coming back this soon, but he doesn't seem to have any problems," said Thornton.

Thornton said Schulhofer became interested in the St. Paul Derby because he trains many horses for Minneapolis owner Frances Genter.

"When we first looked at the race, it looked like it might be pretty easy, but that was before Lost Code entered," Thornton said. Lost Code has won five straight stakes races, including vic-tories in the Ohio, Illinois and Al-abama Derbies.

Jockey Laffit Pincay will be aboard Cryptoclearance for only the second time. He took over after Schulhofer became unhappy with the way Jose Santos rode in the Preakness.

h Adams, 29, the only son of Houston Oilers owner Bud Adams, was found shot to death Friday at the family's ranch in far northwest Harris County (Tex.). The younger Adams was found shortly after 3 p.m. by another family member, police said. "All I can say right now is that Mr. Adams' son, Kenneth, passed away," said Oilers spokesman Chip Namais. "Details on that we do not have yet. We're awaiting them. Should we get them, we'll follow with a statement, but right now that's the only information I have." Police said the gunshot was apparently self-inflicted.

the church, but it decried school officials' "arrogance of power" that brought unprecedented scan-

Bud Adams was to have made a courtesy visit this weekend with Jacksonville, Fla., officials who have been seeking a National Football League franchise to play in their 80,000-seat Gator Bowl. Adams wants Houston's 50,000-seat Astrodome, the smallest stadium in the NFL, expanded by up to 15,000 seats and a new artificial turf installed.

James Bell, a former Edmonton defensive back in the Canadian Football League who suffered a spinal-cord injury in a game last year, has filed a lawsuit against Chicago-based Riddell Inc., the largest U.S. manufacturer of football helmets. The suit, to be heard in Illinois, claims Riddell is responsible for faulty engineering in the design of its helmet. Bell, 28, was hurt after tackling a British Columbia receiver in Vancouver last September.

Duke basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski announced the 12-man roster that will represent the U.S. in the World University Games in July in Zagreb, Yugoslavia: Troy Lewis, Purdue; B.J. Armstrong, Iowa; Mark Bryant, Seton Hall; Matt Bullard, Colorado; Sean Elliott, Arizona; Danny Ferry and Billy King, Duke; Eric Leckner, Wyoming; Perry McDonald, Georgetown; Mitch Redmond, Kansas State; Anthony Taylor, Oregon and Curtis Wilson, Ohio State.

A United Methodist Church committee voted to continue Southern Methodist's affiliation with dal and embarrassment to SMU and warned that the school will be carefully monitored for some time to come. "This is a sad tale of misplaced loyalty and an arrogance of power among a few who emphasized a superficial and inappropriate image for the university and a mentality of 'win at all costs,'" the University Senate concluded.

The University of Pittsburgh declared two senior football players, running back Charles Gladman and defensive back Teryl Austin ineligible for the 1987 season because of their links to sports agents Norby Walters and Lawrence Bloom.

Memorial services are set for Saturday in Salem, Va., for Joseph Sandy "Buddy" Hackman, a wingback in Tennessee's 1928-30 backfield of "Hack, Mack and Dodd." He was 81. He teamed with halfback Gene "Mack" McEver and quarterback Bobby Dodd on teams that went 27-1-3.

Boxer Craig Bodzianowski has been charged with aggravated battery resulting from a dispute with another motorist, according to Tinley Park police. He's scheduled to appear in court July 20. A grievance has been filed against the Lockport School Board by the local teachers' union in the. wake of the board's appointment last Saturday of Rollie Bolattino as Lockport High's basketball coach. The union charged the board violated the teachers' contract when it appointed Bolattino without waiting for a recommendation from the administration. The board, meeting last Saturday morning, named Bolattino to succeed veteran coach Bob Basarich, who was not rehired last May. The board earlier turned down the administration's recommendation that current assistant coach Joe Gura succeed Basarich. Bolattino and Gura were the only candidates considered by the administration after Basarich withdrew his name during an investigation of charges that he exerted "undue influence" to keep players in Lockport.

More than 150 teams began competing in the 1987 Chicago Tribune Youth Soccer Tournament two months ago. The top 14 teams remain. On Saturday, you can see the seven final games which will determine the champions. The day also will feature something for every soccer fan including refreshments, the Sting Speed Machine and much more. Sting players will be on hand throughout the day to sign autographs; bring your camera, too!
