

BRIEFS

■ Hernell "Jeep" Jackson, a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference basketball player for Texas-El Paso, died Saturday after apparently suffering cardiac arrest. Jackson, 23, a senior, was on a team playing a group of Houston Oilers football players at Ft. Bliss in El Paso. Jackson, a native of Carson, Calif., had been playing for about five minutes when he went to the sidelines. "He seemed to be as animated as he usually is at games," said Lt. Col. Jim Lawson, public affairs officer at the Army base. "I am told he fell to the floor—I don't know whether he had been standing or sitting—got up and apparently looked dazed. He then fell again, and people realized he wasn't joshing and that something was seriously wrong." Lawson said Jackson had no history of heart trouble. An autopsy is scheduled for Sunday.

■ Philadelphia Eagles running back Keith Byars, who required surgery last year for a broken bone in his right foot, broke the same bone in his left foot during the team's mini-camp Saturday at Veterans Stadium. No prognosis was immediately available, but trainer Otho Davis said surgery was likely and more would be known Sunday. "Our doctors tell us that he'll probably be back for the last exhibition game. That's pretty good," said coach Buddy Ryan.

■ Cincinnati Bengals running back Stanley Wilson denied that he has tested positive for drugs. "I haven't heard anything about it," Wilson said. "If anyone is to know something about it, it would be me." Wilson was reinstated by the National Football League one year ago after an 18-month suspension. He faces another suspension and possible permanent banishment from the league if drug tests prove positive. TV and newspaper reports said that Wilson apparently had failed a drug test and that the league was considering the matter and would make an announcement next week.

■ Defensive end Reggie Rogers, the Detroit Lions' first-round pick in last week's NFL draft, will be charged with gross misdemeanor assault involving his former girlfriend. The 6-6, 270-pound Rogers is accused of grabbing Alicia Wright around the neck and throwing her against a wall outside her Seattle apartment on April 22, a police report taken at the time said. Rogers is the younger brother of the late Don Rogers, who died of a cocaine overdose last year.

■ Commissioner Pete Rozelle has warned teams interested free-agent kicker Rafael Septien, who pleaded guilty April 8 to indecency with a child, that the former Cowboy may face a league suspension. Rozelle sent a telex to all 28 teams that read, in part, "[Septien] will have pending business with this office before clearance to play can be granted. Consequently, his availability for the 1987 season cannot be assured."

■ The president of the University of Iowa on Wednesday will release findings of an investigation into claims that former Iowa running back Ronnie Harmon received payments from professional agents while playing for the Hawkeyes. Harmon, now with the Buffalo Bills, reportedly received $54,000 from agent Norby Walters beginning in 1984, during his junior year.

■ Indianapolis Colts offensive lineman Chris Hinton has signed a series of four one-year contracts.

■ Hector "Macho" Camacho outslugged and outthrust Howard Davis on the inside to capture a 10-round unanimous decision in his junior welterweight boxing debut at the Atlantic City Convention Center. Camacho (32-0 with 16 knockouts), the former World Boxing Council junior lightweight and outgoing lightweight champion, overwhelmed Davis in the first, second and eighth rounds. Davis, the 1976 Olympic gold medalist, dropped to 29-4-1 with 12 knockouts.

■ Roberto Duran will begin a comeback attempt May 16 when he fights middleweight Victor Claudio at the Miami Beach Convention Center. Duran, 35, a former lightweight, welterweight and junior-middleweight champion, last fought in June, 1986, when he lost to middleweight Robbie Sims.

■ Ronald Weigel led an East German sweep of the first three spots of the men's 50-kilometer race at the 36-nation Race Walking World Cup in New York's Central Park. East Germany holds a nine-point lead over the Soviet Union, which took the next three positions. The men's race will be completed Sunday with a 20-kilometer race.

Lendl gets scare in German Open

From Chicago Tribune wires

Kent Carlsson came within two points of upsetting Ivan Lendl in the semifinals of the German Open Saturday, but the world's top player staged a dramatic rally to prevail 3-6, 7-5, 6-0 in Hamburg, West Germany.

Lendl's opponent in the final will be second-seeded Miloslav Mecir, who defeated Eduardo Bengochea 7-6 [7-4], 6-1.

Carlsson was serving for the match at 6-3, 5-4 and led 30-15 before the top-seeded Lendl staged his comeback. He won the next three points to even the match at 5-5, then overpowered the third-seeded Swede by winning the next eight games to wrap up the match.

"I didn't feel it was all over after winning the second set, but in the final set I think I broke him down mentally and physically," Lendl said.

"I've never been that close to beating a top player before," Carlsson said. "Obviously, I am very disappointed to lose, but I am also happy because I know now that I can compete with the best."

Bengochea, ranked 86th in the world, broke Mecir twice early in their match to take a 3-0 lead in the first set. Bengochea was within two points of winning the set in the 12th game before Mecir rallied.

Rain stopped the second set with Mecir leading 2-1. Mecir won four straight games after the 90-minute delay.

Mecir will be competing in his sixth final and aiming for his fifth title of the year. He defeated Lendl in the final of the Lipton International Players Championships at Key Biscayne, Fla., in March.

Eckerd Open—Top-seeded Chris Evert needed only 48 minutes to defeat qualifier Beverly Bowes 6-0, 6-0 in the semifinals at Largo, Fla. In the other semifinal, No. 4 seed Kate Gompert beat second-seeded Kathy Rinaldi 6-0, 6-1. Rinaldi got just three of her first serves in during the match and double-faulted 12 times.

Evert was sharp from the start. She connected on 78 percent of her first serves and had 10 service winners. Bowes, meanwhile, committed 23 errors.

"Everything is clicking," Evert said. "I moved well, my service was good, and I kept my concentration."

"Playing Chris was one of my all-time things that I wanted to do," said Bowes, a 21-year-old senior at the University of Texas who grew up in Deerfield, Ill. "It has been such a big deal to me. Maybe that's why it was so hard to do."

"It was so frustrating. Her movement was incredible. I've played Steffi Graf, Pam Shriver and some of the others. But Chris is the quickest I've seen."

Dunlop Masters—Top-seeded Ramesh Krishnan rallied to beat No. 3 Andrew Castle 4-6, 6-0, 6-3 in the semifinals in Nagoya, Japan. No. 5 seed Jay Lapidus also advanced, defeating Mary Corita of Glenview, Ill., 4-6, 7-6, 6-1.
