Records fall at Olympic Festival

2 Hawks advance with pair of wins

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Sarah Anderson, a women's freestyler, and Chas Morton, competing in the men's individual medley, smashed records Tuesday night as the swimming competition began in the U.S. Olympic Festival at Anderson, 17, of Moreno Valley, Calif., won the women's 200-meter freestyle in two minutes, 3.67 seconds, erasing the meet mark of 2:04.12, set by Mary Wayte in 1981.

the University of North Carolina.

Morton, 16, of Franklin, Tenn., shattered the national age group record in the 15-16 category in capturing the men's 200 individual medley in 2:07. The previous mark was 2:07.35 by Doug Gjertsen in 1984. Anderson, who will be a freshman at matches in the second day of competition at the Walker Center. Iowa's Rico Chiapparelli, the 1987 NCAA champion at 177 pounds, scored a 15-3 decision over Jon Lundberg of New London, Minn., in the 180.5-pound classification, then posted an 11-0 victory in the second match. Former Hawkeye Duane Goldman, seeded third, downed Mike Foy of Minneapolis, 18-9

Anderson had some problems with her goggles fogging but she wasn't surprised. "I have had problems with them fogging up because of my dive," she said. "I have to improve my dive. I was slow with it tonight. "When my goggles fog I can still see, but not as well as usual," Anderson said. "I didn't know where anyone else was. I couldn't see across the pool."
