Iron Courage gets chance to make a Million

By Neil Milbert

An invitation to the Arlington Million may hinge on how well Iron Courage runs in Saturday's $150,000-added Hawthorne Budweiser Breeders' Cup.

The New Jersey invader is the only one of the 11 starters in the one-mile grass race nominated for Million VIII Aug. 20 at Woodbine in Toronto.

An international group of selectors is to announce the 14 starters and 10 American and 10 European alternates Aug. 8.

This year's American grass horse brigade suffers when compared with those of the last seven years. Iron Courage has a shot at an invitation, but it probably will take a powerful performance Saturday.

The 4-year-old colt led all the way in winning Monmouth Park's Grade III Red Bank Handicap June 11 as an 11-to-1 outsider. But after that mile victory on the grass, Iron Courage NOTEBOOK finished fifth in the 11/16-mile Monmouth Grade III Oceanport Handicap.

Iron Courage has run exclusively on grass this year after racing on dirt last year. He has three wins and a close second in seven starts this season.

Among his 10 rivals Saturday is Explosive Darling, a 6-yearold gelding owned by Arlington Park owner Dick Duchossois. In last summer's Million at Arlington, Explosive Darling finished fourth, the best showing by a Chicago horse in the race. Last fall at Hollywood Park, he was fifth in the 14-horse international field of the $2 million Breeders' Cup Turf, the world's richest grass race. But neither the Million nor the Breeders' Cup Turf, Nov. 5 at Churchill Downs, is on his 1988 agenda.

"It's a day-to-day thing with Explosive Darling," said trainer Lou Goldfine. "Physically, he isn't 100 percent, and the last thing Mr. Duchossois wants to do is risk hurting him."

Explosive Darling's problems stem from a tendon injury suffered in the Jan. 23 Gulfstream Budweiser Breeders' Cup Handicap. He didn't run again until decisively winning a July 14 allowance on the Hawthorne grass. "He ran a very good race, but the horses weren't the kind he'll face Saturday," Goldfine said. "If he isn't right Saturday morning, he isn't running in the afternoon."

Two more trainers have been suspended at Hawthorne, accused of giving their horses a tranquilizer, track officials said. Kenneth Wilkey, 48, of Schaumburg, and Leonard Slager, 42, of Chicago, each were suspended for 60 days by the track steward.

The suspensions bring to 10 the number of trainers accused of drugging their horses. Wilkey has obtained a restraining order that allows him to continue to train until a hearing before the Illinois Racing Board.

Wilkey is the brother of veterinarian Walter Wilkey, suspended for 10 years for allegedly administering promazine to several horses, officials said. He is appealing the suspension.

Sportsman's weekend stakes schedule features the $195,000 Grandma Ann Pace for fillies Saturday and the $129,200 the Su Mac Lad Trot for standardbreds of both sexes Sunday afternoon.

Both races are restricted to Illinois-bred 3-year-olds.

The winners of last weekend's elimination heats collide in the Grandma Ann: Kozy Nook, True Companion and Pan Fried.

Michael Fay of New Zealand reached a evidence that his final effort at last week's stead of the original proposed date of Sept. 19. The compromise represents the first time the challenge and defense teams have agreed on anything since Fay submitted his challenge for the Cup July 17, 1987. San Diego's Sail America syndicate said the series is scheduled to be sailed Sept. 7, 9 and 11. Both sides still must work out other details, such as how many races there will be, the race course, sailing conditions and penalties for race infringements. A figurative sigh of relief was heard all the way in Bristol, Conn., where Craig Muckle, an ESPN spokesman, said, "It worked out pretty well [for the cable network]. It was their decision. We're happy to be televising the event." And not conflicting with the Olympics. Diane Simpson of Evanston held her slim lead in the all-around competition but several competitors were within striking distance after Friday's first round of the U.S. Olympic Rhythmic Gymnastics Trials in Salt Lake City. The top two finishers after Saturday's competition will make the U.S. team. Simpson, who dropped her clubs on one routine and dropped briefly into a first-place tie in the all-around competition, fainted in the interview room, but regained consciousness about 15 seconds later and said, "sorry about that."

compromise Friday with Doug Alford, com- U.S. Olympic track and field trials was meamodore of the San Diego Yacht Club, to sured inaccurately. Conley, a silver medalist begin the America's Cup races Sept. 7, in- in the 1984 Olympics from Chicago, contends he didn't make the squad because his final triple jump wasn't measured correctly. Conley said he jumped farther at the trials than former Indiana jumper Robert Cannon. Conley said his final jump should have been measured at 57 feet 111/2 inches and not the 57-7³/₄ he was given when a judge ruled Conley's shorts scraped the sand. Conley said Los Angeles attorney David Grifinger has sent a letter to The Athletics Congress. A TAC spokesman said the organization had received the letter but that Conley originally protested the measurement and was turned down at the time of the competition in Indianapolis.

> Tax evasion charges leveled against the U.S. Gymnastics Federation will hurt the pride and performances of gymnasts who began competing for a spot on the U.S. Olympic team, coach Bela Karolyi says. "Everything that is going on is always reflected in an athlete's performance. How in the world, if you say something about the integrity of the governing body, do they not lose their pride?" he said. "These kids, who have been sacrificing all their lives for this chance at the Olympics, now must worry about these labels, about these charges of cheating, lying and tax evasion."

Jim Darrah has been named athletic director at Illinois Tech. He will continue as baseball coach, a job he has held since 1979. Dennis Hull will remain with the school as a fund-raiser and will do public relations.

George Carter, the brother of former Ohio State wide receiver Cris Carter, says he did not push his brother into signing with agents Norby Walters and Lloyd Bloom, an action that led to Cris' dismissal from the Buckeyes, according to the Dayton Daily News. Cris is being investigated by a Chicago grand jury probing athletes who deal with agents in violation of NCAA rules. George Carter reportedly also is a target of the grand jury investigation.

Three former Florida basketball players said this week that they were given money by coaches, a possible violation of NCAA rules, according to a Florida newspaper. Andrew Moten, Anthony Williams and another player who requested anonymity said they were given cash by either associate head coach Monte Towe or assistant coach Kenny McCraney. "Every now and then, they [the coaches] gave me money," Moten said. "Not very much, but a little bit. Tens and twenties.

Kassa Branca won the $1.04-million Woodrow Wilson Pace in world-record time at the Meadowlands Racetrack, holding off a furious late bid by Nukes Image. Kassa Branca, driven by John Campbell, covered the mile in 1:52 ³/₅ to break the record set by Nihilator when he captured the Wilson Aug. 16, 1984.
