 10:30 a.m.

"One pitch, just one pitch from making it respectable," said Coe Coach Harold "Pinky" Primrose. "Really it was a good experience for our kids. You really learn the difference between Division I (Iowa) and III (Coe). Our kids always try hard and this will only help us.'

Iowa, which scrambled to beat Augustana on Keith Noreen's inside-the-park home run, had similar struggle with Coe.

"Our hitting this week has been game, including a three-run shot in just up and down; I hope we get it turned around for the weekend," said Iowa Coach Duane Banks, whose team is in the Big Ten title the day by a harrowing 9-8 decision picture. "But I think the kids realize nine RBI of Randy Frakes and Bart The Hawkeyes, 23-19, travel to "It's a big weekend for us, and really this was meant to be a throwaway year because of our youth. We replaced seven positions, and the kids just worked and worked. I'm still saying that we're the team of the future."

> Iowa was startled when Coe grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Steve Topping led off with a walk and stole second. Brian Hutcheson then doubled him in, and one out later came home on Mike Spellerberg's double.

The Hawkeyes awakened for three runs in the bottom of the second. Givens slapped a two-run triple and Luis Ramirez's grounder skipped through Spellerberg's legs to bring home another.

But Coe wasn't through. Iow catcher Luedtke fielded a tapper in front of the plate by Hutcheson and threw wildly over first base. Hutcheson raced to third and scored on Tony Callahan's single, making it

Iowa came back to take a 4-3 lead in the bottom of the third on freshman Brian Wujcik's RBI single, only to have Coe tie it in the fourth.

Coe's Mark Pate singled, and was moved to third on Scott Jackson's double. Joe Berutti's pop deep behind third base was caught by Noreen, but Pate tagged and scored Following Iowa's big fourth inning for a 10-4 lead, the Hawks added four more runs to ice it.

Iowa outhit Coe just 9-8, with freshman pitcher John DeJarld boosting his record to 3-0. Coe starter Deron Jurgensen took the

NEWS NOTES/AREA SPORTS

St. Ambrose recruits

DAVENPORT - Eleven former Gazette-area preps are among the 29 recruits St. Ambrose football coach John Furlong has signed thus far this spring.

Seven are transfers, including defensive back John McGivern (Benton Community) from Iowa Central; linebacker Brian Weldon (Codar Rapids Prairie), North Iowa defensive tackle Jim Miller (low Valley), University of Northern Iowa; and linebacker Todd Becker (Benton Community), Kirkwood.

Damen Robinson, 6-0, 190-pound running back from Cedar Rapids Jefferson, heads the list of six area preps Furlong has signed. The others are linebacker Cy Frommelt, Guttenberg; defensive end Mike Prachar, Cedar Rapids Kennedy; linebacker Reid McDonald, Iowa City Regina; and quarterback Curt Ritchie and defensive end Bryan Coffman, English Valleys.

VIP additions

IOWA CITY — Jay Haas and Gene Littler have been added to the list of professionals who will compete in the Amana V.I.P. Golf Tournament June 29 at Finkbine Golf Course.

Haas, who won the Houston Open last weekend in a playoff with Buddy Gardner, has earned over $1.3 million since joining the PGA Tour in 1976. This will be his 10th consecutive Amana appearance.

Littler's recent win in the Seniors Grand Slam in Japan was his 29th PGA tourney victory. The PGA Hall of Famer will be making his 18th Amana appearance.

owa recruits

IOWA CITY — All-state softball player Shelly Fowler of Ankeny, Iowa prep track champion Jill Freed of Sanborn and Pennsylvania prep backstroke champion Amy Krone have signed University of Iowa letters of intent. Fowler helped Ankeny to five state softball tournament appearances, including a runner-up finish in the 1984 summer tourney and the 1985 fall championship. Freed has won the state prep 200meter dash title the past two seasons, and added the 100-meter crown last spring.

Slatton honored

IOWA CITY - Yvonne "Bonnie" Slatton of the University of Iowa was presented with the National Association for Girls and Women in Sports' Honor Award at the recent NAGWS general session in Les Vegas, Nev.

During the past seven years, Slatton has served on the United States Olympic Committee, the USOC's Los Angeles Planning Committee for the 1984 Summer Olympics and the National Explorer Olympics Steering Committee; and as U.S. delegate to the International Olympic Academy in Athens,

lowa Conference race

The Iowa Conference softball race ends today with three teams still in the running.

Two of them — Luther and William Penn - square off at Oskaloosa. The third, Central, is at Upper Iowa.

Two-time defending champion Luther, 11-3, moved into the IIAC lead on Tuesday by sweeping Dubuque while Central, 9-3, split with Buena Vista.

William Penn is 7-3 in the IIAC.

Bo proposes bill to stop agents on campus

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — College football coaches, including Michigan's Bo Schembechler, and state lawmakers announced Thursday bills policing sports agents and requiring penalties for alumni boosters who offer college athletes gifts or money. "The agent problem is the one thing which I have not been able to control," Schembechler said. "Everything else we have been able to police." A bill to be introduced by three state lawmakers would require agents to be registered with the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulation and post a $25,000 bond. The law would subject them to a number of penalties for violations of a series of rules for proper conduct. "They even contacted a sophomore on my team," Schembechler said of the agents. "They could gain complete control of players, and who knows where the money to pay them comes from? Then almost anything could happen. You could get into gambling problems." Joining Schembechler and Eastern Michigan Coach Jim Harkema at the press conference were bill sponsors Reps. Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor; Joseph Palamara, D-Wyandotte, and House Speaker Gary Owen, D-Ypsilanti.

A second bill would make it a two-year felony for anyone, including a pro sports agent or alumni booster, to promise or give anything of value to a student athlete either to get him to enroll in a college or to sign with a pro agent.

Schembechler said he had to take away All-American defensive back Garland Rivers' athletic scholarship for the spring term because Rivers had signed with New York agents Norby Walters and Lloyd Bloom.

"I don't know whether Garland will be able to finish school now," Schembechler said.

"They put people on every campus to approach the players," Schembechler said of sports agents. "There is probably one of these guys on our campus right now, and if I catch him I'll break his
