
©be 2tilanta Jomman THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Agent loses suit against ex-Auburn star

By Chris Mortensen
Dy
Staf Writer A federal judge in New York has dismissed a $$ 500,000$ lawsuit has dismissed a $$ 500,000$ lawsuit filed by agent Norby Walters against former Auburn football against former Auburn footbal player Brent Fullwood because, the judge ruled, "we decline to serve as paymaster of the wages of crime, or paymaster of the wages of crime, or referee between thieves." District Judge Charles Brieant of White Plains, N.Y., blasted Walters and Fullwood in a 21 -page deters and Fullwood in a 21 -page decision for entering into a represencision for entering into a representation agreement in August 1986

But judge says both sides knew signing was 'fraudulent, wrong' before the start of Fullwood's sen- "The agreement reached by the ior season at Auburn. Brieant's ruling. staunchly de-- arties here, whether or not unusuald aresented not only a betrayal fended National Coillegiate Athletic of the high ideals that sustain ama-Association (NCAA) rules that proteur athletic competition as part of hibitatan agreement between ath- $\begin{aligned} & \text { our national elducational commit- } \\ & \text { ment; it also constituted a calculat- } \\ & \text { letes and agents. }\end{aligned}$ l

Brent Fullwood

Layoffs not total surprise at Lakewood GM workers expect to go back when sales pick up

By Melissa Turner

and Mark Calvey
Stof W Wriers
Louis McCorkle doesn't know if he's going to have $a$ job when the bills from his Christmas shopping start showing up in the mailoop. The 18year veteran of Geineral LTkewood assembly plant was tol Thewrsoad moseming that t, woo hourly workers and salaried employees there would be lad dif indefinitely Jan. 25, as GM continues to trim its work force. Empld themees said the company toased on seniority. McCorkle said based on sesionity. McCorkie said he had "heard iot of rumors that workers hired beetore March 1999 Workers hired before March 1969 , or possibly, November 1969 would or possibly Nove keep their jobs.
kle, who by Friday afternoon McCorkle, who started at the plant on Nov. 13, 196, still didn't know his Nov. 13,1969 , still didn't know hiss fate. The company had not issued a went know the date until next week will shut down its second shir a t the Letarevood plant which assembles the Cherrolet Caprice se. assembles the Cherrole Caprice sedans and station waogns Pontiac Snd More than one-third of the 3,700 workers there will be afrected by the cutbacks as GM struggles to to slash its mounting nationvide inventory of unsold cars.
GM ordered workers tits Lakewood plant on Thursday to slow shiif's assembly line will produce 38 cars per hour, rather than the 42 cars per hour it now produces, said cars per hour it now produces, said See GM, Page 8-A

Whooping it up to support their team Morrow High School students Cheryl Thomaston (second from onship game today against Effingham County, which is also left) and Kim Lowery (right) shake pompons at a pep rally Fri- making its debut in the finals. Title games in Classes AAA, day afternoon for the school's first state Class AAAA champi-. $A A$ and $A$ also will be played today. Stories, Pages $6 \cdot \mathrm{D}, 7 . \mathrm{D}$.

Filipino rebels say U.S. envoys, execs on death list $\qquad$
By Gregg Jones
specil to The lounnal Constitution MANILA. Philippines - In a broadening of communist threats against Americans in the Philippines, urban guerrillas in Manila have Phiilippines urban guerrilias in M Manila have identifired U.S. economic development offlcials, American corporate executives and em. bassy military attaches for assassination. senior rebel commander said.
Although the rebels announced last month yaat Americans would be targets in the 19 cial detailed for the first time specifici catego ries of Americans who are potential targetso of ittack.
The communist official, one of the five member New People's Army operationan com mand for the Me Manila-Rizal province recion identified mand for the Manila-Rizal province region identifed official of the U. A.Agenfor Inter national Development (AID) as potential astas sination targets The oficial also singled out U.S. Embassy mila with the sint U. onicers and eniisted Group in Manila, and American corporate executives with linis. to the U.S.S. government. The military attaches oversee transfer of U.S. military aid to the Philippine armed forces. See DEATH, Page 13-A U.S. funds set to cut noise from Hartsfield

By Bert Roughton Jr. Atlanta is eligible for $\$ 110$ mil lion in federal funding to ease the lino in federal funding to ease the noise burden of about 1,700 families that live around Hartsifild Interna. tional Airport under legislation ap. proved Friday by Congress. With 20 percent in local match ing funds, the city would have sile million to battle the noise problem in the next five years, the official said. $\begin{aligned} & \text { Friday, Congress approved }\end{aligned}$ plan to spend 82.11 billion on tho nation's airports and avilito equipment. The vote capped a year of intense public clamoring over the safety ${ }^{\text {and }}$ transportaion. The plan could provide the city million a y year. Under the $\$ 2$ million a year. Under th spending bill, atanta is entitied to syen $\$ 16$ million a year for airport in provements - the maximum possi provements - the maximum possi bie allocation, a source said. The city alss woul qualify for $\$ 4$ million 85 m year in discretionary funds. Rep. Newt Gingrich, the Republican whose district includes Harts field, wrote the provision freid, wrote the provision thite raised the maximum airport entitle ment from $\$ 12.5$ million to $\$ 16$ million. The city will use the allocation for its noise mititigation program which has targeted about 1,00 homes to be bought or sound prooted win insulation and air conditioning said
Wax Walker Altan ${ }^{\text {ta's dew deputy aviation commissione }}$ Few houses will be bought in this phase of the noise abtement por See NOISE, Page 12-A

Judge offers oldest 0'Kelley, 20, a hand in raising brothers

By John Harmon Staf Writer

Since bringing national attention to his family's struggle to be reunited under the same roof, be reunited under the same roof, the eldest of the seven orphaned O'Kelley brothers has found that it's not easy being a single parent.
Things were going fine after Terry O'Kelley gained custody of his six younger brothers seven months ago, with all seven at months ago, with all seven at home and Terry, 20 , running the home and Trery, the family's egg But an arsonist torched their two chicken houses and Terry was forced to seek a job three months ago at a poultry processing plant. Without Terry home to supervise, the brothers began to Charles, 17, moved out, Terry said. In August, Terry voluntarily placed the youngest 0 'Kelleys - Michael, 12 , and Jason, $9-$ in a foster home in Rome. Though Terry never asked for help, on Thursday a Hall County Juvenile Court judge de-

The goal of this court as well as the entire community is to see this family reunited.'

- Judge Bill House
cided to step in. Judge Bill House placed custody of the five youngest brothers in the hands of Family and Children Services of Family and Children Services (DFCS). Tommy lives in a house in Gainesville and is not in Gainesville and in not affected by the judge's order. by the judge's order.
However, the judge praised Terry's job as a single parent and will allow Jeffrey, 15, David, 16 , and Charles, who have since 16 , and Charles, who have since moved back home, to continue moved back home, to continue living with him. In addition, House will allow the two young. est boys to remain in Rome, and he praised Terry for placing them there.
"The goal of this court as See BROTHERS, Page 10-A 数

Inside Today

VOL 38, NO. 60 - 178 PAGES, 9 SECTIONS TVA to cut pover rates $6 \%$ Tennessee Valley Authority officials will reduce power rates by 6 cials will reduce power rates by percent beginning Jan. 2 for thir 3 percent eeginnins an. 2 for their million customers in seven states, including nine north Georgia counties.

Mostly cloudy
Saturday will be mostly cloudy with a high in the mid-50s and an overnight low in the mid 30 s. Sunday also will be mostly cloudy with a high in the mid-60s. Detalls, $10-\mathrm{C}$

BUSINESS \begin{tabular}{ll}
& SECTION C  \hline METRO & STATE & SECTION B, 9 C  \hline NATIONWORE
\hline

NATION/WORLD SECMON B, 9
SPORTS & SECTION A
\hline
\end{tabular} ABBY SECTIOND ABBY

BBOM
BRIDGE
BIS
 TO SUBSCRIBE, CAU 522.4141

To Cubans in Pen riot, 'El Gato' died a martyr Detainees paid tribute to convicted felon killed on first day of uprising By Amy Wallac Staf Writer On the morning of Nov. 23, a single buliet inred from an Atlanta Federal Penitentiary guard towe federal Penientuary guard towe hit Jose Angel Pena-Perez in the right temple, killing him instantly right temple, killing him instantly.
A few hours later, at the prison hospital, more than a hundred Cu - ban detainees ban detainees gathered to mourn and pray and sing "EI and pray and sing "El Himno Nacional", the Cuban national anthem The longest prison uprising in American history had found its

$$
\text { martyr. } \text { Run to the b } $$ erland is proud of you," they san in Spanish. "Don't fear a glorious death, because to die for your country is to live. To live in chains is to try is to live. To ive in chains is to live submitting to humiliation. Listen to the to to the trumpet calling the brave to arms." ten arms."

Pena, Pena, who lived nearly a sisth of his 32 years in American prisons, was the of
was the only man - Cuban or American - to die in the Atlanta uprisini

As an excludable alien and con- striking white skin and dark ha victed felon, Pena is portrayed in and eyes - a "trigueno" in Spanish bureaucratic detail on rap sheets, immigration fileses and prap sheneets, $\begin{aligned} & \text { One American inmate wrote about } \\ & \text { Pena's death in a letter. "I knew } \\ & \text { ords. But little is }\end{aligned}$ known ords. But little is known about the man. Even the circumstances of his death are disputed.
Pena was known by his fellow Pena was known by his fellow prisoners as "E1 Gato," The Cat. Some described the 5.forot-9.1nch, 150 -pound man as cool, a loner with 150 -poung man as cool, a loner with

The inside story on Cuban takeover Guadalupe Perez Jr. was in a unique position during the Cu Federal Penitentiary. Bilingual, and trained as a hostage nego tiator and Journalist, Perez helped keep his colleagues in peased during the 11 -day or dieal. He kept a daily journal hiding the crumpled pages in his socks. Sunday in The Attinhis socks: Sunday in The Atian his story

Noise

From Page 1-A
gram, he said.
Atlanta, the only city to use all noise, has spent $$ 150$ million in rederal and matching funds on The city has bought out , 800 families in the high-noise areas of Atlanta, College Park and Mountain View, a town that no onger exists. Nearly all the ouses have been moved and the neighborhoods targeted for redevelopment, generally as ware house, office and light industrial parks. The measure, approved 410-1 on Friday in the House, extends programs through which the fed eral government funds air traffic conal government funds air traffict contlers, aviation services and aid to communities for airport improvement.
The bill Federel Aviliation Admininistration (FAA) to have 15,900 air traffic controllers at work by Sept 30, an increase of about 500. It also orders the FAA to require airlines to equip their planes with midair collision alert systems within four years. years. The legislation "makes major contributions to improving the > safety and efficiency of our air complaints, Rep. John Hammerransportation system,", said Rep. schmidt of Arkansas, senior Reransportation system, said Rep. schmidt of Arkansas, senior Re-Norman Mineta (D.Calif.), chair man of the House aviation mittee, said, "The root cause is The bill, approved by voice airway system to keep pace with The Thursday in the Senate, was airway system the demands of our passengers the demands of our passengers and the general aviation system." General aviation refers to private and corporate planes The bill authorizes $$ 8.7$ billion in spending over the next five years for airport improvements, an increase of about $$ 700$ million an year over current levels. An additional $$ 5.3$ billion could be spent over three years for state-of-the-art landing systems, computers and other equipment for air traffic controllers. The bill would allow $$ 5.5$ billion in spending during the next three years for federal aviation workers' salaries and $$ 638$ million for three years of research. The money would have to be provided in separate app tions legislation each year. The bill extends for three years the 8 percent tax on airline passenger tickets and other levies that go into the Aviation Trust Fund, which has a surplus of $$ 5.6$ Fund, wh billion.
> 10 The measure also extends for 10 years federal subsidies that are paid to airlines for providing are paid to airlines for providing service to many small commities. service to communities.

Agent

From Page 1-A said Friday. A grand jury is expect ed to decide in January whether to indict the agents and athietes on frauu and other charges.
"Both sides of the transaction knew exactly what they were doing, and they knew it was rraudulen and wrong," Brieant wrote of Fullwood and Walters.
Despite the judge's criticism of both parties, attorneys for both both parties, attorneys for both sides considered the dismissal a victory for Fullwood and a defeat or Walters, a New York-based agent who said in.March that he was "going to prove contract law" in was "going to prove contract law" in seeking to enforce the contracts he signed with athletes.
aging," said Tony Pannacio toncouraging, said Tony Pannacio, one of Walters' New York attorneys. "But we haven't seen the decision yet, so we'll withhold comment until we do see it."
Walters was trying to recover $$ 8.042$ he eave Fullwood in the fall of 1986 . He also wanted an additional $$ 500,000$ in damages betause al $$ 500,000$ in damages because Fullwood dismissed him and hired another agent, George Kickliter of Auburn. Kickliter also was named in the dismissed suit. in the dismissed suit. Walters has maintained he has broken no laws. However, attorney Richard Glickel of New York,
"The is the first time a were instituted to prevent college court, state or federal has ing for their schools. The provisions ever upheld the Consti- are rationally related to the comtution of the NCAA. I $\begin{gathered}\text { mendable objective of protecting } \\ \text { academic integrity of NCAA mem- }\end{gathered}$ consider this a significant ber institutions." case, and I think the NCAA will, too.'

- Attorney Richard Gllicke!
represented Fullwood, successfully argued that public policy should not allow such inducements by Walters The judge wrote, "This court concludes that Ithe dealings between Walters and Fullwood violated . . the NCAA Constitution, the ed. . The NCAA Constitution, the observance of which is in the public observance of which is in ine pubic state, and that the parties to those agreements knowingly betrayed an agreements knowingly betrayed an important, if perhaps naive, public trust." Glickel used the NCAA Constitur Glickel used the NCAA Constitution bylaws in arguing the case. tion bylaws in arguing the case. state or federal has ever upheld the Constitution of the NCAA", Glickel said. "I consider this a sinifant said. "I consider this a significant case, and I think the NCAA will. too." Brieant's ruling frequatly Brieant's ruling frequently cited NCAA Constitution's sections $3-1(a)$ NCA (c), which prohibitt an agreement between athletes and agents.
Brieant wrote that the rules

The judge also wrote, "Since the advent of intercollegiate sports in the late 19 th century, American the advent of intereotlegiate sports in the late 19 th century, American colleges have struggled, with varying degrees of vigor, to protect the integrity of higher education from sports-related evils such as gambling, recruitment violations and bling, recruitment violations and the employment of mercenaries whose presence in college athletic programs will tend to preclude the participation of legitimate scholar athletes.

Fullwo with the Green Bay Packers who was the fourth player chosen in this year's National Football League Friday Walters also be reached able for comment.
It is the second time a jute the riticized the agent in judge has pinion. In allowing an NFL Playbetween Walters anbitration hearing running back Ronnie Harmon to puoceed in June, New York state nan labeled Walters' activities "pernicious" and "decettive."

GAS LOGS SAVEOF

 \begin{tabular}{c} GLASS DOORS
PORTLAND GLASS FYRE
\hline

 1 IT Glase doors Custom Ordersil

\hline WOOD  STOVES WAT. ORLI
OAS
OAS
\end{tabular} HEARTH_AND PATIO $934-8646$

2316 MAIN STRET TUCKER BARGAINS 5 USED GRAND Southeripis eyboards ATLANTA MARIETTA

LET OUR HOUSE MAKE YOUR HOUSE APERFECT HOME FOR THE HOLIDAVS.

The Butikken shop in The House of Denmark's Piedmont store is the one-stop answer to all of your holiday gitt-giving needs. Butikken was created to provide our discriminating customers with the finest collection of imported classic contemporary $\square$ HOUSE OF crystal, tableware and accessories. Givea a sift $\square$ git to be treasured for a iong time, or add to free gift-wrapping and bridal registry.

Hickory

THE HAM WITH REAL HONEY

HICKORY HAMS are cured all the way through with pure natural honey - about 6 ounces in an 8 pound ham...and much less salt. They are closely trimmed and smoked for hours and hours with real Hickory hardwoods to achieve a taste so uniquely delicious it is often called naturally perfect.
CARTERSVILLE
959.0e Frank Harris
P86-i300

Douglasville Park R hazas Ner's)
Near Krogers) Near Krogers) 3833.140hway 5
ase fayetteville Near Wal-Mart)

N25 North Glymn | street |
| :---: |
| $61-874$ |
| 1 | 95kwe rran

Pk6-1300
 S482 Chamblee
Dunuord Foad
390.086

